With another school year coming to an end, we look back over the record books and find that the Gardner-Webb Bulldog Athletic teams did all right for themselves in 1950-51. The football team was second only to Lees-McRae while the bas ketball Bulldogs played second fid-cie and once again it was Lees-Mc-Rae in the No. 1 posttion. Harris' Bulldogs Bow to Pfeiffer: Finished Third Pfeiffer's Panthers rallied for three runs in the eighth inning April 21 to down the Bulldogs of G-W 5-4. Three days later, however, the local diamond outfit launched a victory skien that has now extended through six games. Spartanburg, Brevard, Mars Hill, Oak Ridge, Belmont Abbey, and the Pioneers for the second time were the victims during the recent win streak.

G-W, with Charles Morton on the mound, led Pfeiffer 4-2 after seven frames, but in the eighth, N. E. Lefko's nine broke loose for three runs against Morton and Joe Anthony. Morton, the losing pitcher, pounded out a triple and single in two tries. Ray Hovis and Bud Ward topped the Misenheimer lads' nine-hit attack. Steve Kostow was the winning pitcher

April 24, the Garuner-webests jumphed their win streak, bumping Montgomery with two for four led partanburg's Pioneers 8-1 behind the seven-hit pitching of Frank star portsider, being charged with Spartanburg's Pioneers 8-1 behind the seven-hit pitching of Frank Wilson. Andy Sealey's double and Al Homesley's single was good for a first inning tally while a base on balls, a fielders' choice, and Sea-iey's one-timer produced a fourth frame run, a single and stolen base, a hit batter, and Bob Blackburn's double gave them two more in the fifth, an error, Bob Bush's single, and a couple of stolen bases proand a couple of stolen bases pro-duced two more in the seventh, with another bobble, and singles by Blackburn and Tom Barrow giving them their final pair in the eighth. Sealey and Homesley each had three for five to pace the Bulldog at-tack on Spartanburg righthander

Two days later, Gardner-Webb journeyed to Brevard and with Anthony and Jerry Merrill tossing four-hit ball, they slaughtered the celler-dwelling Tornadoes 16-1, G-W pushed over four runs in the sec-ond, two in the fourth, four more in the fifth, two in the seventh, three in the eighth, and a singleton in the ninth for the lop-sided win. Hats Off To Bradburn-Harris For Fine Season

Now that our school year is comcongratulations for a fine season to our coaches, Wayne Bradburn and Norman Harris. Bradburn and Harris deserve a lot of credit for the work they have done this past season with the football, baseball, and basketball teams of Gardner-Webb

Bradburn, an all-star athlete (football and basketball) at Mar-shall High School and Western Carolina Teachers' College, guided the football team to a second place finish behind Lees-McRae, His basketball squad also placed second to Lees-McRae. Last season, he guid-ed the footballers to a third place finish and the basketballers to a fourth place finish during the sea-son and a fourth place ranking among North Carolina Junior Col-leges. The '49-50 court outfit bowed to state champion Wingate in the first round of the state finals, first round of the state finals, Harris was a football and base-ball star at Asheville Lee H. Edwards High School and High Point College and High Point College at the High School and High Point College at both institutions, also captain of the Lee Edwards football team of 1942, which featured Charlie (Choo Choo) Justice in the back-lield. Fresh out of High Point, Harris came to the local campus at the start of the 1949 school year. He has acted as assistant football and basketball coach and head base-ball coach for two seasons, and the ball coach for two seasons, and the way he has been turning out base-ball clubs, it looks like the well-liked Asheville boy will be here for a couple more seasons. His 1950 dia-mond outfit won the Western Conference crown with a 12-4 record. They edged Spartanburg for the title by fourteen points. This sea-son, Harris' nine has won nine and lost three with three to go. Two of those defeats have come in the ninth inning when Wingate and Pfeiffer rallied, Both those outfits have defeated G-W by one run. This season's baseball nine also owns an 11-8 victory over the defending state champion Oak Ridge club and two important decisions over their arch rivals, the Spartanburg Pion-

We also want to offer our gratulations to Bradburn and Har-ris for staging a grand field day. This was the first Field Day ever held on the Gardner-Wbeb campus, and since it was a huge success, prospects are bright for a Field Day every year.

If there were awards made to the coaches of the year in the Caro-linas Junior College Conference, our votes would go to Coaches Wayne Bradburn and Norman Harris.
