

continued on page 6

Wollis Wilson, a concerned pastor from the community was the last speaker at the meeting "We live in the 1980's and we have come a long way to get to the place we are now," he said. "... Remember, don't get so engrossed with your setting at UNC that you become like the oppressor that has oppressed us for so long. Somewhere there has to be a little love. Stop and think about what you are doing."

Blacks on the field:
Above, Lisa Jeffries, the newest cheerleader, demonstrates her expertise. Left, Kelvin Bryant races for yards on the Thanksgiving Day game acquaint Bowling Green. Below, Ophelia Davis, a majorette, performs a hat-dance routine.

