

Students enjoying the Thanksgiving dinner, a tradition at GW.

Traditional Thanksgiving Dinner Served

Approximately 300 students and 15 faculty members attended the Thanksgiving banquet held in the cafeteria Nov. 22, at 6 p.m.

To add to the enjoyment of the meal, a GW tradition, the dining hall was decorated in the festive holiday tradition of lighted tapers, mints, nuts, and colorful paper turkeys. In charge of decorations were Edith Bailey, Linda Brown, Nancy Hildebran, and Gene Vallini.

GW ALUMNUS RECRUITS FOR WC

Fyree Kiser, Gardner-Webb College graduate and representative for Western Carolina College, was on the campus Friday, Nov. 18 to talk with students interested in transferring to Western Carolina College.

Approximately 25 students indicated an interest in the four-year school and were interviewed by Kiser.

Seven Board Members Named

Seven new members were elected the Board of Trustees of Gardner-Webb College by the Baptist State Convention the week of Nov. 19.

Named to the 28-member board for a four-year term were the Rev. R. O. Baker, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Cranston; the Rev. Wilson Padgett, pastor of the Eastside Baptist Church, Shelby; I. A. McLean, an automobile dealer of Marion; J. Toliver Davis, attorney at law, Forest City; Miss Charlene Stamey, of the Stamey department store chain, Pallaton; the Rev. R. P. Hamby, pastor of Connelly Springs Baptist Church, Connelly Springs; and J. C. Hames, banker from Cliff-side.

The nominations for these posts were made by a special nominating committee. The actual election was by the Convention itself.

it has caused her to better budget her time.

Earl Thomas works with the College radio station and also in the cafeteria for a total of approximately 22 hours each week. His pay is used to finance the flying lessons that he is taking. Earl, who is a pre-forestry major, thinks the main advantage in working is the experience it gives him. He combines business with pleasure, for radio is one of his hobbies.

Jo Lee Loveland is secretary to Thirlen Osborne, English professor. Her job consists of typing, helping to check papers, cutting stencils, and the usual clerical duties. Of her work, which she thoroughly enjoys, she says, "There is no other job on the campus I'd rather do." Jo Lee, a "B" honor roll student, confesses that her job is not only financially rewarding, but that she has picked up a lot of knowledge about literature from her boss. Jo Lee is taking 17 hours and is working to help meet her college expenses.

It was sad...

when that great ship went down and the last thing to leave the sinking ship was a bottle of Coca-Cola. That's because all hands stuck to Coke to the end. Now there's popularity! That's the kind of loyalty the sparkling lift, the good taste of Coke engenders. Man the lifeboats, have a Coke!
