ENROLLMENT

(Starts On Page One) lives of our youth who are living now and preparing to render better service. Surely, the call of this group of older men and women who have never been able to prepare themselves as they ought should appeal to our people. Our men sacrifice, some go hungry, just for the privilege of preparing at Gardner-Webb.

An investment in this worthy project will pay dividends throughout the years in enriched lives and finer living.

Get The Habit Of Happiness - -

Dr. Frank Crane spoke much of a parable when he said: "Get the habit! For happiness is largely a matter of habit. Abe Lincoln hit the nail on the head, with his usual accuracy, when he said: 'I have noticed that folks are generally about as happy as they have made up their minds to be.' There may be something in temperament, in your natural born disposition. Some people seem to eat gloom, but as in the case of children who suck their thumb or stuffer, it is habit mostly. There may be something in circumstances. It seems hard to be happy when you can't have another piece of pie, when the girl you fancy does not fancy you, when there's a bell on your neck, or when the boss will not raise your wages. Still many are happy under distressing conditions, and many others are wretched though full of food and all dressed up. It's habit. Religion ought to produce happiness."

"THE CLASSIC ENTERTAINERS", dramatic group of Gardner-Webb College, and the College chorale presented Charles Dickens' immortal "Christmas Carol" on the night of December 18, under the direction of Miss Frances Cuthbertson. The players made the age-old story of "Scrooge" seem alive and moving. Approval was given by the direction of Miss Jane Fuller, added to the performance. Miss Dorothy Smith served as assistant director, and Miss Mary Sue Keeter was student director.

SERIES ONE ACT PLAYS PRESENTED IN AUDITORIUM

The Dramatics Club presented two one-act plays entitled "A Wedding" and "East Dora Not to Cry" on January 15. The characters for "The Wedding" were: The bride, Louise Edwards; the groom, Gene Hoyle; best man, J. I. Jones, Jr.; a groomsmen, Lansford Jolly; the bridegroom's mother, Mary Grace Queen; the bride's father, Bob Reason; the bride's aunt, Bernice McCurdy.

The cast for "Tell Dora Not to Cry" included Patricia Sumner as Dora; Joanne Robinson as Patricia; Jimmy Ingle as Georgia; Jimmy McKnight as Bobo; Ovelia Brawford as Fernie; Katherine Crawford as Mrs. McCutchen.

"The plays were under the direction of Miss Frances Cuthbertson with the assistance of Miss Dorothy Smith and Miss Betsy Jane Fuller. Miss Mary Sue Keeter served as student director.

RECIPE FOR A HAPPY NEW YEAR

(Continued from Page One) of work (some people omit this ingredient, and so spoil the flavor of the rest), eight of hope, seven of identity, six of liberality, five of kindness, four or rest (leaving six out of us leaving the oil out of the salad—do not do it), three or prayer, two of meditation, and one well-selected resolution. If you have no conscientious scruples, put in about a teaspoonful of good spirits, a dash of fun, a sprinkling of play, and a heaping cupful of good humor (the proportion of the ingredients may be varied to meet the needs of the individual).

"Put into the whole, love "ad libitum" and mix with a yum. Cook thoroughly in a fervent heart; garnish with a few smiles and a sprig of joy; then serve with quietness, unselfishness, and cheerfulness, and a happy new year is a certainty.

EXPANSION FUND

(Continued from Page One) energy and wide participation to press this campaign to a successful close. Mr. Guy H. Roberts, treasurer, is giving much time to the work, also. Every church, every member of every church, every individual is urged to have a worthy part in the building of a greater Gardner-Webb College. The greater Gardner-Webb College is in sight—let us press on courageously and triumphantly to the goal and beyond.

THEY'RE AT IT AGAIN

W. W. DAVIDSON IS POPULAR MEMBER OF G-W FACULTY

Understanding, impartial, concisurate and capable—these qualities belong in high degree to our respected Mr. Davidson. This is the opinion of all who are fortunate enough to have classes under him. His sense of humor adds to the interest of the subjects he teaches. We, the students, all feel indebted to him for his deep personal interest in us.

Washington Davidson was born at Lafayette, S. C. After attending high school at Boiling Springs he continued his education at Furman University, where he received an A. B. degree. Later he received the Th. M. from the Seminary at Louisville, where he also completed his resident work for a D. D. in the course of his varied education he did graduate work at N. C. State College and also at Wofford College.

He has taught Bible at Meredith College and has been pastor at Raleigh and Pleasant Hill among other places. He is now teaching Bible, psychology, and Greek here, and is pastor of Bethel Church at Lenoir and Race near there.

K. K. L's Entertain In Honor A. R. L's

"I'm Dreaming of a White Christmas" was the theme in everyone's heart at the party given by the K. K. L's on December 12 in honor of the A. R. L's.

As we walked into the Community Club House, we stepped over a huge wreath of holly, immediately we walked up to a glowing fire.

There were Christmas contests and special music. Then the refreshments were served with a background of peaceful music. With the farewells over everyone went on his merry way with "I'm dreaming of a white Christmas," on each heart again.

Odds And Ends

The college quartet—Margaret Roberts, Margaret Wacaster, Evelyn Harrill and Colleen Hill—accompanied by Coleen Talbert—sang "Aide with Me" and "When They Ring Those Golden Bells" at a beautiful memorial service in Hickory, North Carolina. The service was held at the Penelope Baptist Church in honor of James F. Connor, brother of Ruby.

Gardner-Webb students may now be identified by their red and black G. W. beanies. Make way the red caps are coming!

The student government is making plans for a College Directory of faculty and students.

It has been rumored that some big news is going to break about the first of February. Keep your ears open! That "let down" feeling is here again. You know—after holidays! You know what I mean?

A new bell system is being installed in all the buildings on the campus. No more late excuses to classes, please!

The college quartet sang "Sweet Hour of Prayer" at the regular meeting of the Boiling Springs W. M. U. held at the Community club house.

W. A. A'S HIKE TO BROAD RIVER

It was very cold on the morning of December 15 when alarm clocks began to ring at six o'clock in the girls dormitory. Twenty-five W. A. A. members dressed quickly and went quietly down stairs for hot cocoa and doughnuts before beginning their hike.

The W. A. A. council had announced the hike a few days before but the cocoa and doughnuts were a surprise.

The girls walked to the river and back before breakfast. When they began to get tired they sang Christmas carols which put "pep" in the hike.

At seven-thirty they were back at the dormitory, ready for breakfast.

HONEST EDITOR

The editor of a country newspaper retired with a fortune. When asked the secret of his success, he replied: "I attribute my ability to retire with a $100,000 bank balance after 30 years in the newspaper field, to close application to duty, pursuing a policy of strict honesty, always practicing rigorous rules of economy, and to the recent death of my uncle, who left me $38,500."

Have You Heard

Mr. Hamby drives on the left hand side of the road? He does this to dodge chickens. We think Wayne Ashe's fiancée could have fallen for him because he looks like the actor, Dana Andrews? Ruby Connor got a diamond for Christmas? We wonder how long it will be till the bells will ring out?

Someone has stolen those baby blue eyes of Mary Ingle's during Christmas holidays? Ruth Berry's Raymond has been to see her and she attended a Christmas banquet with him?

Lucile Hemphill and Thelma Autrey haven't made homes for this month? The last issue from Bernice McMurray's room on Sunday night, December 17 was O.K. Bill Walker has been wandering around the campus?

Nancy Trout started packing her clothes to go home for the holidays on Sunday before we left on Thursday. Junior must have given her the urge. Ovelia Benefield kept Billy on the road during the Christmas holidays? Ira Hoyle has heard from her soldier in New York? You should have seen her when she went to go to the States? I am very eager to get some very interesting things for our columns, so remember to spend more time, history students.

Buddy Sheppard has taken the place of Ruth Eller's "Buddie" while he's away. Is this permanent? Louise Martin now has taken her place on Hilton Hamrick's string? W. J. doesn't he rate?

Erlene Washburn took a slight headache right after she wrote Billy White a letter? Isn't that a pleasant effect?

Janice Falls and Marjorie Hoyle can even rate high school kids? Something has happened to "That Something" between Gene Hoyle and Colleen Hill?

Bob Shaw has finally chosen between the two?

James LeGette has a girl in the dormitory who does his menial work for him? Lillian Gilbert gets rather excited every time she sees Guy Johnson's car? She thinks her Furman friend might be along?

Doris Pearson takes the day off when she receives three air mail letters in one day? If it isn't one Navy guy, it's another for Margaret Roberts?

There have been several interesting debates in the student parlor lately—sometimes they get so excited that one opponent pushes another over a chair!

Betty Bowling can't nurse "the other half of Gardner-Webb" back to health?

"Trile" is the favorite newspaper expression with the staff of the Pilot?

We have two "would be" merchant marines on the campus?

Worth Bridges has a "hot rock" picture of Ila Mae Davidson.

Not a person was caught occupying the wrong peak during the campus check last Wednesday afternoon.

Carl Jolley has suddenly turned into a wolf! Look out, U. N. C.
