Madness at Midnight

By The "Columns" Staff

On Monday, November 3, 1997, Louisburg College will be hosting "Midnight Madness" in Holton Gymnasium from 9 p.m. until 12 a.m.

During this time, several activities will take place. Four intramural teams will compete in a mini-tournament. The men's and women's basketball players of programs are going to be introduced and then the captains will speak to the crowd. After the cheerleaders perform, there will also be a three-point competition, a slam-dunk competition, and a Little Caesar's Half Court Challenge for $100.

The three-point and slam-dunk competitions will include the semifinals and finals. The winner of each competition will receive a trophy, compliments of Little Caesar's Pizza of Louisburg.

The $100 sponsorship will enable the College to purchase the trophies for the two competitions. Dean Krause is requesting 20 coupons for the Half Court Challenge, and a receipt/letter for the $100 if an individual (three drawn from the crowd) makes the half court shot. There will only be one winner in this contest, but the contestants drawn will still receive a pizza coupon.

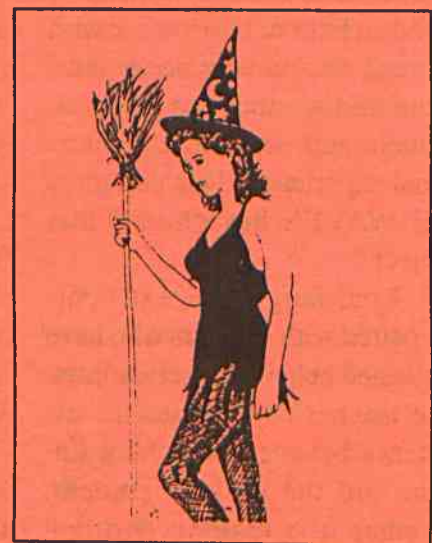

Dean Krause is also requesting Little Caesar's Pizza to furnish any sale promotional items for the crowd and any other promotional items (plastic cups, t-shirts, etc.) that the cheerleaders could throw to the crowd throughout the evening. Little Caesar's pizza will also sell pizzas in the lobby of the gymnasium. So, get out there and show your Lou-U spirit for our basketball programs!!

Masquerade Ball

By Kiejah Dionne

Last year, the Student Government Association held a haunted house to celebrate All Hallows Eve. Unfortunately, according to Jamie Dew, they are not doing it this year because the house was difficult to rent, and a cleanup crew was hard to find after the event was over. There were also some noise complaints about the haunted house from the community. This year, the SGA has made plans to hold a masquerade ball tonight for students who want to dress up in costumes, and have a good time. DJ Delroy will play hit songs for the ball tonight. There will also be a contest for the best costumes tonight. First-place winner will receive two CDs and a gift certificate. The second-place winner will receive one CD and a gift certificate, both courtesy from Walmart. Do not forget to bring a canned good for admission. The cans collected will be donated to a needy cause in the community by SGA. The festivities are tonight beginning at 9:30 p.m. at ending at 1:30 a.m.. Hope to see you there!!!
