

Him He Me Make The GW Scene

Him He & Me one of the most enthusiastically acclaimed new groups to appear on the music scene will be in concert at Gardner-Webb on Friday Oct. 2 at 8:00 P.M. During the past year Him He & Me have appeared at the Maisonetite in the St. Regis Hotel, one of New York's most intimate rooms, concluded a record breaking four-week engagement on the mammoth stage of the Elmer City Music Hall, entertained more than 6,000 high school students at a Boston concert, recorded their first album, and have been picking, playing, and singing to standing-room-only crowds at concerts and night spots in New York, Texas, Florida, Ohio and Massachusetts. Bob Sanders, Miss Martzoff and Curt Walters met in San Antonio and, calling themselves Him He & Me, began playing in a local club. Proving popular with local audiences they were invited to play at the Long Star Pavilion at Hemis Fair '68 and remained for three months delighting thousands with their distinctive soft rock arrangements of folk, country and contemporary music and more than forty original songs written by members of the group.

Recently, Chappell & Co., Inc., one of the world's largest music publishers and the publisher of such outstanding composers as George Gershwin, Cole Porter, and Richard Rodgers signed Him He & Me to song writing contracts and will publish a number of their original compositions.

Bob Sanders is the bass voice and alternates between 6-string rhythm guitar, bass guitar, organ and drums. Mike Martzoff a native of Atlanta, Georgia, is a baritone and plays 12 string bass guitar and drums. Curt Walters a local man from St. George, South Carolina also plays bass guitar and drums.

Him He & Me have been classified as having the ability to entertain almost every type of audience. The light, friendly performing style of Him He & Me generates a warm and enthusiastic response from the audience.

Sandra Kaye smiles as Mr. Blanton looks on.

Sandra Kaye Thompson Gets Nursing Award

A $500 nursing scholarship, presented to Gardner-Webb by the Rutherford County Cancer Society has been awarded to Miss Sandra Kaye Thompson, a second-year student in the school of nursing, Sandra is from Spindale, N. C. The scholarship will be an annual gift and will be given each year to a worthy student who plans to attend the nursing school. This year's presentation was made by Mr. Andy Blanton who is president of the Rutherford County Cancer Society.

Gardner-Webb has a two-year nursing program which offers an Associate in Arts Degree in Nursing. This year the nursing school has seventy students enrolled with thirty-eight in the freshman class. The nursing school was established in 1965 and has had four classes to graduate. Mrs. Grace Lee who was present at the scholarship presentation, is Director of the School of Nursing.

GW Coeds Make News In World of Beauty

Two hopefuls in the 1971 Miss North Carolina pageant to be held in July are Debbie Leigh Robinson from Marion and Beverly Cash from Shelby. Debbie, the 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mildard F. Robinson, is Miss McDowell County as of August 15. For her talent presentation, she performed a baton-dance routine. She enjoys swimming, water skiing, sewing and dancing. Debbie has represented her county by visiting such pageants as the Miss Asheville, Miss Newton-Cover, and the Miss Alexander County. Debbie is a sophomore majoring in psychology.

Beverly, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howell V. Cash is Miss Upper Cleveland County. She is 18 years old. For her talent, she played a classical music score on the piano. She enjoys playing the piano, singing, sewing, cooking, horseback riding and swimming. A sophomore, Beverly plans to major in elementary education. Brenda Joyce Whitely, the 21-year-old daughter of Mrs. Bernice Whitely was second runner up in the Miss Upper Cleveland County pageant. She is a senior majoring in elementary education.

Carolyn Vinson won the title of Miss Congeniality in the Miss Morganton pageant on August 15. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vinson. Her major is elementary education. These are some Gardner-Webb coeds who have recently made the news in the world of beauty. Perhaps you know of other students who have excelled in some area of endeavor. If so, THE PILOT would appreciate hearing from you that we may recognize our student talent.

Mrs. Smith

New Librarian Added To Staff

Mrs. Marjorie Smith of Forest City, N.C. has been added to the Gardner-Webb College Library staff. She is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and East Carolina University where she majored in library science and geography.

Her husband Larry G. Smith is employed with the Charles A. Food Metal Company in Forest City. They have a one year old son, Ryan.

"I really do like Gardner-Webb and the progress that she is making toward betterment of library facilities. I hope I can be of service to the students and faculty as a periodical librarian."

National Teacher Exams

The National Teacher Examinations measure the academic achievement of college seniors who plan to teach in elementary and secondary schools. They are required for certification in North Carolina, South Carolina, and many parts of Virginia.

The tests are administered four times annually. For 1970, these times fall on January 31, April 4, July 18, and November 14. For 1971: January 30, April 3, July 17, and November 14.

On September 13, Gardner-Webb's date of administration will be April 3, and if the student wishes to take the examination prior to that time, he will have to go to a different center.

The total testing time is 5 hours, 15 minutes. The Common Examinations require 3 hours, 15 minutes and the Teaching Area Examinations require 2 hours. If a student wishes an examination in a second area, he will have to arrange to take it on a different date.

Trinidad Tripoli Steel Band

The Trinidad Tripoli Steel Band will appear at Gardner-Webb College on September 28 at 8:00 p.m. in the East Gymnasium.

This group is composed of 27 young men from Trinidad who make music by playing steel drums, regular drums and other rhythm instruments. The Rev. Father John Sewell, musical director, explains that the group does not read music. However, you may shut your eyes and be convinced that a symphony orchestra is playing. The phenomenal islanders play classical music. They speak with a fast and rolling "Sare Dance" and then move into a lively and mellow "Foot and Peasant overtune." This group has appeared three times at VNU Music Hall, and the Donald O'Connor show.

Chapel Speakers Sept.-Dec.

Chapel speakers for the fall semester at Gardner-Webb College have been announced. Mr. Jim Beatty, a former track and current record holder for the mile run at North Carolina State University, will be speaker on September 29. Mr. Beatty is an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

On October 6 Rev. Bob Norman will be guest speaker. Rev. Norman is Pastor of Belmont Heights Baptist Church, Nashville, Tennessee. The chapel service speaker on October 13 will be announced later. Mr. Roy Epps, a member of the North Carolina State Bureau of Investigation, will speak about drugs during the chapel service on October 20. The Annual Founder's Day program will be featured during the chapel service on October 27. The guest speaker will be announced at a later date.

The College Choir under the direction of Dr. Phil Perrin will be featured during the chapel program on November 3. Dr. F. Eugene Poston, President of Gardner-Webb will speak during the chapel service on November 10. Rev. A. Douglas Aldrich, Pastor of the First Baptist Church, Gastonia, North Carolina, will speak during the chapel service on November 17. He is a professor of Theology at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Dr. Poston will again speak during the chapel service on December 1, and the College Ensemble under the direction of Dr. George Cribb will feature their Christmas program during the chapel service on December 8.