

Radio Club

The Radio Club is composed of students who are interested in radio and its many services. Membership in this club is made more interesting due to the fact that we have a communication center located on the campus. It is named the Huggins Memorial Communication Center, and by special arrangement programs are transmitted from this studio by station WOHS in Shelby and are picked up by other stations in western North Carolina. A full coverage of college activities is broadcast regularly.

Future Teachers Club

To be a member of the Future Teachers Club one must be in training for the teaching profession. The group meets periodically for fellowship and for extra-curricular discussions in teacher training and problems.

Science Club

Here is an organization for those who are interested in scientific research today. The club meets monthly, and students who are interested in scientific research in any of the scientific fields are invited to join providing they have at least a "C" average in one of the science courses.

The College Choir

The Choir is composed of 40 voices, selected at the beginning of each year by the director.

During the year the Choir presents a number of programs from the Huggins Memorial Communication Center here on the campus. In the spring the Choir travels through Piedmont and Western North Carolina, presenting programs that are an inspiring source of spiritual stimulation to churches in this section.

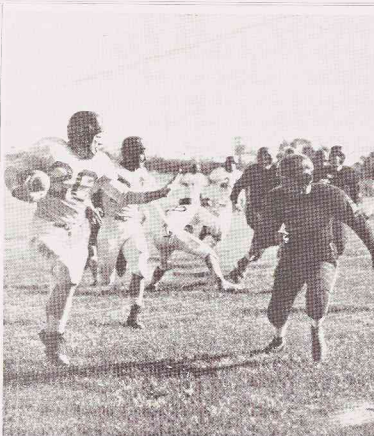

The Glee Club

The Gardner-Webb Glee Club is a mixed chorus of thirty voices. It includes male and female voices and deals primarily with secular literature. Student accompanists are used, and instruction in choral conducting is given. The club participates in radio programs, campus activities, and various community functions.

Sigma Pi Alpha

The Sigma Pi Alpha Honorary Language Fraternity of Gardner-Webb College is composed of students taking foreign languages. To become a member one must have an unusual interest in languages and a high scholastic average.

The purpose of the fraternity is to stimulate interest; to acquire a more intimate knowledge of the people, life, customs, geography, history, industries, and culture of foreign countries; and to make a contribution toward bringing about a better understanding between these countries and ours.

Coach Norman Harris has been putting his gridiron prospects through some rugged paces since September 1. The Bulldogs meet the Chowan team September 25 in the first game of the 1954 season at Rutherfordton.

Coach Expects Outstanding Year For Gardner-Webb Bulldogs

A number of returning lettermen give strength and experience to the Gardner-Webb team, and a host of Freshman hopefuls includes some high school standouts from a wide area.

In the past three years Gardner-Webb has played in two bowl games, winning one and losing the other by a slight margin. The Bulldogs have twice been state champions in recent years, and three years ago went undefeated for the entire season.

The coach says he expects this to be a banner year for football, 1954 participation and competition. There is keen competition between classes in volleyball and softball tournaments as they try for the trophy awarded on Field Day. Individual standouts come into their own in shuffleboard, ping-pong, and badminton.

The Woman's Program is climaxed in the spring with the annual May Day festivities.

for the summer, and spent some time visiting relatives and friends.

Paul Stacy taught biology in the Gardner-Webb summer school.

William F. Troutman worked on his dissertation on the campus, with special permission of his major instructor from Duke University. He has completed most of the requirements for a doctorate.

Eugene Vostock taught in the summer school and in the Evening Business School.

Miss Nancy Anthony was married to Frank Griffin Jr. of Bowling Springs. He is in the Army at Fort Sill, Okla.

Miss Billie Falls continued her work as secretary to the business manager.

Woman's Athletic Association

The Woman's Athletic Program is designed to present for all students an interest in wholesome leisure time activities, to organize and administer a varied and interesting athletic program, and to stimulate a spirit of fellowship and comradeship through ty Recreation Center in Shelby.

HOW FACULTY FOLK

(Continued from page 2)

Stephen Morrisset spent the summer attending meetings and conferences and preaching in various churches. In late July he suffered a spinal injury that hospitalized him for several weeks.

M. A. Moseley taught chemistry in the Gardner-Webb summer school.

Mr. Ruth Plaster spent the summer at her home in Shelby.

Ms. Elma Harper Pollock spent the summer at her home with her husband in Trenton.

Ms. Oster Shytle was in Shelby

Football Schedule

Date—Opponent—Place

September 25—Chowan—Rutherfordton.

October 2—Asheville—Biltmore—Away.

October 9—Lees McRae—Away.

October 16—Lees McRae—Shelby.

October 23—Mars Hills—Away.

October 30—Asheville—Biltmore—Home.

November 6—Mars Hill—Shelby.
November 13—Western Carolina B—Home.

Night Schools To Operate In 12 Associations

W. Lawson Allen, director of public relations, announced recently that his office will operate 12 adult education schools throughout central and western North Carolina this year.

The schools, which are a part of the church and community development program carried on by Gardner-Webb, are conducted on an Association-Wide basis, and usually meet in a church convenient to most of the people in the area served. Schools meet for one night each week and operate for nine weeks. No college credit is offered, but a certificate is issued for completion of the course. A charge of five dollars is made for the course.

These schools are a part of Gardner-Webb's threefold plan of service to the community through the guidance program, the clinic and health education program, and the church and community development program.

100 Attend Summer School!

Around 100 students attended summer school this year at Gardner-Webb. The regular session had 78 enrolled, with Dean J. Y. Hamrick directing the school. The school began June 1 and ended July 31.

In addition, Western Carolina College operated a school on the campus for some 20 teachers and others who wanted senior college work for credit or for renewal of teachers certificates.

In addition to these, adult business education classes met in the evenings during the entire summer.

Eight students completed all requirements and received diplomas at the end of the summer session. These were, Peter Banus, New Brunswick, N. J.; Ted Allen Bechtler, Blacksburg, S. C.; Jim Gosse, Ruth; Kenneth Lee Hofffield, Grover; Lillie Daphne Randolph, Burnsville; Huston Egbert Raynor, Mebane; Harold Lee Rumpfolt, Blacksburg, S. C.; and Larry Holland Walker, Bowling Springs.

Gardner-Webb first opened in 1907 as Bowling Springs High School. It became a junior college in 1929.

"Hazing" is not permitted on the Gardner-Webb campus.