

NEW ADDITION TO COACH HARRIS FAMILY

On Wednesday, December 21, 1955, at 10:30 a. m. Coach Norman Harris became the "proud papa" of a "bouncing baby girl" weighing in at 8 lbs. 8 ozs.

The new arrival to the Harris family has been named Debra Jane and nicknamed Debbie.

Coach Harris mentioned the possibility of a girl's basketball team for Gardner-Webb. He has gotten off to a good start already with two adorable girls.

Ann, the two year old, has high ambitions of becoming a cheerleader to help her dad's teams go on to more victories.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Harris on here's hoping you don't have to make too many changes.

New Gardner-Webb Trustee Named to Replace Weathers

Fred D. Caldwell, attorney at Maiden, has been named to the board of trustees of Gardner-Webb College, replacing Lee B. Weathers of Shelby, who declined appointment because of ill health. Caldwell is an alumnus of Gardner-Webb and previously served as a trustee from 1948 through 1951.

His appointment will be for four years, subject to the approval of the Baptist State Convention.

Nicolas Miashovsky Do You Know Him?

This month the Pilot honors Nicolas Miashovsky of the music world. Miashovsky, a noted Russian composer, one of the most prolific symphonists of the contemporary music scene, was born near Warsaw, April 20, 1881; died 1950. He studied first with Gliere and then with Rimsky-Korsakoff and Lisadoff. His first symphony, written in 1908, won him a scholarship at the Petrograd Conservatory and set him on the way to become a symphonist. Although a contemporary of Stravinsky and Prokofieff, he is in his works entirely free from any influence from either composer. His early symphonies were very comber, the first four being written in minor keys as are also the two piano sonatas composed at about the same time.

Later his creations took on a brighter hue and in some of them he used Slavic dance themes and even folk melodies, some of which he had heard while doing military service in the army. His total output of symphonies numbers 24, more than any other contemporary composer. He also wrote a number of piano works, including four sonatas; three string quartets, and many songs.

BSSB STUDENT DEPARTMENT PLANS CONVENTION-WIDE CONGRESS

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—(BSSB)—At the recent annual meeting of the state Baptist Student Union secretaries here, detailed plans were completed for a Convention-wide Congress to be held in Nashville Dec. 27-30, 1956.

Dr. G. Kearnie Keegan, secretary of the Student Department of the Sunday School Board, and department staff served as co-ordinators in planning the meeting.

The object of the Congress will be to give Southern Baptists' 1957 world missions emphasis a real boost on every college campus touched by organized Baptist student work.

Dr. Keegan said the attending group will be "hand-picked." "Not more than 2,000 carefully selected Baptist students from the more than 200,000 now in colleges in the Southern Baptist Convention will be invited to the Congress. We hope the program will enable them to return to their campuses and spark the missions emphasis and interest," he said.

Among program personalities already enlisted are: Dr. James L. Sullivan, executive secretary, Sunday School Board; Mrs. Billy Davis, outstanding lecturer and writer of national reputation; Howard Butt, the Corpus-Christi grocer-evangelist; Dr. Theodore F. Adams, Baptist World Alliance president; Dr. Baker James Cauthen, Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board; and Dr. Culbert G. Rutember of Eastern

Even b'ar killers need protection, Master Crockett. Seven million youngsters got the first Salk polio vaccine in 1955. Your March of Dimes funds developed this vaccine, tested it, provided the first shots within days after it was proclaimed safe and effective. Now, March of Dimes research is making it even more effective. But we must still remember those, born too soon to be protected by the vaccine, who still need care and those tens of thousands who will be stricken in polio epidemics before the vaccine is made even more effective.
