Track

The 1969 GW track schedule has been released by Track Coach Ken Sanford. The Bulldog trackmen finished third in last season's competition. This season Coach Sanford says, "We should have another good sprint group, and we are hopeful of being in the middle and longer distances."
 According to Sanford, Wigate and Brevard Colleges should be strong in track and field this year, and added, "If we get some of the field events (shot, discus, javelin) from footballers now in competition, we should be competitive."

The 1969 schedule is:
 April 15 - Wigate - there.
 April 17 - Lees-McRae - home.
 April 21 - Brevard - there.
 April 24 - Wigate - home.
 April 28 - Conference meet - at Brevard.

Drills Underway

Gardner-Webb College football Coach Norman Harris has begun spring drills with 48 men preparing for their first year out of junior college ranks. Of the total, 19 will be juniors, 22 sophomores and seven new men.
 The coaching staff (Harris, Sanford and Ken Dave's) stressed improvement in all phases of the game with emphasis upon quickness. Practices consisted of drills, agility, questions and fundamentals giving opportunity to get back into the "groove."
 Coach Bryson said, "It seems to be a lot of enthusiasm among the boys. They have grown stronger in the winter program and will spend the spring working on our offenses and instilling individual pride."

You've Come A Long Way, Baby

You've come a long way baby,
 You've got your own cigarette now.
 Of course, they don't taste different from
 The men cigarettes you've put up with --
 But, you've come a long long way.
 You no longer have to worry about being Admired or respected -- you don't have
 To hold the split of optimism which
 In years past, has made men look up to you.
 You can be free again -- You're now equal to men.
 If you had only stayed! -- maybe we men
 You no longer have to be wonderful --
 You've come a long long way.
 You are free to smoke, drink, and curse like a man.
 Wouldn't have gone so far.
 Whoever thought beauty was best viewed
 From behind a veil of grey smoke?

SPANISH FIRST HAND by Perry Dover

It is generally agreed that the best way for one to learn a foreign language is to be placed in an atmosphere of the language usage.
 M.A. Setzer, due to a fortunate twist in his Spanish lab, is making use of this principal. Freddy Rodriguez, student from Bolivia, and Rick Magna, student from Venezuela, are members of the lab and, since Spanish is their native language, each has taken full of the class and work with the students in grammar and pronunciation.

stand phrases or paragraphs in the lesson. Freddy continues his teaching cycle by asking questions of his group. Rick sometimes allows his students to ask questions of him about his homeland. The lesson goes on as parts are assigned students and, and, the cycle finally ends with the naming and pointing out of words and objects in Spanish.

Freddy, on this particular day, discovered a peculiarity in the lesson: "Chotto! What a silly name for a dog. We have funny names in Spanish like you have in English, like Boiling Springs. Both teachers agree that the best way to learn Spanish is to spend about three months in a Spanish-speaking country. The best, they feel, that one can do here is continually practice the language.

Setzer agrees with the student professors in that practice is most essential in acquiring good usage of the Spanish language. He also agrees that students should get their ears tuned to it.

Setzer said the work Rick and Freddy have been doing is good in that it presents a better working view of the language and its associated culture than could a text book list of rules and facts.

Bulldogs End Memorable Season

By TERRY KNIGHT

The powerful Gardner-Webb Bulldogs after finishing the regular season with 26 wins and only three losses went to Forest City town-seated for the conference championship. Having very little trouble indisposing of conference foes, the Bulldogs played Spartanburg for the crown.

Artis Gilmore scored 32 points and, with 30 rebounds he was named the tournament's most valuable player. George Adams with 19 points was named to the All Tournament Team. The team took the trophy by a score of 107-76. In Lemoir the Bulldogs ran into Ferrum College in battling for the Region 10 Championship. Gilmore with 23 points led the Bulldogs to a 100-95 win. The Region 10 Championship

Baseball Season Offers 7-0 Bulldog Record

Gardner-Webb College opened its conference baseball schedule Mar. 25 with two convincing wins over Spartanburg Junior College. The high scoring Bulldogs nine took the games 10-2 and 11-2. GW is off to a fast start this season with a record of 7-0 for the young 1969 season. They opened against Evans College of Concord Mar. 13 at Concord to defeat the Evans nine 19-0 behind the pitching of Sophomore Ron Lacy. The Dogs showed their power early by scoring 19 runs on 17 hits while holding Evans scoreless.

During the college's spring break, the baseballers traveled to Tifton, Ga. for four games with the Stallions of Abraham Baldwin College. In their first encounter the Dogs, behind the hustling of Freshman Johnny Phillips, picked up seven runs on nine hits while holding the Stallions to only two hits and no tallies. The next afternoon the GW nine had their closest contest of the season when Wayne McCauley, a freshman pitcher from Old Fort, pitched them to a 2-0 victory over ABAC. The Bulldogs picked up four hits while McCauley limited the Stallions to three singles. In the second game of the afternoon GW exploded for 10 runs on 10 hits to defeat ABAC 10-5. Bob Lacy, former Crest high star, pitched a seven hitter for the Dogs. In the final game of the Georgia trip the Bulldogs showed a fantastic scoring punch when they collected 24 runs on 20 hits in their fourth defeat of Abraham-Baldwin 24-5. Ron Lacy, of Manassa, Va., picked up his second win of the season.

game was the most exciting game yet. The team poured in 64 points to lead at half time. Tony Spagnola, with 29 points, led the team to a 142-85 Region 10 NAIA Championship.

The stands emptied in a hurry as the fans stormed the court to congratulate the Dogs. Coach Eddie Holbrook cut down one net while Jack McGill and Ernie Flushing got the others. Athletic Union and other dignitaries visited the showroom as pride and happiness filled the players and spectators.

Gilmore and Fleming were named to the Region 10 All Star team by all the coaches. Both athletes have been submitted as All-American nominees in Gardner-Webb's last year as a junior college.

In the first game of the conference double hitter at Spartanburg the Bulldogs, behind the pitching of McCauley, picked up 10 runs on nine hits. McCauley limited the Pioneers to two runs on three hits. The big pitcher helped his own cause with a home-run in the top of the sixth with no one on base.

In the second season victory Johnny Phillips allowed two runs on four hits while the Bulldogs faced five Spartanburg pitchers for 11 runs on 10 hits.
 In their first seven games the Bulldogs have scored 83 runs on 81 hits while holding their opponents to 14 runs on 27 hits. Of the 83 dog hits, 14 have been round trippers.

The Bulldogs will play the Anderson College Rebels at 1 p.m. Friday, Gardner-Webb in a conference double hitter and on Tuesday will travel to Wigate to play the powerful Wiganites in what could be the battle for the conference crown.

Coach Jerry Bryson, in his third year at GW, says that this squad has more potential than any he has ever coached. His pitching staff is stronger and has more depth than those in the past and his hitting depth is stronger than any previous season.

Coach Bryson said, "When we went to Colorado my first year here I saw that those teams had boys hitting in the seventh and eighth slot who were homerun hitters and I started building."

The Bulldogs in the final year as a junior college would like to represent the school in the Western Carolinas conference and represent the conference in the eastern regions.
