BULLDOGS ARE HUNGRY FOR CHOWAN

First Bow, left to right: Doe Chements, assistant to escathes; Don Metville, Tony Mauldin, John Taylor, Roy Tompono, Don Deterson, Jim Kovender, Wayne Sertano, Tom Gillis, Edward Haurer, Ron Hendrix and Buddy Hamrick. Second Rov, I-ri: Fred Styles, Larry Kasas, Ken Morris, Stan Betckhire, Tommy Thomason, Jim Taylor, Jerry Eskew, James Birl, Vaughn Dagenhardt, Bobby Sall, Pinky Guerzda, Bobby Spain and Larry Hoskins. Third Row, I-r; Coach John Spencer, Robert Cone, Paul Armes, Joe Broughton, Larry McCoy, Gary Henry, Larry Harrell, Betd McKinney, Ceraid Mathia, Alan Dannagaa, Johany Burdon Bavid Langford, Fourth Row, I-r: John Biack, Gene Morris, Charles Magness, Gene Grigg, Jack Ripya, Wayne Rock, Romie Howard, Mred Shires, Forter McLane, Malchene Singleden, Hang Penzell, Raymond Prancis and Coach Normun Harris.

by Eddie Owens

Gardner - Webb College's Buildogs will observe Homecoming on Nov. 6 when they play host to Chowan College's Braves in George Blanton Memorial Stadium. This will be the second meeting of the two vorum the Buildogs to the ir Homeconing game Oct. 9 and best Gardner-Webb 21-33. But Chowan's head Coach Jim Garrison will have spent many to beat Gardner-Webb in the seeond encounter.

Gardner-Webb outplayed his Braves in the first game but lost when several key breaks went to Chowan. The Bulldog defense limited Chowan to a total of only 91 yards and held the Braves to a 21-yards on the ground. The Bulldog offense picked up 11 first downs to. Chowan's 8. Garrison will have to stop the strong right arm of Alan Dunnagan. If he stops the Buldogs. Dunnagan led a second half comeback to bring half definit to challenge the Braves at the end of the contest. Dunnagan firsd two touchdown passes to account for both of the Buldog scores.

Add to all of this Gardner, Webb tradition of just not losing at Homecoming and you have a hard time in store for the Braves on Nov. 6. During Coach Norman Harris earer at Gardner-Webb he has compiled an envious record of Homecoming vitories. In 16 Homecoming vitories. In 16 Homecomsports al 3-21 record. Last year Gardner-Webb was having the type of season you like to forget as soon as it's over as they won only three hall games. Ferrum Junior College was having the type of season one talks they made one mistake, they played Gardner-Webb at Homecoming. This game turned out to be Ferrum's only loss of the season as the Bulldogs beat them 14 to 7.

Gardner-Webb has lost only two games out of 7 attempts, this season and both of them were heartbreakers. The Chow. angame was lost on bad breaks. The other loss came at the hands of Perrum Junior College who, of now, is the only and the state of the only and the season of the other season of the was a 0-0 tie until the last two minutes of the contest when a bad snap from center on an attempted punt gave Ferrum a touchdown and a 6-0 victory.

Gardner-Webb has both a fine offense and an outstanding defense. The offense which consists of Alan Dunnagan, at quarterback, Tom Gillis and Maleolm Singelton at halfbacks and Gerald Mathis at fullback, has scored 111 points in the ir first six ball games with Mathis accounting for 36 points on six touchdowns. The Gardner-Webb defense led hy David "The Bear" Langford, Charles Webb defense led hy David "The Bear" Langford, Charles detective this cas as a Both Jack Rippy has been more than Jack Rippy has been more than detective this cas as a Both Hold to minus yardage on rushing against the Bullogs.

Coach Norman Harris stated that he feels, "as if this will be a very typical Gardner - Webb Homecoming game" and also that "I am looking for our 14th Homecoming victory."

So barring exceptionally bad luck for the Bulldogs, it looks as if Chowan's Braves are in for bad medicine come the 6th of November.

PARENTS MEET PLAYERS - The parents of players of Gardner-Webb's football team were guests of the College Oct. 16 when the Bulldogs played host to the Lees-McRae Bobcats in George Blanton Memorial Stadium. The parents were introduced to a large crowd at halftime and also met all of the players and coaches. The parents were invited at the discretion of the players with the Coach's recommendation. Cocaptains Ronald Howard and Gerald Matthis are shown as they lead the players in greeting the parents in a pre-game ceremony.

Winning Is A G-W Tradition

Bulldogs Down

Davidson Freshmen

The Bulldogs of Gardner-Webb rebounded from a 6-0 loss to Ferrum Junior College, ranked 3rd in the nation among Junior Colleges, to whip the Wildkittens of Davidson University 29-0 on Oct. 29.

The Bulldogs played Ferrum to a 0-0 tie until the last 2 minutes of the contest when a bad snap from center on an attempted punt set up Ferrum's only score.

The Wildkittens proved to be no match for the Bulldogs as they were completely dominated by the Gardner-Webb squad. Tom Gillis led the Bulldogs with two bouchdowns. His first came on a 14 yard run in the second quaryard run in the second quarty and the second quarty and the second quarty and the second quarty and the second quarter in the third quarter from three yards out. Also scoring touchdowns for Gardner-Webb was Robert Spain and Malcolm Singleton. Spain and Singleton on a 14 yard pass from a law ord and be out for the second second second second ght Davidson's punter in the end zone for a safety. Head coach at Gardner-Webb College for the past 14 years, Harris ean look back over seasons fat with victories and few years when he didn't finish above the .500 mark.

Winning traditions are hard to come by but the $1-5-14 record to date is evidence of gridiron success by the Buildors, while many other junior colleges have been quitting the sport to lump all their athletics into one basket — basketball. Homecoming, however, is a Homecoming, however, is a special tradition. In the 18 years Harris has coached or been head coach of the Bulldogs they have won all but two of the Homecoming games.

Named "Coach of the Year" in Region 10 last season, Coach Harris can look back over six conference championships. He hails from Ridgecrest, N. C., and attended Lees - Edwards High School where he capitained the football team his senior year. The famed grid star, Charlie (Choo Choo) Justice was a teammate of Harris at Lee-Edwards.

From high school, Harris went to Duke University and then to High Point College. He was captain of the High Point team his senior year. He received his M. A. Degree from George Peabody College.

His philosophy of athletics at Gardner-Webb is "that the sport which is in season is the most important one at the college." His belief in a wellrounded athletic program has resulted in a well-founded program of football, basketball, baseball, track, tennis and golf.

