Webster And Hibbard Win SGA Election

Sandy Webster and Billy Hibbard won the recent election to finally fill out Gardner-Webb's Student Government for the '69-'70 year.

Sandy, a junior from New Bern, N. C., will assume duties as secretary-treasurer for the Student Government. Billy, also a junior, will take over as newly elected vice-president while at the same time will serve as chairman of Alpha Nu Omega. Billy makes his home in Charlotte.

Running against Sandy was Shirley Young, and against Bill, Rick Williams. Sandy and Bill received the majority of the 496 votes divided among the four candidates.

Installation of the new Student Government officers took place Oct. 9 in a student assembly.

Approximately one-third of the student body voted in the election.

Students Vote For Homecoming Queen

On Sept. 29, 1969 at an Alpha Nu Omega meeting, the procedure for selecting a Homecoming Queen was presented by Mrs. Holbrook. The motion was made and passed that the Homecoming Queen and attendants should be chosen from the sophomore and junior class.

The election for Homecoming Queen will be held in chapel October 14, 1969.

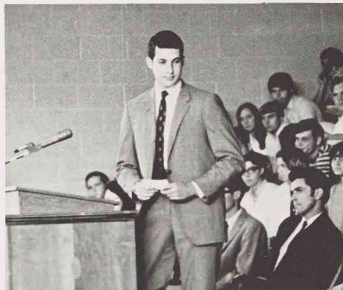

The list of girls who qualify for the honor of becoming the Homecoming Queen depends on the grade point ratio and the standings the girls have with the school. This list of eligible girls was presented to the Student Activities Committee. The Committee then chose 12-15 girls to run for Homecoming Queen. (If a girl felt she had the qualifications for running for Homecoming Queen, and she was not nominated, she could petition to run. The petition was to be signed by 50 students.) The students will vote on their own Homecoming Queen. The five girls who receive the most votes will become the Queen and her attendants. The Homecoming Queen will be presented at half time during the Homecoming game on October 25, 1969.

Happenings Canceled

Reports spread that the Happenings would appear in concert at Gardner-Webb on the 24th of October. The 24th is the beginning of Homecoming weekend, and the fun was to begin at the concert from eight o'clock until ten.

The Happenings' contract was being secured when the group made a public mistake concerning drugs. Det. Lt. J. V. Bailey identified the three members of the group as Reggie Miller, Michael Angelo Laneve, and David B. Lebert. The executive committee voted to cancel the Happenings in the light of their arrest for drug possession. As Mr. Tom Poston said about the entertainment committee: "The committee has a certain position to occupy, and we want entertainment to be in line with

Homecoming Week-End

As the paper goes to press, the complete Homecoming picture has not been decided.

The Happenings are leaving a large dent in the weekend's entertainment program. Assort today a replacement has not been found for the concert on the 24th. Who will G. W. find to replace the Happenings at such a late date?

Reports indicate that Mr. Poston is trying to secure the Wayfarers, out of an agency in Charlotte. A smaller, more local group than the Happenings, their cost is much less. The money saved will be used to secure a more prominent group for a later date in the year. This way, the students will have an enjoyable weekend to look forward to in the near future.

The next question that is unsettled at this time is the one about the parade. Will there be a parade? Some of the students might say: "Why have a parade in a small town like Boiling Springs?" The Pilot answers this question by saying that Homecoming is always essential to every college or university. The floats boost the team's spirit, and they also create atmosphere for Homecoming and the reigning of the Queen.

If the parade is organized, the different organizations will have to find a place to build the floats that they sponsor.

Although everything else is undecided for Homecoming, the open house has not been cancelled. Open house means boys are legal in girls dorms and girls are legal in boys dorms.

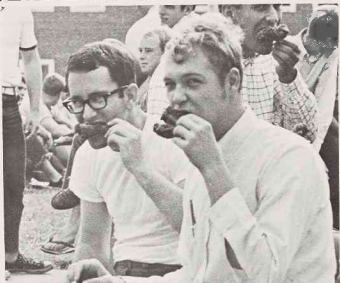

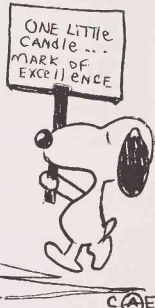

There will also be a basketball scrimmage on Homecoming day, the students will get a preview of the basketball season for '69-'70.
