

My Endless Source

The bud upon the stem;
 My blooming in You did begin.
 You're the rainbow in my sky
 The star that lights my darkest night.
 The stream that in the meadow
 flows;
 You're the peace the mountains
 know.
 The colors rising in the dawn;
 Bringing hope to yet another morn'.
 You're the breeze that says,
 "Peace, be still."
 When it sweeps through a fertile field.
 You're the soaring of the reagle
 bird;
 On wings of prayers never heard.
 My strength and sole inspiration;
 My every goal and aspiration.
 And in this realization
 My soul has found captivation:
 Only in the love I've found in You
 Is there meaning in what I do.
 My soul says yes unto your voice.
 The joy of my life, My endless
 source.

Praise God!

To Sunshine

and i try denying it
 but you are beautiful anyway
 i see inside of you now
 and i bathed my mind in you my heart is the victor
 even in my deepest pain and logic
 my heart has been strengthened and placed at ease
 that yes you actually are just a person who like me loves and finds pleasure and says "this is it" more than once so here's to you in your beauty
 that i touched and captured for a while here's to you wherever you are.
