. . . The Wind" By PEEPER PETE

By the way did you notice the efover the "Sorry-Sophs" in the field day campaign? Oh-oh-oh Nell-lie! There wasn't suppose to be classes that day but Oh-oh-on Nell-lie, what a lesson the "Slow-Sophs' got. Thought it would be rather pleas-ant to interview some of the "Sulking Sophs." (Oh Peeper, how you do rub it in. Go, you brute, go) and out from their own lips just thy what happened. (Peeper, exactly where do you muster such courage?)

And so off I go into the campus of "Guys and Women" (G. W.) a-asking: Dear Soph, what is your opinion of the field day?

Ken Shady (Pa Kettle): "Frosh? Prosh! They just lucked out." Reporter's note: I didn't quite

many bags in the sack race." Bob (Ed. note: This is an uncalled for Howard rebuff.) (Reporter's note: The Rev. Dean Puff considers this last statement by the Editor as a personal insult to the d'gnity of Miss McTwain. He will demand satis-faction with hymnals at ten paces.)

tat ten paces.) H ar ve y Cap-pistol (Speedy): stud "Don't tell me field day is over? I'm tory still getting dressed for it." Dr (Reporter's note: Believe me, this thin actually happened.)

Jackie Wattsister (Mr. Motto): "I on the think (Got a cigarette?) the entire nate me day (How about a match?) was a [fop (A little Oxygen please.) from Ken E stand point of the south-mores. (Got another butt?

(Reporters note: What has he got, lungs or funnels?) David McPork (Shuffles): "I de-mand another field day; they wouldn't let us use Miss Starnes in the tug-of-war."

(Reporter's note: She wouldn't have made a good rope anyway. She would have started screaming and all the gentlemen would have quit pulling and then the Frosh would have lost.)

Mr. Mosely (Puffy's Pal): "Puffy aid that he liked it so naturally I like it too.'

(Reporter's note: Thank you Mr. Puf. . . I mean Mr. Mosely.)
