

Campus Big Wheels

Henry Smith

With such a fine crew of freshmen and returning sophomores it looks like another successful year for Gardner-Webb College in all its undertakes. One of the "big wheels" who is, and will be active in this movement is the "little big man," Henry Smith.

Henry was born July 25, 1931, in Mt. Holly, N. C. While a youngster he attended Mt. Holly High School. Here he started his life as a leader, excelling in many activities. After two years of school and while a junior, he interrupted his schooling to help defend his country by enlisting in the U. S. Navy as a hospital corpsman.

After 18 months of loyal service he entered high school in Stanley as a Junior. Here he became a king-pin on the athletic field where he served as both basketball and baseball captain and a knot raiser on the grid-iron.

Henry heard of Gardner-Webb through former student and his school coach. He investigated and it was much to his liking.

Here at G. W. Henry with his beaming personality became an outstanding student. Last year as a freshman he was in many activities on the campus. He was a king-pin on G. W.'s undefeated football squad, receiving little All-American honors from his fullback slot. When basketball season rolled around he proved to be a tricky little guard, burning up the nets from out court. He was co-captain of this fine squad and received All-State honors. That field, it is a fact that Henry Smith is one of the most outstanding athletes ever to enroll in G. W. Not only does he excel on the sports field, but he also pulls some good grades in his studies.

This year Henry was elected President of Decker Hall and Vice-President of the Monogram Club.

Although he is the butt of many jokes because of his nose, he is never caught without a comeback. No definite nickname has been set up for him yet, but we are working on one; "Smitty," "Snoz," "banna nose," or "beak"?

Henry is very fond of dancing and good music. He also loves to spread the cheese and has been seen as many Pepsis as the next man. When asked what he thought of G. W. he said, "It's really a wonderful place with the best of faculty and finest of students. I only regret it isn't a four year college."

The next school is undecided now but his plans are not incomplete. He wants to be a coach, carry out plans with a certain Miss Stroupe, and live happily ever after.

Good luck in all you undertake Henry, and surely with personality and ability like yours, you will make a success in life and be a credit to the coaching profession.

L O S T

LOST: Lost yesterday, somewhere between sunrise and sunset two golden hours, each set with sixty diamond minutes. No reward is offered for they are gone forever.

Mildred Laney

When Mildred Laney graduated from Balls Creek High School, it was their loss, but our gain.

Mildred was very active in High School as she is here on our campus. She played basketball; she was editor of the school paper during her senior year; president of P. H. A., member of the Beta Club, school representative for two years at 4-H state week; she was winner of the citizenship medal; winner of Dan Forth Foundation "honorary I Dare You" national club; and she was a member of the Glee Club.

When Mildred came to our campus she became very popular within a short time with the teachers as well as with the students. Last year she became chief marshal, which is the highest honor anyone may receive at Gardner-Webb; she is a member of the Language Personality, of which she is program chairman; she is a member of the B.S.U. Council, serving as social chairman; at graduation she received the highest average scholarship for freshmen and in our May Day program she was on the May Court.

As one can see by these activities in which she participated during high school and what she is doing on our campus, she will surely be a success in whatever she attempts to do.

JUST FOR A LAFF -- BY FITZ

"Motives In The Wind"

By PEEP-HOLE PETE

It is the policy of this paper each year to arrange a column beneficial to the social standing of the school's student body.

This year the staff has decided upon a column which will bring various puzzling questions before "you all." We will take the questions on to you for the solving. The staff sincerely believes that through this method all may help one another. (The Ed.)

This month's edition is presented to male students — the male students' higher than average mental caliber. "Are you pro or con: concerning the dating of girls in Hooey, Padgett, Anthony, Young, McMurry, Sattie, etc., and Huggins-Curtis?"

Oscar Z. Tickletons (giggles) — Second floor, Decker Hall (Ed. note) — This fellow was found running the halls giggling to himself. "Sometimes yes, sometimes no. Cheerio" (Reporters note: Political misjape.)

Franklin Droopriedades (shorty): First floor, men's shower room — "bird shower, Decker Hall. 'Sirl Hew Dare You!" (Reporter note — Hmmm.)

Charles O. Budgett (Fats): Television Room (centre couch), Decker Hall. "Yes, I like it — But, may I suggest a juke box be put in the girls' reception room? I find it most boring staring at my gal from 6:30 to 10:30." (Reporters note: This kid is as cheap as a five cent nutten.)

Blair B. Fourveys (soggy): Garbage Disposal Plant. (Ed. note.) Found "this poor chap in the first stage of sou'ry."

"If I ever get done with this dang physical, I should like to indulge. I say, is that the eye chart? No?"

That's strange, Miss Jolley said it was the next door to the right.

Reporter's note: Poor fellow, thinks he's in the infirmary. Must have been wandering for weeks.

Louis G. Jampjaw (The yap Soap box, outside huggin, kisse, and be just as sweet as southern fried yams to me, Curtis Big).

I find the entire situation most baffling, not to my taste, but yet palable; I couldn't possibly commit myself. (Reporter's interjection: Ahhh shut up!)

Mickael Pleasanchurch (Monk): The little white monastery. "I like to chase and catch and hug and kiss the girls!" (Reporter's note: This kid is strictly out of hanger.)

August Bonenose (The beak) — The Catcombs, Decker Hall: "I should like to date very much. But I fear catching my death of cold as the regulations now stand — just tie and jacket you know." ha, ha. (Reporter's note: Always a wise guy.)

Pres. Philip Elliot (Happy) Hamnerick Building. (Ed. note: This took the utmost courage on the part of our reporter — Let's give him a hand.) "Dating? Yes! I should find it most captivating to my wife, most challenging; to my son, most competitionary." (Do you think I dare?)

Reporter's note: You old rascal, you.

Always
