PINKSTON MADE IT

Julius Pinkston, 5'10" lad from Fayetteville, brought distinction to himself and to the Gardner-Webb campus when he was chosen as an honorable mention selection to the Junior College all-American club. During the past season, Pinkston scored 13 points for the second place Bulldogs. He often played defensive as well as offensive football. Seven of his points came on the receiving end of Jack Holt's pass while he roared through to block a punt in the P. J. C. contest, pick it up and race 50 yards to pay territory. Thus, even though, it's a little late, we want to offer our congratulations to Pinkston for gaining the honor.

BULLDOGS WELL BALANCED TEAM

Oak Ridge, Wingate, Pfeiffer, Mars Hill, Spartanburg, Abbey, and the other clubs in the Carolinas Junior College Conference may have their individual stars such as Jack Powell, Neki Gordon, Phil DeTurk, Buck Hallman, and Garth Doyel, but the Gardner-Webb Bulldogs have the best all-around team in the circuit. Where else around the loop can you find a starting five to cop with G-W's? With Barrow and Bush at Forwards, Trammell at Center, and Homesley and Miller at Guards, the Bulldogs have won eleven of sixteen league scraps. Only Mars Hill, Lees-McRae, and Wingate can produce starting fives to cop with the ability of the locals. MHC has Roberts and Dowel at Forwards, Moore at Center, and English and Ruby at Guards. The pennant-winning Bobcats have Stout and Reid at Forwards, Belmore at the pivot, and Moseley and Smith at Guards. Wingate, the lone unbeaten team in the J. C. loop has Floyd and Pigg at Forwards, Gordon at Center, and Musten and Hawkins at Guards. Roberts, Doyel, Moseley, and Gordon seem to be the high men in the scoring columns, but the others can hit with almost equal ability.

For about five of the Bulldogs' title season, the starting five have all hit in the double figures column.

B'dogs Land Tourney Berih; Second In Western Circuit

Coach Wayne Bradburn's Bulldog outfit captured six of their last seven starts to land second place money in the Western Division of the Carolinas Junior College Conference plus a berth in the State Tournament at the Shelby Community Center. G-W defeated the Pioneers of Spartanburg Junior College twice during the drive to wind up with an 11-5 record while the Sparts placed third with a 12-8 record. First place Lees-McRae and fourth spot Mars Hill are the other two outfits from the Western circuit in the tourney.

Here is a summary of the Bulldog drive:

BULLDOGS DROP MARS HILL
Jan. 23, the Bulldogs five dropped Mars Hill's Lions from first place with a thrilling 7-4 victory in the local gym. MHC entered the contest with a 4-1 record while G-W enjoyed a 4-4 record. Garth Doyel, star Lion Forward, was held to 15 points while every member of the G-W starting five hit in the double figures' column. Tom Barrow topped the attack with 20 points followed by Roger Wright with 17, Bob Bush with 10, Banks Miller with 13, and Al Homesley with 11. G-W led at halftime 35-32. Bobby Roberts topped the visiting Baptists with 17 points.

CHARLOTTE SMASHED AGAIN
Two nights later, G-W went wild, scoring 86 points, their previous high for the season, as they racked Charlotte College 66-61. The Bulldogs leading by only 34-30 at halftime, took command of the tilt shortly after the second half got under way. Trammell 19, Homesley 14, and Miller's 13 paced G-W to its triumph. Jack Proctor racked up 29 points for the Charlotte five. G-W EDGES ABBEY

The Bulldogs tangled with their arch-rivals, the Belmont Abbey Crusaders here Jan. 27 in a Monogram Club-sponsored tilt. Abbey enjoying one of the poorest seasons in its career, put up a great fight before bowing 66-61. A packed house witnessed the struggle. Bush with 18 points, eight field goals and two free throws, paced the winners' attack while Phil DeTurk, Crusader Center, was top man for both fives with 22 points.

LOCALS OUTLAST SPARTANBURG

On Jan. 31, the Gardner-Webb team went to Spartanburg resting in second place and came back a notch higher in the No. 1 position. The result, their fourth straight decision, a 90-71 verdict over the South Carolina club. The game was fast and furious throughout with the lead changing hands five times before the Bulldogs pulled away with five minutes remaining in the first half. The host Pioneers were never in the ball game during the second half. Bush and Trammell with 21 each led the G-W attack while Buck Hallman topped the Spartanburgers with 21. G-W led at the half 44-34. EAGLES 97, G-W 76

Cramerton's Semi-Pro Eagles, hitting from all angles, dropped Gardner-Webb 97-76. Benny Cunningham with 20, Bill Fletcher with 19, and Ted Reese with 14 topped the Cramerton offensive which netted them a 43-38 lead at halftime. Trammell's 19 markers was high for the Bradburnmen.

DETURK-CRUSADERS TRIUMPH

Faced by giant Center Phil DeTurk with 35 points on 16 field goals and three free tosses, the Belmont Abbey Crusaders trounced the local five here 72-50. Abbey pulled away shortly after the game got under way and held a 34-21 advantage at the half. Captain Bob Kelly turned in a 15-point performance for the Abbeymen. Homesley with 19 points topped Gardner-Webb.

LOCALS CRUSH TORNAOES

G-W ran roughshod over Brevard here Feb. 8 blasting out a 79-57 victory. Again the Bulldogs were really hot, with the starting five peppering the nets from all angles. Bush (12), Trammell and Homesley (10 each), Miller (13), and Barrow (9) topped the locals' offensive while Bernie Welch hit for 20 to lead the Tornado five. G-W 35, Brevard 21 was the halftime score.

SPARTANBURG FALLS 73-56

The men of Bradburn dropped 44% of their shots here the following night to bounce Spartanburg Junior 73-55. The Sparts started like a house afire scoring ten points in the first four minutes. However, the visitors lost the range just when the Gardner-Webbers were finding theirs. GWC led at halftime 33-30. Scoring for the Bulldogs were: Barrow 20, Bush 6, Miller 13, Trammell

12, Homesley 9, Morton 2, and Blackburn 1. Trammell and Miller also stood out on defense, Hallman and John Calvert with 17 apiece led the Spartanburg attack.

G-W COPS

THRILLER 80-74

Baskets by Banks Miller and J. C. Trammell and a couple of gratis losses by Bob Bush gave Gardner-Webb a last-minute 80-74 victory over North Greenville here Feb. 13. This game closed the season for both teams, with the locals closing with an overall mark of 15-8. NVC, fighting for a tourney berth pushed the Bulldogs to the limit all the way. G-W led at halftime 43-35. James Gordon hit for 37 points to lead N. Greenville while Trammell was top man for the locals with 22. Homesley hit for 17 points while Barrow netted 15. Bush 10, and Miller (you guessed it) 13.

Barrow, Trammell, and Homesley
Big Three on Scoring Parade

Tom Barrow, J. C. Trammell, and Al Homesley topped the Gardner-Webb scoring parade the past season. Barrow, 6' Forward from Mayodan, tallied 113 field goals and 52 free tosses for 278 points (224 in conference play). Trammell, star pivot man coming from Shelby, has tallied 256 points (105 field goals and 46 free throws) for second place. Homesley scored 108 two-pointers and 33 charity flips for 242 points. Trammell meshed 219 in league play while Homesley canned

218. Bob Bush scored 190 points (149 in conference) and on account of an ankle injury, appeared in only 15 of the Bulldogs' 23 battles.

The Bradburnmen tallied 1539 points in the 23 scraps for a 67 point average.

See Saw

There once was a man named Esau Wood who liked to saw wood and all the wood Esau Wood saw Esau Wood would saw. Usually Wood would saw wood with a wood saw that would saw wood, but one day Woodly and saw would saw wood and thus the wood Wood sawed was not the good wood Wood would saw if Wood's wood saw would saw wood. So Esau sought a saw that would saw wood. Finally one day Esau saw a saw saw wood as no other wood saw Wood would saw wood. In fact, of all the wood saws Wood saw wood, Wood never saw a wood saw that would saw wood as the wood saw Wood saw would saw. So he bought it!
