

"Tossing The Pigskin" With Doug Goans

Bulldogs Twist Tails Of Bobcats, Win 27-7 In Doug Goans

Gardner - Webb's Bulldogs made their Homecoming complete as they trounced the Bobcats of Lees McRae Saturday night 27-7.

The Bulldogs definitely regained the offensive thrust they had possessed at the start of the season. The fleet G.W. backs ran for a total of 240 yards on the ground.

Whatever hopes the Bobcats had for an upset were dispelled during the early part of the fourth period. The Bulldogs had scored once each in the second and third quarters. Then late in the third quarter Alston Jenkins, the Lees McRae defensive tackle, fell on a G.W. fumble on the Bulldog eight-yard line. In three plays they had moved the ball only to the six, but an offside penalty moved it to the one where Paul Gibbs, the Bobcat quarterback, sneaked it into the end zone. Paul Stacy, the fullback ran the extra point and it was 13-7 G-W.

MOVE BALL!

Gardner-Webb had moved the ball well on the ground in both their first two touchdowns drives with Terry Whisnant and Terry Whisnant picking up most of the yardage.

However, the Lees McRae defense became tough deep in its own territory so the passing arm of Charv Mantooth furnished the first two TDs. The first was a 20-yard toss to Terry Whisnant and Bill Nix kicked the point after touchdown.

The second climaxed a 41-yard drive. It was a 10-yarder to Fred Easley, who literally took the ball away from Don Sparrow, the defensive halfback. The PAT kick blocked and it broke the streak of 10 straight conversions by Bill Nix.

G-W's third TD came quick and fast. The Bulldogs had taken a quick kick on their own 24-yard line and moved it to the 48. From there Fred Easley smashed off tackle and by the secondary, receiving a good block from Don Sparrow on the Bobcats 48, for a 52-yard touchdown run. Nix kicked the point and it was 20-7, G-W.

The Bulldog's fourth TD came after Don Sparrow pounced on a LM fumble on the Bobcats 22. Richard Ripley dashed the final four yards for the TD. Nix again kicked it to the point to end the scoring with Gardner-Webbs Bulldogs taking a 27-7 victory.

Bill Nix, Fred Easley, Terry Whisnant, Richard Ripley and Don Sparrow did a great job on the ground with Charles Mantooth completing 3 of 6 passes for 55 yards.

On defense, it was Curt Bruffey, Ed Lohr, Johnny Wren, John Campbell, Jeter Wilds, Nix and Whisnant. Late in the game Coach Norman Harris substituted freely and these boys held the Bobcats also.

Gary Kilbourne, the Lees McRae kicker, did a great job so he averaged 37 yards on his punts.

GARDNER-WEBB DOWNS MARS HILL 7-0

After being held to a scoreless tie by Lees McRae and suffering losses of 25-0 to Wingate and 13-7 to Georgia Military College the Bulldogs started back along the road of victory with a 7-0 triumph over Mars Hill.

The Bulldogs and the Lions splashed through four quarters of hectic football with the Bulldogs coming off with their third victory of the season.

HOMECOMING CEREMONIES HELD

By Monty Mills

The highlight of the football game between Gardner-Webb and Lees McRae College played Saturday, October 25, at Shelby was the crowning of Gardner-Webb's Homecoming Queen—Miss Peggy Jo Puettl. Peggy Jo, a freshman from Rocky Mount, North Carolina, was crowned queen by the President of Gardner-Webb College, Dr. Phil Elliott. Sharing honors with the lovely queen were Eileen Hill, a sophomore from Woodruff, South Carolina, and Scottie Proffitt, a sophomore from Bakersville, North Carolina—attendants to Queen Peggy Jo.

Preceding the crowning of the queen was the presentation of the Homecoming sponsors. They were presented to the spectators during the half-time ceremonies to the music of "A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody," played by the Bowling Springs-Gardner-Webb Band under the direction of Mr. Charles Hamrick.

The sponsors for the Homecoming were: Joan Clime for the co-captain of the Gardner-Webb Bulldogs, Fred Heavner; Pat Crawley for Gerald Freeman; Joyce Snipes for Fred Snipes; Barbara King for Mike Roger; Barbara Jackson for Richard Ripley; Paula Winstead for Wesley Hughes, and Linda Rigler for Terry Whisnant. Other sponsors were Elizabeth Rabon for the Freshman Class; Mary Diele Locklear for the Sophomore Class; Betty Jean Wall half before the game and continued until it was over. Despite the bad conditions the G.W. backs gained 145 yards, all on the ground, as passing was impossible. Handoffs from the quarterback to his backfield were almost as bad as G.W. lost three fumbles and Mars Hill lost four.

G.W. began its TD drive late in the first quarter and climaxed it early in the second with Don Sparrow bulling his way to paydirt from four yards out. The drive began on the G.W. 47 yard line with Richard Ripley, Fred Easley, and Terry Whisnant doing most of the running. Ripley was shaken up and Don Sparrow came in and later scored a lone touchdown. Bill Nix kicked his ninth consecutive PAT and the score was 7-0, G.W.

The Bulldog defense held Mars Hill to 33 yards rushing the first half and one first down. Ed Lohr, Curt Bruffey, Phillip Stone and Johnny Wren were all present, but Easley, Fred Easley, and Terry Whisnant, John Campbell, Jeter Wilds and Fred Heavner.

Terry Conklin, Larry Pickelsimer and Gene Hall were the offensive standouts for Mars Hill. Conklin was also their outstanding defensive man as he made or was in on almost half of the tackles his team made.

Both bands were present, but due to the rain neither performed at halftime.

Intramurals

By Larry Mosteller

Intramural football has come and gone for another year with the crowning of another champion team, the Day Students. The Day Students had a very good team which showed great interest in the games. All of the other teams showed great interest also.

Here are some accounts of a few of the games:

The First East of Decker Hall was beaten by the Day Students 21 to 14. First East started off by Gene Hollifield's interception of Larry Mosteller's pass following the kick-off. After the interception Larry Mosteller hit Hollifield with a pass good for a T.D. which covered 35 yards; Mosteller ran the extra point. First East score their second TD on a long pass from Mosteller to Travis. The extra point came on a pass from Travis to Mosteller. Then at this point of the game the Day Students came to life scoring one TD before the half ended making the score 14 to 7 in favor of the First East. In the second half the Day Students scored two more touchdowns. Dean Jones scored two of their touchdowns and David Ezell scored the other one.

The Day Students beat 1st Hapy 24 to 7. Penalties against 1st Hapy along with two touchbacks kept them in a hole. The first score was to Don Jones. Then came two touchbacks making the score 11 to 0 at the half. The second half saw the Day Students score again to make it 18 to 0. Hapy got its only score when Ken Beane intercepted a Goans to Ezell pass and returned it 65 yards for a score. Extra point for 1st Hapy was from Beane to Crawford on a pass play. Day Students scored another T.D.

First Hapy beat Second Hapy by the score of 13 to 7. The scoring started for 1st Hapy on a short pass to Beane who went 50 yards to a T.D. The half ended with the score 7 to 0. The second half with Marshall Crews taking a pitch out from Beane and going around end for 15 yards to another score. The lone second Hapy score came in the last minute of the ball game on a pass. Mashburn made it 13 to 7 by running the extra point.

The Second West of Decker Hall defeated 1st Hapy 7 to 0. Scoring came when John Jordan hit Hendrick with a pass covering 5 yards. Both teams played a good defensive game.

Second East beats the First West of Decker Hall to go into the finals against the Day Students. The score was 12 to 0 with John Jordan scoring both of the T.D. The first time they played each other the First West had beaten the Second East by a 6 to 0 score.

The final game of the season saw the Day Students beating the Second West to win the championship. The score was 13 to 0. The first score came on a pass from David Clime to Dean Jones and the second score was another pass from Doug Goans to David Ezell. Dean Jones and David Ezell lead the forces.

With the going of another football season, we have coming up next on our intramural program, basketball. This should start before long and we are looking forward to a greater interest in it than we had in football. So be sure to go out and help your team as much as possible.
