

WORK OF THE YOUTH REVIVAL TEAM

One of the most active organizations on our campus is the Youth Revival Team, directed by Miss Mabel Starnes, for the purpose of furthering the Church Community Development Program.

Four years ago Miss Starnes became a member of our faculty and began this work which has taken on such great proportions. This year sixty-six students have gone to thirty-one different churches, leading evangelistic services, teaching Sunday School classes, leading department assemblies, giving Training Union demonstrations programs, leading panel discussions on Christian life problems facing young people. A quartet or a trio and a soloist is usually "on the team." Each team is personally prepared for their adventure by Miss Starnes, who accompanies them to the churches.

This Youth Revival Team is a great blessing to the churches as is shown by the fact that ninety-three decisions were made last year. This year, since all the churches have not been visited, the results are not complete. The Team serves as a "laboratory for Christian service" to the many young people who participate. It also emphasizes Christian Education in the Churches and many young people decide to go to our Christian colleges as result of this emphasis. President Elliott often receives letters from the pastors of churches visited by the team, expressing a deep appreciation of the work carried on by the team under the guidance of Miss Starnes.

ANSWERS

Christianity Vs. Communism

By RICHARD PLYLER

Today we are faced with two philosophies of life, Christianity and Communism. The philosophy of Christianity standing for that which is all good, and the philosophy of Communism standing for that which is all bad. Let us see why Christianity is the better of the two philosophies.

Christianity is a body of believers in Christ Jesus, Redeemer and Saviour of the world, believing that He died for the sins of man and that His death upon the Cross set man right with God once again. That if man believes upon Jesus as the only Begotten Son of God, he is forgiven of his sins and once again comes into fellowship with God for which he was created. Christianity says that each man is important, that each man as an individual has the right to eternal salvation and eternal life through Christ Jesus. Christianity says that each man has the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness upon which our country is founded.

Communism on the other hand says that the individual is not important and that all things should go together for the betterment of the state. Communism denies the existence of God and the deity of Jesus Christ. Communism says that man does not have the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and is not an individual but rather a machine of the state. Communism advocates that democracy and religion can have no part in a communistic state, which is to be governed by a totalitarian dictatorship.

In our country today there are people who would advocate and do advocate the overthrow of our own government, and they want to set up a government under communism with a totalitarian state. Communism is fighting our way of life through every means possible that will give their cause headway.

On the other hand, we have the Christians, who are trying to get people to see the need of God, and to see eternal salvation.
