Championship Bulldogs Tie For DILLARD MORROW, Sports Editor

G. W. SPANKS HARGRAVE

The Bulldogs of Gardner-Webb College downed the hard fighting Hargraves eleven Saturday night, October 5, by the score of 26 to 18. A hard hitting Bulldog line plus fancy stepping by the Bulldog backs meant the difference in a high scor-

Gardner-Webb scored first after ecovering a fumble on the Hargrave five-yard line. After short gains by the backfield, Paul Roberts drove over from the one yard line. Reg Turner's try for the extra point was good, and the Baptist boys led 7 to 0

Hargrayes came back strong and hard midway of the first quarter with Meredith, soldier fullback, carrying over from the 10 yard line. The try for the extra point was

In the opening minutes of the second quarter under the direction of quarterback Jim Johnson, the Bulldogs put on a sustained drive with Roberts driving over from the six. Turner's try for the extra point was ocked and the Bulldogs led 13 to 6.

In the closing minutes of the second quarter John Trotter, Hargraves halfback, drove over from the three yard marker. The point after the attempt was no good. The half ended with Gardner-Webb leading 13 1.43

Gardner-Webb scored twice in the fourth quarter with David Mullis carrying over from the four and Jim Johnson passing to Gene Holland for 10 yards and another touchdown. Hargraves tallied their final marker on a five yard run by Bill Clinger The game ended with Gardner-Webb on the long end of a 26 to 18 score

MARS HILL 21 GARDNER-WEBB 18

The Mars Hill Lions edged the hard fighting Gardner-Webb Bull-dogs in a tight contest Saturday, October 13, by the score of 21 to 18 The yardstick could not be used as explanation as the Bulldogs rolled up 259 yards rushing to 162 for the

The Bulldogs struck first early in Arnold Iranca walked the chalk lines for 18 yards to the promised land. Reg Tarner's try for the extra point was no good. The remainder of the first quarter consisted of exchanging the ball along the midway marker. The Lions came back hard and strong late in the second quarter as Bill Southern, Hillian halfback, plowed over from the sky and line plowed over from the sky and line the contest. The try for the extra point was good and the Lions were ahead 7 to 6.

and five yard lines on several occa-sions in the third, Jim Johnson flipped a four yard pass to end Dal-ton Cranford to put the Bulldogs in the lead 12 to 7. Reg Turner's try for the point after was blocked. The Lions scored one for themselves in the third as Carroll Wright passed to John Wright for 60 yards and the score. The all-important extra point was good.

Midway of the fourth quarter fire balling Paul Roberts raced through the middle of the Lions for 60 yards and the last marker for the Bulldogs. However, the Lions were not through as Carroll Wright passed for the third and final score for the Lions. Wright's pass play covered 20 yards and the vital extra point try was good. The game ended with the Lions edging the Bulldogs on ARNOLD ISAACS scoring on an 18 yard reverse in Homecoming tilt with Lees-McRae.

G. W. 40 - WINGATE 0

The victorious Gardner-Webb Bulldogs scored their fifth straight victory Saturday night, November 11, ner intercepted a Jerry Carpenter pass and carried for 40 yards and the touchdown. Turner's point after as they downed Wingate 40 to 0. In this one-sided contest linemen ran touchdowns and the galloping Bullattempt was wide.

The Bulldogs scored again in the third as Joe Dysart recovered a fum ble on the Wingate five yard line, and Arnold Isaacs plunged over from the five. Turner split the up-right and the Bulldogs were out dogs backs ran freely.

In the first quarter Paul Cline,
Bulldog end ,recovered a fumble in the Wingate end zone for the first Bulldog score. Reg Turner's point

The Bulldogs continued to move in the second quarter as they put on a sustained drive with Paul Rob-erts driving over from the three yard line. Turner converted again and the Bulldogs were ahead 14 to 0. Still in the second quarter, Reg Tur-

I. R. C. ELECTS OFFICERS

The first meeting of the Interna-tional Relations Club was held re-cently. At this initial meeting the following officers were nominated and elected: President, Ray Rollins; vice-president, Grytel Biggerstaff; secretary-treasurer, Carolyn Cooper; and reporter, Jane Mann.

of slides shown by Miss Doris Jones. These slides were taken by Miss Jones on her recent trip to Europe. The slides showed many historical scenes in Germany, Scotland, France, Italy and England.

front 27 to 0.

In the fourth quarter the scoring was by Don Miller, Miller spurted 60 yards for his first score and 18 yards for his second. Turner converted for the first and the second was attempted in a pass which was

Everyone who is interested world affairs is invited to come to the club. The meetings will be held on the first Monday in every month in the speech room of the Gardner

GARDNER-WEBB 18, WINGATE 12

The Bulldogs of Gardner-Webb squeaked by the Wingate Junior College eleven October 20 by the narrow margin of 18 to 12.

nargin of 18 to 12.

Neither team could move the ball in the first quarter with Wingate howing plenty of power and holding the Buildogs to an almost stand-still. The Wingate eleven threaten-ed on two occasions, but the stal-wart Buildog forward wall repelled Things started popping in the sec-ond quarter as Paul Roberts set sail on a 30 yard run to set up the first Bulldog score. Jim Johnson, little Bulldog field general, passed to end Dalton Cranford for the touchdown. Dalton Cranford for the touchdown. The try for the point after was no good. Wingate roared back late in the second quarter, scoring on a 20 yard pass play with Jerry Carpenter passing to end Benny Baker. The extra point try was blocked. The half ended with the score in a 6 to 6 way over from the 19 yard line to send the Bulldogs ahead 12 to 6. The Bulldogs dominated the thrid quar-ter of play as they drove up and down the field. The Wingate eleven could not break through outstand-ing players such as Clifford Hunt, John Holland, Paul Cline and Joe Dysart, and were held scoreless in

The Bulldage again in the fourth as Jim Johnson pased to Arnold Isaacs for 20 yards and the third and final score for Baptist boys. Late in the fourth, Wingate tallied their second and final touchdown, but to no avail as the Bulldogs outlasted Wingate.

Outstanding linemen for the Bulldogs were Paul Cline, Clifford Hunt, John Holland, and Dalton Cranford Arnold Isaacs, Paul Roberts, and im Johnson were outstanding in Jim Johnson were outstanding in the backfield as they moved the ball

FOUR BULLDOGS PICKED ON ALL CONFERENCE TEAM

for the Bulldogs

By DUANE McDOUGALD

Four Gardner-Webb Bulldogs were placed on the 1956 Western Junior College Conference team. The team was picked by the coaches of the three teams tied for first place. This gave coaches Harris of Gardner-Webb, Henderson of Mars Hill, and Dickerson of Lees McRae a vote in the balloting.

Bulldogs landing a spot on the Arnold Isaacs, and guards John Hol-land and Clifford Hunt. Mars Hill also placed four players on the All-Conference team, while Lees McRae grabbed the remaining three spots.

The Bulldogs' Roberts is the loon's top scorer with 63 points. The husky 195-pound halfback has tallied at least once in every game. Isaacs has added 30 points of his own in the Bulldogs' effort thus far. Together these two outstanding backs have made life miserable for their opponents all season. Clifford Hunt, a Gardner-Webb freshman, has added much to the Bulldogs' defense in ea muon to the Bulldogs' defense in his role as guard. John Holland, who has been a real Bulldog in the Gardner-Webb line this season, has starred both offensive and defen-sively.

Other players placed on the team were: Carrol Wright, John Wright, Sammy Reese, and Otis Pitts of Mars Hill and Jack Robinette, Alli-son Richardson, and Jack Hooper of Lees McRae.

These pigskin peddlers will all get a crack at the All-State Grid Team

GARDNER-WEBB 20. MARS HILL 13 G. W. SLAUGHTERS

McRae to open the ball game, but the Bobcats had the ball on one play as a hard hitting Bulldog for-ward wall recovered a Bobcat fumble ward wall recovered a Bobcat fumble on the 33. On the first play from scrimmage quarterback Jim Johnson freed to Paul Roberts standing in the end zone on a 33 yard pass play for the first Bullodg score. The point after was no good, but that didn't seem to worry the brilliant Arnold Isaacs as he finerengted and ran it back for 15 yards before being stopped. Jim Johnson, pass slinging stopped. Jim Johnson, pass slinging with a 35 yard pass and another Bulldog score. Reg Turner split the uprights for the extra point and the Bulldogs were off to the races.

A swarm of Bulldog linemen cov ered another Bobcat fumble on the 30 yard line of the Bobcats after Lees McRae had the ball two plays.

Johnson, having a magnificent day, on the second play after the recov-ery of the fumble spotted Don Millery of the fumble spotted Don Mill-er on the 15 yard line and laid the pigskin in his arms. Don squirmed for the remaining yardage to the promised land. The Buildogs had scored three touchdowns while they allowed the Bobcats to hold the ball only five plays. After two fumbles which were recovered by the Buillwhich were recovered by the Bulldogs and two interceptions the Bull-dogs were leading 20 to 0. The first quarter ended with Gardner-Webb knocking on the Bobcats front door mild as compared to the first, but the scoring continued as the Bob-cats woke up long enough to put on a sustained drive which saw fullback a sustained drive which saw landaces Jack Hooper scoring for the Bobcats on a 20 yard gallop. The Bulldogs were still thirsty for touchdowns and Dalton Cranford settled that as he blocked a Bobcat punt on the 35 yard line Reg Turner recovered. The amazing Isaacs came around on a reverse and took a hand-off from Landon Deal and scooted 23 yards for the touchdown. (See picture on this page). The point after attempt

The third quarter saw both teams driving the ball, but unable to score.

The Bobcats drove to the Bulldog five, but the forward held on the five yard line for four plays.

By the fourth quarter the Bull-dogs were out of sight, but Jim Johnson, the little field general, added one for good measure as he sneaked across from the three yard line for the final score

Gardner-Webb tied the Western Carolina Junior College conference up into a three way tie Saturday night, November 3, as they downed the Mars Hill Lions by 20 to 13. The Buildogs extended their string of IFFS MCBAE IN HOMECOMING TILT The tradition that a Bulldog team The tradition that a Billiog team has never lost a homecoming game held true as the victory riding Gardner-Webb Bulldogs outscored and overpowered a reeling Lees-McRae team to the tune of 33 to 7. Gardner-Webb kicked off to Lees McRae to one the hell game but victories to three straight and knock-ed the Hillians out of a chance for their first title since Don Henderson came to Mars Hill.

Early in the first quarter the Bull-dogs recovered a Lion fumble on the Lion 20 yard line. Paul Roberts, currently the state's highest scorer, raced over from the 19 yard line to send the Bulldogs in the lead. Rob-erts' try for the point was wide. The Lions came back strong in the Bull Southern leading a drive on which he scored from the one yard line. The all-important try for the extra point was good and the lead extra point was good and the lead extra point was good and the lead

In the second quarter the fireworks started popping as the most important play of the ball game was made. To start things off David Mullis powered down the middle of the Mars Hill line for 25 yards and a touchdown. The point after at-tempt was smothered and the Bulldogs led 12 to 7. The play which boosted the morale of the entire Bulldog eleven was the safety which Joe Dysart added to his string of points which is now two. Dysart caught Lion quarterback Carroll Wright in the end zone for two is, making the Bulldogs a total

The third quarter featured the The third quarter restured the hard running back of both teams and the powerful efforts of the linemen to keep the third a scoreless one. Outstanding in line play was Paul Cline as he helped stop the Mars

The Lions, fighting hard to stay above water, put on a sustained drive which carried to the Bulldog two yard line. Carroll Wright, Lion quarterback, sneaked across for the touchdown, but a hard rushing Bulldog line blocked the extra point try and the Bulldogs were still out front

The Lions were driving hard in the last period and were on the Bulldog four yard line, but were unable to go on the ground. Carroll Wright faded back to past to end off haded back to past to end off haded back to past to end off the past on this goal line and raced for 100 yards to lee the game for the Bulldogs. Johnson intercepted go in the ball grant to Kull any Lion bone of complex back. hope of coming back fohnson was the outstanding back of the night as he completed seven out of 10 pass attempts, and raced for 100 yards for a touchdown. Paul Cline and Joe Dysart starred on defense for the Bulldogs

ALL CONFERENCE—Named last we team are these four Bulldogs. From back Paul Roberts, guard Clifford H week to the WCJCC All-Confe m left are guard John Holland, Hunt, and halfback Arnold E

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS