Home Economics, The Young Woman's Auxiliary

The Gardner-Webb Home Economics Club met Thursday, October 9, 1952. The officers elected for the year are President, Janet England, Marion, N. C.; Vice-president, Geraldine Woodie, Valdece, N. C.; Secretary and Treasurer, Ruth Secret, Drexel, N. C.; Reporter, Lois Goodman, West Jefferson, N. C.; and Advisor, Mrs. Max Sink, Shelby, N. C. A program committee was appointed, consisting of Merry Harrison, Rachel Cleor, Rovella Myers, and Janice Pigford, with Geraldine Woodie serving as chairman. The next meeting, which will be open to new members, is scheduled for November 6. Planned for our next program is a silver and crystal display from Hamrick's Jewelry Store in Shelby.

The club president, Miss Janet England and the advisor, Mrs. Max Sink attended the American Home Economics Association College Club Department, Province III Workshop at A. S. T. C. at Boone, N. C. on October 17 and 18. North Carolina was host to the other members of the Province which are South Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee. The theme for the Workshop was "Training for Life." About sixty-five delegates attended and enjoyed a very interesting program presented by speakers in the various fields of home economics. Some of the fields open to home economics majors are: teaching, dietetics, food and clothing research, textiles, and journalism. Our delegates met the North Carolina officers. The North Carolina Workshop will be held March 17, 1953 at E. C. T. C.

The Home Economics Department under the supervision of Mrs. Max Sink has presented two radio programs. The first program, Household Hints, included methods of cleaning windows and kitchen utensils. Frances Toney, Mabel Wellman, and Aileen Silver were the student speakers on the program. Harvest Note, the second program, was presented by Joyce Hamrick, Jean McSwain, and Lela Burgett. This program included information on

The Young Woman's Auxiliary is a part of the Woman's Missionary Union. It is an organization of young unmarried women between the ages of 16 and 25. The Y. W. A. on our campus meets twice a month: one general meeting and one circle meeting.

The officers of our Y. W. A. are President, Billie Sue Richardson; Vice - President, Janice Wellmon; Secretary, Betty Jo DeVore; Program Chairman, Joyce Hamrick; Community Missions Chairman, Jo Wright; and Publicity Chairman, Janice Pigford. The Circle Leaders are Janet England, Joy Lynn Bell, Virginia Higgins, Lois Goodman, and Rovella Myers.

The officers of the Y. W. A. enjoyed the visit of Miss Marie Epley, State Young People's Leader. Miss Epley gave many helpful suggestions on how to carry on a Y. W. A.

Leadership Council

Several weeks ago parliamentary procedure classes were begun here on the campus by Prof. Troutman, under the co-sponsorship of both the Student Government Association and the International Relations Club.

Response was slight at first, but as the meetings continued the class grew until now there are approximately twenty participants.

On October 21, the group decided to set Tuesday afternoon from 1:15 to 1:55 as the regular meeting time. On October 16 of the Hamrick Building.

On October 28, the group gave itself the title of the "Leadership Council of Gardner-Webb College" and made tentative plans toward club organization.

Every person in the Gardner-Webb student body is invited to attend these sessions. Club officers and campus leaders are especially urged to be present.

Here and There

By Rovella Myers

"Now then we are ambassadors for Christ." (2 Cor. 5:20a) We, as Christian young people here on this campus are Ambassadors for Christ; for we are working for the building of His Kingdom.

Many groups of our students have gone out in the name of the Lord, conducting youth revivals, taking part in associational meetings, dedication services, and visiting schools. They have preached the word of God, given testimony, led the singing, played musical instruments, and sung in these services.

Mr. Fisher is the head of our International Relations Department here at Gardner-Webb, and through his leadership the various programs are planned, with the exception of the youth revivals, which are under the direction of our Dean of Women, Miss Starnes.

Highlighting the fall season are the associational meetings. Thus far students have taken part in seven meetings: Alexander, Catawba, Elkin, Kings Mountain, Pilot Mountain, Rowan, and Stanley. These visits have been under the leadership of Miss Starnes, Mr. Fisher and Mr. Deacon. Students taking part in these meetings were: Ann Bauding, Betty Rose, Delois Hamrick, Barbara Caton, Betty Jo DeWeese, Sue Suggs, Paula Howard, Joyce Hamrick, Rovella Myers, Betty Jo Bivens, Margaret Cleary, Wayne Sorrells, Tom Bouvender, Harvey Cannon, Paul Thomas, Tom Canipe, Adriat Littlejohn, Glen Henson and Henry Smith.

Our first week end youth revival, which was held on October 18 and 19, was a great success. It was conducted in the Buffalo Baptist Church in Kershaw, S. C., where Rev. Grady Fletcher is the pastor. The church was filled at each service, and some 30 people came in response to the invitation. Of this number, ten were conversions. Percy Huffstetter delivered the messages, and Tom Bouvender led the singing. Others taking part in the services were: Helen Gurley, Gail Baurcup, and Ned Threat. The meeting was under the direction of Miss Starnes.

Other Ambassadors on our campus are the members of our college choir, which is under the direction of Mr. Morrisett. They have contributed to Christ's commission by proclaiming his message in song. Services in which they rendered special services were Gainsville, Camp Creek Baptist Church, Lattimore, and the Sandy Run Associational Meeting, as well as in the revival services here on our campus.

Only two groups of students have visited the schools to date, but the year has just begun and we will visit many others. The schools which have been visited were Tryon and Lake Love High Schools. These visits were under the direction of Mrs. Sink and Mr. Fisher. Students participating in the visits were: Gwyn Wright, Ruth Roberts, Don Moore and Don Brynnon who went to Tryon, and Ernie Diaz, Jean McSwain, Paul Thomas, and Selma Thompson who went to Lake Love.

Last, but not least in our vision, is the B. S. U. Convention which will be held at the Tabernacle Baptist Church in Raleigh on Nov. 7, 8, 9.

Outstanding speakers on the program will be: Miss Emily Lansdel, a former student of China; Dr. E. A. McDowell, a Professor at Wake Forest College; Dr. J. Neal Hugly, Professor of Economics at North Carolina College; and Dr. Robert Humber, Founder of the Movement for World Federation.

It is with great anticipation that we are awaiting this time of Christian fellowship, inspiration, and religious education. Approximately thirty students will make the trip from our campus, accompanied by Mr. Morrisett. These students are: Betty Rose, Rovella Myers, Nancy Rogers, Joyce Cover, Joe Ann Tamblyn, Mildred Laney, Billie Sue Richardson, Rebecca Luffman, Geraldine Woodie, Joann Rogers, Jean McSwain, Joy Lynn Bell, Joyce Hamrick, Ruth Secret, Betty Ledford, Anne Laughter, Dorothy Bridges, Billie Walker, Merry Harrison, Elizabeth Sisk, Paula Howard, Pete Bannus, Paul Thomas, David McHamm, Wayne Sorrells, Virgil Bargoil, Charles Ledford, James Parham, Joe Jackson, and Charles MacMannus.

Thus, we have given you the outstanding highlights of the religious revivals and workshops. It is our desire to better acquaint you with such activities and to urge you to be loyal, friendly and Christ-like. Ambassadors, you go and in everything you do.

I.R.C. Briefs

One of the most outstanding organizations on campus is the International Relations Club. The aim of this club is to better acquaint college students with international and world affairs. It serves also as a developer of poise and correct parliamentary procedure, of which the club also sponsors a class taught by Professor Troutman. The club extends a welcome to all those who are interested in becoming a member. Membership is obtained merely by attending the weekly meeting on Wednesday evenings at four o'clock in the Student's Activity Room of the O. Max Gardner Building.

The newly elected program committee, consisting of David McHamm, Charles Sherer, and Merry Harrison, is obtaining a new slogan by attending the weekly meeting on Wednesday evenings at four o'clock in the Student's Activity Room of the O. Max Gardner Building.

Before the voting took place, eight students presented the different views of the presidential nominees. Those taking part in the discussion were: Keith Snyder, Sarah Kincaid, Sue Vance, Bobby Harvey, Janet Eddell, Dorothy Bridges, Merry Harrison, and Charles Sherer. Although the count was close, Eisenhower came out on top. The club then decided to sponsor a mock election for the whole campus.

It is the aim of the program committee to develop every potentiality of each individual member by bringing in a limited number of faculty and outside speakers.

Among the many projects and programs of the I.R.C. the club recently went on record against the abolition of segregation in the South.
