

Bulldogs Face Ferrum In Homecoming Clash

Loop Hopes Remain High

Hinsdale's Observations

WE LOST, BUT WE'RE A MUCH IMPROVED TEAM. Even though we lost our last football game to Chowan College, we fielded a greatly improved Bulldog eleven. Chowan was forced to punt once more than Gardner-Webb and we outstrued them by four yards. Part of the difference came as the Braves outpassed us and took advantage of a fumble deep inside Bulldog territory.

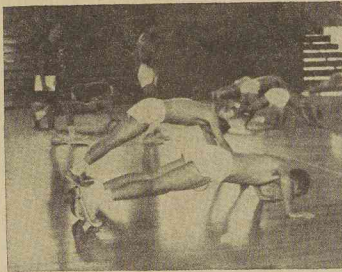

Two new faces showed brightly in our defensive line Saturday as James Bird of Ellerbe and Larry Lauderdale of Miami, Fla., played a superb defensive tilt. Bird was in on numerous tackles and Lauderdale not only played well defensively but blocked a Chowan punt which was recovered in their end zone by Bill Seel for a Bulldog TD. Let's hope Lauderdale and Bird continue the good work.

Though the final score was 9-6, the score was 7-6 until the final 17 seconds of the game. At this time Gardner-Webb was forced to go for the lone pass play and Willis Burkett was caught in his own end zone for a safety.

FERRUM HAS 2-1 RECORD. Ferrum College of Ferrum, Va., brings a 2-1 mark to Blanton Memorial Stadium Oct. 24 for our homecoming encounter. We have a 1-3 mark going into the game but we feel the law of averages is on our side as we play at home and with a steadily improving football team.

NOTICED AROUND GREAT JOB. I noticed Sam Franklin and Gerald Mathis enjoying the fruits of being "most outstanding" in the Chowan game. They were eating steaks at the cafeteria. It's a shame Mr. Holcomb doesn't give a steak to the MVS (Most Valuable Sports-writer).

CHEERLEADERS DOING GREAT JOB. Our cheerleaders are doing an outstanding job of carrying out spirited pep rallies and yells at the games. Let's show them we appreciate it by joining into the spirit of the school. Don't go home during homecoming, stay for the game and back the team. You will enjoy it and begin to feel the growing spirit of our growing student body.

GETTING INTO SHAPE FOR BASKETBALL SEASON ... Coach Holbrook Puts Bulldogs Through Paces

Bulldog Roundball Squad Practicing In Earnest

If you walk over to the gymnasium during these autumn afternoons, you will see the Bulldog basketball team working out in preparation for the 1964-65 season.

First Victory For Red & Black

By JIM HINSDALE
SPORTS EDITOR
Gardner-Webb College Bulldogs tasted victory for the first time in 1964, defeating Lees-McRae College 14-0 in Banner Elk Saturday.

It was Lees-McRae's first Region 10 loss and they dropped from first place as a result, with Ferrum College taking over the top rung. Ferrum downed Chowan an College of Mounties 10-7 in what counts as a double victory and gives the Virginians a 2-0 loop record.

Gardner-Webb picked up the Western N. C. Junior College title as a result of the win. With only two junior colleges fielding teams in this section, the two meet twice each year and the winner of the series, either in games or by points, wins the trophy. Gardner-Webb's 14 point margin was one point more than the 20-7 or 13 point margin win by the Bobcats earlier in the year.

A defensive duel for three quarters, the tilt was nearing its climax as Fred (Tyke) Fishers of Virginia intercepted a Bobcat aerial on their 35 and ran it into the two from where halfback Charlie Peeler hit for the TD.

In the final minutes of the game, Gardner-Webb marched from their own 50 with fullback Gerald Mathis racking up 32 yards in seven carries to sparkling a 70 yard TD drive. Peeler Bill Seel of Greenville, S. C. botched his second extra point of the afternoon.

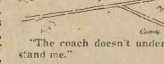

Ferrum "I trace it all back to the moment we dashed out on the field to face 'em."

"I've been told by reliable sources that this team is headed for Kansas City this spring. Coach Eddie Holbrook has made his first team cut of personnel, leaving 16 boys still on the squad. Fifteen will be the maximum carried on the team.

Players still out are: George McDowell, Phil Luckadoo, Kenny Beam, Ron Bray, Butch Rodgers, Rich Holbrook, Jim Boverder, Drewery Lambert, Coy Doty, Grady Goode, Cecil (Cowhead) Aitchek, Dick Foy, Dennis Childress, Jim Mellon, Jerry Moore and Jim Hinsdale.

This crew boasts two high school All Americans and two All American honorable mention players. Let's prepare to back these boys all the way to K.C.

Faculty Member (Continued from Page 1)

London, Oxford University, University of Birmingham, various private depositories and the British Museum.

He received his Associate In Arts degree from Wingate College where his father formerly served as president; his B.S. degree from Wake Forest College, B.D. from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and M.A. from Duke University. Dr. Burris taught at Gardner-Webb from 1958-62 before taking a leave of absence to complete work on the doctorate. He is married to the former Jane Russell and they have two children, a son and a daughter.

Dr. Price

(Continued from Page 1) for students; Nov. 11, chapel services.

Faculty Party, honoring new professors, to be given by Professor and Mrs. Hubert Dixon at the Bolling Springs Club House, Nov. 13 at 7:30 p. m.

A rare event will occur Nov. 17. There will be a personal presentation by the brother-in-law, Darius Llama. Darius Llama Norbu will show films of Tibet and tell the story of intrigue and violence behind Red China's overthrow of Tibet.

Moral boosted by a 14-0 upset victory over Region 10 leader Lees-McRae College, Gardner-Webb College Bulldogs hit the gridiron at 8 p.m. Saturday facing the Panthers of Ferrum College of Ferrum, Va.

A victory here beyond an expected large Homecoming crowd would elevate the Bulldogs into the thick of fight for championship honors in the four team loop.

Half-time ceremonies will include band music, crowning of a Homecoming Queen out of 14 candidates for the title. On campus, dormitories will be decorated by students.

Ferrum slashed into Region 10 action last week, stunning Chowan College 10-7 and grabbing the league lead. Previously the Panthers had stopped all non-conference foes but fifth ranked Wesley of Delaware who edged them 19-14 in a rugged battle.

Less than impressive in an opening 20-7 loss to Lees-McRae, the Bulldogs showed marked improvement despite a 20-2 loss to Furman Fresh and in their third week suffered 9-6 before Chowan.

A win over Ferrum would give the Bulldogs a double victory since each league team plays twice during the season but Ferrum, electing to play each team only once, counts the single game as a double win or loss. A tie would give Gardner-Webb a win and a loss.

Coach Norman Harris (Bulldogs have been rugged defensively all season but have lacked zip offensively. However the two touchdowns against Lees-McRae give hopes for more points in the future as the club reaches mid-season before a host of alumni, faculty, students and friends.

COACH HARRIS, quarterback Bancroft ... They will call the signals

FATCHING UP — football players is an everyday chore for Johnny Burt, trainer, who hopes to some day become a professional trainer in football.

Rarity Found On G-W Sideline

By JIM HINSDALE
Pilot Sports Editor
Johnny Burt is somewhat of an oddity.

He is a man on the sidelines who doesn't desire to get into the action. A freshman student, Johnny is trainer for the athletic teams and his ambition is to be a professional trainer. The Winston-Salem lad attended North Forsyth High School where he was head manager and trainer in his junior and senior years. He is studying a liberal arts course at Gardner-Webb.

Serious about his chosen vocation, Johnny has already studied under Al Proctor, head trainer at N. C. State College. He has also attended North Carolina Athletic Association clinics at Greensboro where he received the N.C.C.A. Training

REGION 10 JUNIOR COLLEGE STANDINGS

Team	League Overall
	W	L	T
Ferrum	2	1	1
Lees-McRae	2	1	2
Gardner-Webb	1	2	1
Chowan	1	3	4