

THE STUDENT VOICE

Louisburg College COLUMNS

VOL. 53, NO. 12 MARCH 12, 1996

I want to be Mr (?) Lou-U!

Contestants in the Mr. Lou-U contest on Thursday, February 22nd gave the audience plenty of laughs. Here Jamie Birkenstock (left) and Levon Harris compete in the talent category. Harris was named first runner up, with Squirrel Kerr taking second runner up honors.

Nomination Process Begins

S.G.A. ELECTIONS UPCOMING

The Student Government Association is gearing up for the elections that will determine the executive officers for the 1996-97 school year. Nomination papers can be picked up in the Student Affairs Office in Davis Hall. The closing date for nominations is April 1. The elections will be held the week of April 18.

The executive officers are the President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer of the Student Government Association. All first-year students are able to run for these offices. The S.G.A. encourages all interested people to fill out the nomination papers.

Shyllon shines for title

Karim Shyllon was crowned Mr. Lou-U at the annual WAVES-sponsored Mr. Lou-U contest, which was held on February 22nd. WAVES president Christie Rudd served as the host while nominees Mark Micale, Shawn Ballard, Alex Hawthorne, Levon Harris, Squirrel Kerr, Linwood Davis, Garnett Heilig, and Jamie Birkenstock all showed up to impress the judges and the packed crowd. In one category, contestants were asked to pull talents out of a hat and act them out. They ranged from jumping rope to impressions of resident directors.

Shyllon cinched his title with an impression of Coach Drake during a time out, which seemed to ring true with players Harris and Hawthorne. When a tie had been declared between Shyllon and Harris, they were asked to give a final pose for applause. Congratulations to all!

INSIDE

COLUMNS...

What's Up.....	2
Passion.....	3
Lady 'Canes B-Ball.....	4
Spring sports preview.....	5
A Lesson in Pride.....	6