

Volume XIII, Number 2

GARDNER-WEBB COLLEGE, BOILING SPRINGS, NORTH CAROLINA

November, 1958

NOV 58

RELIGIOUS WEEK EMPHASISED

TO SERVE YOU BETTER By David Moore

The Boiling Springs Clinic is still on the upward trend. In order that the faculty and students of Gardner-Webb and the people of the sur-rounding communities might receive better and more officient service.

better and more c.r.d.ent service, three new rooms are to be added. The first, which will be known as the Faculty Room is dedicated to Dr. P. L. Elliott by the faculty and students of Gardner-Webb. The second, which will be designated as the Carringer Room, is to be fur-nished and reconditioned by Dr. and Mrs. P. L. Elliott in memory of Mrs. Elliott's father. The third is the Student Room. This room will be used by the students of the college ever it is necessary for them ay at the clinic. This project whe to stay should be completed by the last of November or the first of December. We, the Pilot staff, join with the students in expressing our gratitude to everyone who made these new additions possible

Miss Gardner-Webb Contest By Monty Mills

A radiant and beaming Sylvia arnes was crowned Miss Gardner-Webb College on Tuesday night, October 21, in the college gymnasium Mr. Horace Carter, Vice-President Mr. Horace Carter, Vice-President of the First National Bank of Shelof the Pirst National Bank of Shel-by placed the crown on the smilling winner. Sylvia, a gracefull blond from Pageland, South Carolina, looked very lovely and polsed in her white evening gown as she accepted her crown. White must have been the lucky color for the contestants; Miss Gardner-Webb College and both runners-up wore white evening govers in the contest Second guina gowns in the contest. Second run-ner-up in the contest was Shirley Greene, a petite blond from Moores-Shirley boro, and first runner-up was the lovely Peggy Jo Puett from Rocky Mount

(Continued on Page Two)

G-W Forensic Squad Will Enter Several Tournaments

Byt Mary Hodges Plans of the Gardner-Webb For-encic Squad have recently been virtually completed for the fall semes-ter of the 1958 academic year. The Gariner-Webb squad opened its current intercollegiate comp tion against the Mars Hill Coll mpetidebaters at Mars Hill on October The debaters argued the na-tional collegiate debate query: "Resolved, that the further development of nuclear weapons should be pro hibited by international agreement. Early debates are also planned hetween the Gardner-Webb debaters and the forensic squads of Davidson College and Lenoir Rhyne College The Gardner-Webb debaters wi will nter three tournaments during the fall semester. An invitation to en-ter the Wake Forest Novice Debate Tournament at Wake Forest College Tournament at wake Forest Coulege on October 31-November I was ac-cepted. This tournament brings to-gether such colleges and universities as the University of Pittsburgh, George Washington University, Duke, University of South Carolina, university of South Carolina, and others.

The Gardner - Webb debaters also accepted an invitation to participate in the 1958 Carolina Forensics at the University of South Carolina, Columbia, S. C., on November 13. 14 .and 15. This tournament. which draws some of the best forensic squads in the East, had six rounds of debate on the national collegiate debate question, plus several forensic events.

On December 4, 5, and 6, Garder-Webb will enter the Mountain Forensic Tournament at Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone, N. C. For several years Gardner-Webb's forensic squads have participated in this tournament, which brings together colleges from North Carolina, Tennessee, South Carolina and Virginia. Gardner-Webb carried away no less than nine awards last fall at the Mountain Forensic Tournament.

Pilot

The Gardner - Webb squad is coached by Profesor Francis B. De mond, head of the English department at the Baptist college.

Ten students are on the 1958 forensic-debating squad. They are Joan Parker, Concord, and Paula Winstead, Lexington, girl's affirmative; Janelle Queen, Spencer, and Janice Anderson, Gastonia, girls' negative; Bill Greene, Kings Mountain, Jimmy Wise, Mount Holly, Dennis Porch Mooresville and Harold Harris, Hazelwood, boys' affirmative; and Floyd Ray Suttles, Old Fort, and James Wix, Shelby, boys' negative.

W. F. Scholarships Open to Junior College Graduates

WINSTON-SALEM - The William Louis Poteat Scholarships have been established by the Wake Forest College faculty for students of the five Baptist junior colleges in the state

Five scholarships, ranging in value up to $500 per school year, will be awarded annually on a competitive basis beginning with the 1959-60

An applicant must be enrolled in one of the Baptist junior colleges in North Carolina. He must have a quality point ratio of at least 2.3 (2.0) is a B) on three semesters of work and expect to be graduated from the junior college in the spring of 1959. The scholarships are available to both men and women and are renewable for the senior year.

warded The scholarships will be awarded on the basis of ability and need, According to the Committee on Schoarchips and Student Aid, they are intended to aid young people who are ambitious and who show pro-mise. Factors of leadership, personality, motivation, and judgment, as well as scholastic ability, will be considered in the selection of scholarship holders," Renewal for the senior year will be conditioned upon social conduct and a satisfactory scholastic record.

Detailed information and an application should be requested prior to Dec. 15, 1958, from the Committee Revival Hosts Reverend Carr

By Sue McClure The time passed rapidly on our The time passed rapidly on our campus these last few weeks, and finally one of our long awaited events was here. The highlight of our campus every fall is the Relig-ious Emphasis Week or our fall revival. The Rev. Warren Carr, Pas-tor of the Watt Street Baptist Church, Durham, was the preacher for the Revival Services, Monday, November 10 through Friday, No vember 14.

Worship services were held in the E. B. Hamrick building each evening 7 o'clock and at 10:30 a.m. on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. Religious Emphasis Week is spon-sored by our Baptist Student Union, and we felt that our campus was ready for a great revival. Prayer services for the success of our revival were held for the week previous the revival

Asheville Site Of BSU Convention

Some eleven students from our student body represented Gardner-Webb College at the Fall B. S. U. Convention held at the First Baptist Church in Asheville, October 31-No-

The theme of the convention was "Disciplined for Today's Demands." Dr. Wayne Oates, from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, was the guest speaker. Highlights of the convention were the B. S. U. choir, dramas on LISTEN, and Bible discussion groups. One of the greatest treats of the convention for all was the gracious love shown by the many different families with whom our B. S. U.'ers staved. For further word on this ist ask anyone who went. The B. S. U. is proud of the religious atmosphere on our campus. We feel that part of this has been achieved by our Vesper services directed by Doris Walters. We salute her now. May God bless you till we meet again in the next issue

Mic's Message Proverbs 3:6

Everybody has problems! Young people are confronted everyday with the problem of choosing. God has blessed us with reasoning power in making those necessary decisions. There are, of course, problems we cannot handle. God's Word says that if we will let Him take care of all our problems, we'll be led in the right way. Allowing God to lead makes a person happier in all things.

"For every man who climbs to the top of the ladder of success, there is some woman who stave on the ground and steadies it for him."-W. B. Garrison.

"Men and women, like all Gaul, may be divided into three partsthe neurotic, the erotic, and the tommyrotic."-M. H. Lichliter

When John Barleycorn gets be hind the steering wheel of your automobile, the Grim Reaper is even ready to thumb a ride! Gasoline and alcohol are becoming the initial embalming fluid for many modern motoriste dents at Gardner-Webb College will present a play. "Under Milk Wood " Nov. 20 and 21 at the college, Each presentation will be at 8 p. m, in the lobby of the O. Max Gard-

Dramatics Dept.

BOILING SPRINGS-Drama stuner Student Center. The play is best adapted for non-conventional staging, and depends on lighting for

"Under Milk Wood" was written by Dylan Thomas, noted Welsh-

American poet and playwright of the current century. The setting is a

The author shows the town's in-itself officially decreed an "insane

Fourteen students enact the 34

Actors include Irene Schmidt,

Cherryville; Suzanne Reid, Thomas-

ton, Ga.; Marvin Walters, Mebane;

Richard Ammons, Charlotte; Sonja

Hedrick, Boiling Springs; Mickey

Morrow, Sylvia Whitmire, and Beverly Turner, Shelby; Nancy Wilson,

Fallston: Elizabeth Pearson, Morganton: Margaret England, Marion:

Bernice Goodson, Lincolnton; and

Prof. Robert Flynn, instructor in speech and drama, is director, as-sisted by student director Sara on Scholarships and Student Aid,

Students in the following colleges will be eligible for competition:

Campbell, Chowan, Gardner-Webb,

Dr. William Louis Poteat, for whom the scholarships are named, was president of Wake Forest from 1905 to 1927. All told, he taught at Wake Forest for 61 years. He was the father of Dr. Hubert McNeill

Poteat, Latin professor for 44 years.

When Dr. Hubert Poteat retired in 1956 it marked the first time in 79

years that a Poteat was not on the

Dave Nanney, Forest City.

Moore of Granite Falls.

Box 7305. Winston-Salem

Mars Hill and Wingate

Wake Forest faculty

parts as the play re-creates a 24-small coastal town in Wales.

Holds Play

dramatic effect.

area.

hour period.

habitants as lunatics, with the town