

THE CAMPUS CLOGS

Is there anyone around here who hasn't noticed the exchanging of high school rings? If there is, just take a look of Valeria and Ronald . . . and Stanley Rose and Beverly Ward . . . Newsome-twooms—Grady Thomas and Joy Lynn Bell . . . Pat Godfrey and Don Haire are steadies now. All that Joyce Hyde needed to put a gleam in her eye was a visit from her boy friend . . . Ruth and Bill are seen together quite often these days. Squirrel and Anna Jean have broken up . . . Joe Saunders is really making the rounds these days, but doesn't he look like Roy and Betty? Joe Emmett make a very attractive couple . . . To whom does Shirley Bell's heart belong? We don't quite know. Doris Vance and James Parker seem to be getting along all right these days . . . Speaking of class rings, Ronnie Henry has had one for quite some time now. It's owner is Betty S., of course. Mot and Bunny are still going strong . . . There's been some changes made—For examples, the case of P. A. and Jimmy Moore and Dot G. and Conrad . . . We all hated to see Tip Carpenter leave especially the girls. Richard Bass and Janet Walker have been dating quite often recently. Something may be in the making . . . Dot and Paul are as much in love as ever. Must be the real thing. Allen Kincaid and Phyllis Kinnaman surely look cute together. Joe Long and Gale Bell seem to be pretty well sowed—by each other of course. Nomination for the most bashful boy of the week, Jack Ray. Richard Yearwood has been brightening up the campus recently by running around looking like an Easter egg! Mark Stone and Gin seemed to be hitting it off O. K., but what "hopped"?? Shirley and Norman seem to be working up a case. Surely was nice having everybody around "home" for homecoming. All you Sophomores be sure to come back next year. Peggy is still true-blue to that Carolina guy. Alta girl Peg. The Twirp Day situation got pretty "out-throat" but all in all, everybody enjoyed it tremendously.

TWIRP DAY

Get that coffee up! Pick up that book! Open that door! That's the way Twirp Day began and ended. But golly-golly, what fun we had.

Date slits were signed for the mood Paris on a pogo rick and such places as seemed far fetched. Mrs. Shytle, the boys' mother, made the statement that there would be no hand-holding in the boys' dormitory. We carried out the demand to the fullest of our ability.

Each girl had a date whom she picked up at six forty-five in the living room of Decker Hall. Ernie Byerly, a sophomore, went to each boy's room and brought him out as his date arrived.

We all assembled in the O. Max Gardner Building and were quite well entertained. "Speedy" Rollins, our genuine actor at Gardner-Webb, sang in a beautiful tenor voice, "Ida." After this Doris Justice astounded us with an excellent glee recitation. E. Hamrick also gave readings for the entertainment of all.

We then adjourned to the cafeteria where boxes relinquished their wrappings and all sorts of refreshments appeared.

After eating, the couples went their ways to spend an evening furnished completely by the girls.

MUSIC

Students of the Music Department have been busily engaged in playing and singing over the radio, in recital, and at various clubs. These include the Shelby Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs, Fallston Woman's Club and Boiling Springs Lions Club. The musicians were Helen Gurley, Libby Stroupe, Ann and Valeria Banning, and Hoyt Abrams.

Our first student recital was given on Thursday, November nineteenth, under the direction of Mrs. Gidney, Mrs. Plaster and Miss Miller. Organ, piano and vocal selections were given by Caroline Greene, Paulette Howard, Alfred Washburn, Leona Lamm, Helen Gurley Gail Thomas, Gale Ball Hoyt Abrams, Leola Coer, Louise Riggs, Barbara Wall Libby Stroupe, Valeria and Ann Banning, with Miss Miller and Virginia Huggins as accompanists.

Ann Banning's skillful playing of Ballentine's Variations on "Mary Had a Little Lamb" for the Shelby Music Club brought our musical activities to a satisfactory conclusion.

DRAMA

The Delta Psi Omega Dramatics Fraternity of Gardner-Webb College takes pleasure in presenting "Jane Eyre." After careful study of several popular plays, the active members of the fraternity choose this play because of its familiar love story, its sharp and clear plot, and its well-written dialogue.

Much thought was also given to the selection of the cast by J. Y. Hamrick, adviser of the fraternity. The part of Rochester, the experience-scarred hero, a man of the world, is played by Peter H. Baucus, president of the Delta Psi Omega; Betty Wise Bates, winner of the best actress award for her role as Isabel in "Measure for Measure," plays the beloved Jane Eyre whose sweet and humble sincerity wins the heart of Rochester as well as the hearts of her audience. The rest of the cast consists of new talent to Gardner-Webb, but their enthusiasm is running high as play practice continues. It is an excellent casting and will surely measure up to highest expectations.

Jane Eyre will be given December 15 at eight o'clock in the Hamrick Auditorium. A special performance will be given the following evening for all High School Seniors of Cleveland County. The dramatics department of Gardner-Webb and Limestone Colleges have agreed to exchange plays. There is then the possibility of journeying to Limestone later in the season.

The dramatics department extends a hearty invitation to all students and friends. We feel sure that those who attend will not be disappointed.

NEW BOOKS

Making Your Marriage a Success, Adams; Ante-Nicene Fathers; From the Nile To the Waters of Damascus, Arndt; Reformation of the Sixteenth Century, Barnton; Relations Between Northern and Southern Baptists, Baker; Official Report of the Baptist World Congress, Barrick, Barnton; Poetry of the Brownings, Bax; Some Preachers Do, Bays; Churches—Their Doctrines, History, Government, by Bishop; Poetical Works, Blake; American Freedom and Catholic Power, Blanshard; Communism, Democracy, and Catholic Power, Blanshard; Main Issues Confronting Christendom, Bosley.

John Bunyan, Browne; New Letters, Browning; Art of Illustrating Sermons, Bryan; Secret of a Happy Marriage, Burkhardt; Christ and Man's Dilemma, Buttrick; Complete Poetical Works, Byron; Business Administration of a Church, Chisham; Sermons on the Lord's Prayer and Other Prayers of Jesus, Chappell; Ten Rules for Living, Chappell; Second World War, Churchill; Work of the Holy Spirit, Comer; Passage to Walden, Cook; Press and World Affairs, Desmond; Course of Empire, De Voto; Holy Spirit in the Life of Today, Dillstone; Churchbook, Dobbins.

Columbus Roberts, Dowell; Complete Poems and Plays, Eliot; Great Voices of the Reformation, Fosdick; George Washington, Freeman; Poetical Works of Goldsmith, Collins, and T. Warton, Gilliland; How Came the Bible?, Goodspeed; John Keats: The Principle of Beauty, Gorell; Revival in Our Time, Graham; Manual of Missions, Gregory; Contemporary American Family Groves; Called of God, Guffin; Dictionary of the Bible, Hastings; Ministerial Ethics and Etiquette, Harmon; Son of God Among the Sons of Men, Harrison; Cellulose, the Chemical That Grows, Haynes.

Heart of the New Testament, Hester; Bible Atlas, Hurlbut; Unpublished Letters of Ruskin, Gray, and Millais, James; Jane Austen, Jenkins; Complete Reporter, Johnson; Abundant Living, Jones; F. Scott Fitzgerald, Kazin; Introduction and Selection by Richard Church, Keats; Complete Poetical Works, Keats; History of the Expansion of Christianity, Latourette; Daily Newspaper in America, Lee; Religious Beliefs of American Scientists, Long; Newsroom Problems and Policies, MacDougal; Interpretive Reporting, MacDougal; Meaning and Message of the Book of Revelation, McDowell.

Preacher's Primer, MacLennan; Mountains and Mountain Men of the Bible, Macartyre; Saints Without Halos, Magary; Mr. Jones, Meet the Master, Marshall; Booker T. Washington Mathews; Christ and the Fine Arts, Mauss; Our English Bible in the Making, May; Pulpit in the South, Mead; Harper's Bible Dictionary, Miller; Life, Letters, and Journals of Lord Byron, Moore; This is Believable, Moran; Fellowship with God Through Christian Stewardship, Muncy; Editing the Small City Daily, Neal; New Testament in Basic English; God's Word in Man's Language, Nida.