

A busy Homecoming planned by groups

Unlike past years, during which many of us usually made a mad exodus to Central and A and T to enjoy THEIR homecomings, Black organizations at Carolina have pitched in to make Homecoming in Chapel Hill a more memorable experience. These activities, coupled with the appearances of Billy Cobham and Earth, Wind, and Fire in the area and the fact that at least two Black young ladies will be vying for campus royalty in elections for Homecoming Queen, may make staying in Chapel Hill for the weekend well worth your time.

Highlights of the festivities include a Dating Game, sponsored jointly by BLACK INK and Conosco, a Post-Concert Jam sponsored by Kappa Alpha Psi, a Pre-Game mixer held by Delta Sigma Theta and Omega Psi Phi, and Club AKA, sponsored by Alpha Kappa Alpha.

The schedule of events is as follows:
