

OUR HEARTS DESIRES, DEAR SANTA

Dear Santa,

We have been angels all this year,
So please be good to us, dear Santa.
Sylvia wants a sophomore who's really a dream
He's number 12 on the football team.
Linda is hoping to find F. E. under her tree.
This should suit her to a tee.
Ann's should be the basketball type;
If he's in her stocking her Christmas will be just right.
Irene likes the athletic type, too.
If her "feller" isn't there, she surely will be blue.
Rosemary don't have an ounce special in mind,
So I'm sure that your choice will be just fine.
Eileen hopes to find under her tree
A special someone with the initials A. C.
We're sure these wishes aren't too extreme,
So please, dear Santa, bring us our dream.

Dear Girls,

Dreams are born, not made,
So give Santa time to find his spade
I'm sure I'll unearth these wishes for you
And make all your hopeful dreams come true.
For Sylvia I'll bring a boy named Rip.
You can be sure this promise isn't a jip.
That cute little freshman that Linda wants I'll try to find in one of his haunts.
Anne seems to already have her boy
So along with Don I'll just send some joy.
Irene and Fred are a mighty cute pair
So she won't be blue when he is there
Rosemary is such a cute girl
That I'll bring a couple of boys to give her a whirl.
Arthur Clayton seems to like Eileen, too.
Coupling them is really easy to do.
I'm sure since your wishes are simple and few,
I can easily make all your dreams come true.

Prostly yours,

Santa

Dear Santa,

I'm asking for a pretty tall request —somewhere around 6 feet. He is a tackle on the football team and weighs about 180 pounds. I'd like this very much for Christmas if possible.
Thank you,
A Freshman

Maurice Nanney is a right tall request, but I think I can manage to get him to you.

Struggling,
Santa

Santa Baby,

To aid you in making your Christmas list,
Here're nine sweet girls who don't want to be missed.
So give special attention to the following names.
And help us all to achieve our aims.

Joan is happy since she has her Fred
So all she wants is his picture by her bed.
Deanna likes M. C. weather as we all know
Her wish is that she'll see some snow.
Mary Gall's desire is quite easy to define—
A friend for her in Asheville with her always on his mind.
Joan is doing just fine and dandy
She wants R. H. along with some candy
Scottie is in quite a mess
Help her decide to which boy to say yes.
Paula's wish is for only one thing
Her phone kept busy with that Honna Path ring.
Mary is happy just so long as she
Can be with her family right beside the tree.
Lib's desire can be summed up in one word.
She wants a special form of a "Byrd."
Linda has thought and dreamed and worried
Now says she wants her vacation not to be hurried.

As you can see, dear jolly St. Nick,
We ask your help and want it quick.
Make all our Christmas hopes come true,
And we'll be good girls, we promise you.
Love, hugs, and kisses from
The Hopeful Nine

Dear Hopeful Nine,
Although you girls sometimes are mean
I'll answer your wishes to make you beam.
So listen carefully to what I'm going to say
For here's what is for your stockings
Christmas Day.
Fred will give Joan a picture, I'm sure.
Deanna, for you some snow I will procure.
That boy in Asheville just waits for Mary Gall.
Joan will hear from R. H. each day in the mail.

Scottie, you'll have to decide for yourself.
Wesley wants Paula to stay put "on the shelf."
Mary's wish will be take care of,
too.
Lightning Byrd will make Lib's wish come true.
Linda has two long weeks to relax.
Just don't eat too many snacks.
Well, girls, I've tried to fill your requests,
With lots of toys, goodies and guests.
So be real good, and I'll see you next year.
May your Christmas holidays be filled with good cheer!
Love to you all,
Santa

Rambling Reporter

The Rambling Reporter, while rambling over the campus, asked some of the students their Christmas wishes. Here are the wishes,
Santa.

"Roper"—A car and a front tooth.
Charles Smith—Some good grades and Jayne Mansfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Starnes—A bouncing baby boy. (Sorry, folks, should have gotten your order in earlier.)

Edward Sinclair—96 on that spelling test.

Curt Bruffey—To come back after Christmas.

Pat Guyer—A guitar (don't fudge on Santa, Pat; we know you just bought one.)

Lib Smathers—"A Bird."
Sue Millen—A mousetoat.

Maxine Davis—Another ring.
Sylvia Marlette—A car.

Mary Hodges—A talking mule and an A on accounting.

Scottie Preffitt—"A snowman." Pat Cobb—Erigette Bardot.

Hugh Smith—An A in History.
Katherine Anderson—A boyfriend.
Margaret England—Some money and some A's. I don't guess there's any use to make the other wish.

Keith Cash—Another cow.

Larry James—My name not mentioned in the "Pilot."

Eileen Hill—One-way ticket to Woodruff.

Jimmy Wise—Giftfriend.
Fred Hight—Christmas Eve at Mooreboro.

Arthur Clayton—"quote"—"I want out of here"

SECRETS OF THE ADS

by Sonja Hedrick

Students, did you know that the ads are important to you. Why?
Well, for one reason they help pay for the paper. Another reason, probably the most important one to you, is that through them you are allowed a discount at certain stores.
Hudson's in Shelby gives all Graduate-Webb students a 10 per cent discount and so does John Bell's in Lattimore. These discounts are yours for the asking. Both of the stores expressed eagerness to serve you, and want you to have their "gift."

As you read the paper, glance at the ads, and the next time you visit any of the establishments which have an ad, be sure and give them a big "Thank you!" This will not only help the relationship of student and establishment, but it will also make the business manager's job more pleasant!

GEORGE WARNER and DOTTY HUDSON
CHRISTMAS COUPLE

by Georgina Cooke

The Pilot Staff chose Dotty Hudson and George Warner as the "Christmas Couple" for the month.
The popular and cute Miss Hudson attended Pocomoke High School in Pocomoke, Md. There, she was very active in all sports, was a member of the band, a cheerleader and editor of this year book. Dot-ty's hobbies are reading, handcraft and George. She is majoring in nursing.

George attended Wadeboro High School in Wadeboro, N. C. Some of George's high school activities included a major part in the senior play and drum major in the band.
He is majoring in Corporation Law.
Some of his hobbies are automobiles, travelling, and—of course—Dotty.
