

QUEEN AND HER

Miss Brenda Moore Reigns

On Saturday, May 4, Gardner-Webb College presented the annual May Day festival. The theme was "The Diary of the Happy Wanderer." Mr. Robert Lamb, professor of English and Speech, was narrator. He introduced the court and told of the adventures of the happy wanderer. The girls in the May court were dressed in Nile green, pink, blue, yellow, and lavender. The following were on the court: Brenda Porter of Winston-Salem was escorted by Roger Dixon of Clover, S. C.; Betsy Thompson of Stanley was escorted by Ronnie Robinson of Belmont; Sandra Powell, of Inman, S. C., was escorted by Mike Pearson of Gastonia; Carolyn Bentley of Asheville was escorted by Richard Duncan, of Pageland, S. C.; Elizabeth Reese of Monroe was escorted by Wayne Barnwell of Morganton; Sandra Rideout of Winston-Salem was escorted by David

THE HAPPY WANDERER

A BRAZILIAN LADY