

Gaston's 3M Company

Marvin

Wins

Spring elections were in the air on May 2. Gaston held its SGA election for executive officers. Winners were: the incumbent president Mr. Terry Messer and his running mate for Vice-President Mr. James E. Smith; Miss Anna Gollo won the position of treasurer, and Phyllis Huffstickler became the secretary.

On the county scene Porter McAteer won over George Jenkins in the Democratic Primary race for county commissioner.

Senator Helen Marvin won the Democratic nomination again for the seat she now holds in the N.C. Senate.

Congratulations to these Gaston Winners.

Spring Fling Successful

Monday April 24, 1978 was the kick-off of the SGA's Spring Fling. From 11:00 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. Pam Hallman and Ronnie Gant provided entertainment in the Myers Center Cafeteria. The "Blue Grass and Country" group "Plum Hollow" played from 7:30 until 11:30 p.m. Monday night.

During the lunch hour on Tuesday, an Amateur Hour was held with a few of Gaston's student participating. Tuesday night the group "Wide Open" performed for the second time this year at Gaston.

Dr. Joe Mills presided over the mid-day "50's Disco", with a special guest appearance by Gaston's own "Andrews Sisters." From 5:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. a Cook Out was held for the night students. Nostalgia movies were shown from 6:30 until 7:00 p.m. They were: "Who's On First" with Abbott and Costello, "The Big Mouth" with Jerry Lewis, and "Hoi Polloi" with The Three Stooges.

On Thursday a Laugh-In take off on the SGA was staged starring the candidates running for the SGA offices for next year. Later in the day a Disco was held in the Myers Center.

Friday wrapped up the week with a Cook Out for the day students and a Top-40 Disco from 8:00 p.m. until midnight.

Donna Angley and Carol Coley deserve a vote of thanks for co-chairing the Social Committee responsible for this Spring Fling.

ICC Sponsors Club Day May 10

Club Day will be sponsored by the ICC on May 10, 1978 from 10:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. Everyone is urged to participate since this is Gaston's first annual Club Day. The purpose of Club Day is to publicize the various clubs on campus and to raise money for club funds.

A preview of what to expect features a variety of activities. The Psychology Club is planning a "Parapsychology Booth" with "palm reading" and "Bio-Rhythms" for $.25 each.

The Outing Club plans to hold a series of field events. Entrants into these contests will pay a $.50 entry fee. Prizes will be awarded. The Outing Club will also sell fresh lemonade at $.20 a cup.

The AEYC is sponsoring a cake-walk at $.50 per entry. They also plan to sell jewelry and other small items at their booth.

The Industrial Engineering Technology Club offers you a chance to work out your frustrations on a car. You may use a small sledge hammer for $.25 and if you can lift it, a large one for $.50.

The Foreign Language Society will be selling Mexican tacos again for $.50 and French Crepes for $.35. They also plan to have a dart board set up.

The Gamma Beta Phi Society will be running a photobooth featuring nostalgia props. They also will be selling freshly popped popcorn.

The Civil Club will be demonstrating their equipment for a small fee of $.10. You will get a chance to estimate a distance between two visible points with the closest estimate winning a prize.

The SNA will sponsor three booths. You may get to dunk your favorite teacher for $.25. A sweet shop will be open to tempt you from your diet, and you may place a buddy in jail at the third.

The BSU will have a "pie-throwing" booth. For $.25 you get a chance to smack A.C. Sherrill in the face with a whipped cream pie.

Dr. Dean Jones encourages everyone to get into the swing of things and participate. Also everyone is urged to dress up in circus or '90's costumes or old clothes they don't mind getting dirty.

This could be Gaston's event of the year—so come on out.
