

Ten Seniors Make Who's Who Listing

Ten Gardner-Webb College seniors have been named for inclusion in the publication Who's Who Among Students. In American Universities and Colleges. This is the first year of listing as a senior college for Gardner-Webb.

Chosen by a vote of the college faculty, the students were those whose academic standing, service to community, leadership in extra-curricular activities, and future potential were in each faculty member's opinion decidedly above average.

Those selected and their hometowns are: Troy Harmon, Elkin; William Harrill, Durham; Mary Esther Hudgins, Gastonia; Lala Humphries, Cliffside; Judy LaCroy, Shelby; Wanda Neely, Charlotte; Jerry Ruppe, Rutherfordton; Sue Sandifer, Bolling Springs; David Webb, Shelby; and Janet Whitman, Asheboro.

Tutoring Programs

A tutoring program involving Gardner-Webb students has been started at the Boys Club in Shelby. Presently five students leave Gardner-Webb every Thursday at 5:30 from the Charles I. Dover Lounge and return at 5:50. The two hours are spent helping young boys, ages 10-14, in math, reading and science. Many times the boys only want attention and someone to talk to.

One of the students who has been tutoring stated that she enjoys working with the boys because it gave her experience in teaching, and was a rewarding experience. She was concerned that the boys really need help and that she can see a "breakthrough." Her reward comes from the contentment and happiness she sees on their faces.

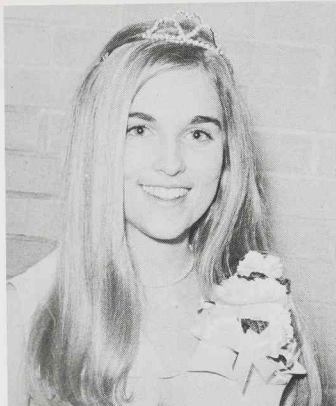

Any student who would like to take part in this project should meet the others in the Student Lounge at 5:30 any Thursday afternoon or contact Miss Ruth Kiser. The Boys Club needs the help of Gardner-Webb students and the boys need someone who cares.

Reynolds Grant To Be Shared

Gardner-Webb College is among the 26 members of the North Carolina Foundation of Church-Related Colleges which will share a $100,000 gift by the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company.

Brant Snavely, executive director of the foundation, said the fund is the 16th year the Reynolds has given to the foundation fringing the total gifts to about $1,400,000.

The North Carolina Foundation of Church-Related Colleges is the fund raising organization of the 26 church-related colleges in the state. The money is distributed 60 per cent equally among member schools and 40 per cent based on enrollment. The foundation is the recipient of a $850,000 drive for this fiscal year.

*70-'71 Sweetheart Queen LaNita Wright

Wright Is Queen

BOILING SPRINGS, N. C.—Lanita Wright of 608 Fullerton Street, Shelby, was named 1971 Sweetheart Queen at the Gardner-Webb College Sweetheart Banquet. LaNita is the daughter of Mrs. Mary B. Wright.

The event is sponsored by the Baptist Young Women's Club at Gardner-Webb. LaNita was the nominee of the Foreign Languages Club. First runner-up was Barbara Thompson of Wadesboro, N.C. Barbara, a sophomore at Gardner-Webb, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Thompson of Wadesboro. She was nominated by the Business Club.

Guest speaker for the evening was Rev. Jimmy Tiller pastor of Race Path Baptist Church. Mr. Bob Decker of Gardner-Webb's music department served as master of ceremonies.

National Contest In Poetry

Spring competition in the College Student's Poetry Anthology sponsored by the National Poetry Press has been announced.

Any student entering either junior or senior college is eligible to submit his verse. There is no limitation as to form or theme. Shorter works are preferred by the Board of Judges, because of space limitations.

Each poem must be typed or printed on a separate sheet, and must bear the name and home address of the student, and the college address as well. Manuscripts should be sent to the Office of the Press, National Poetry Press, 3210 Selby Ave. Los Angeles, Calif. 90024.

Grant Given For Poetry

A $350 grant has been made to Gardner-Webb College by the North Carolina Arts Council to be used in the presentation of poetry readings on the college campus.

T. A. Meier, chairman of the Department of English Language and Literature, announced that the grant would be used to bring three North Carolina poets to the campus to present readings along with a student from the college's student body.

The date of the readings will be April 8th.

Committee Action In February

The Student Activities Committee met on February 2 and 9th. May Day festivities were discussed. A tentative program was suggested which includes Parent's Registration and Recognition; May Day Program; picnic supper and band concert for students; Alumni banquet; and "Young Americans" in concert.

The concert will begin at 8:30 Saturday evening, May 1. The possibility of an outdoor concert in Spangler Stadium is being investigated.

The May Queen and her court will be nominated and elected by the student body. The May Queen must be a member of the senior class, as well as the maid-of-honor, who is the runner-up for May Queen. The Queen's Court will include two representatives from each class. The entire student body will vote for the Queen and eight class attendants in chapel on March 2.

Any student who would like to help plan May Day Activities in the areas of decorating, publicity, recognition, program, or arrangements should see Mr. Tom Poston, Mrs. Nell Griggs, or Mr. Robert Jones. Suggestions for this year's May Day theme were welcomed.

Other matters considered in the meeting were Homecoming 1971 and guidelines for selecting cheerleaders. The Homecoming football game for 1971 will be on October 23 with a popular concert that night.

Student Activities Committee members are: Tom Poston, Chm.; Robert Blackburn, Barbara J. Crabb, Lynn Ferrell, Ruth Kiser, C. Robert Jones, Dan Proctor, Paul Sorrella, Charisie Griffin, Carolyn San-tanella, Dr. Nurah, Iall Elliott, Raymond Davis, Ella Harrison, and Mrs. Griggs.

The Food Committee met February 3rd to discuss the possibility of operating a second cafeteria during lunch hours. This cafeteria would be located in the Bulldog Room and would serve only soups and sandwiches. Operation of a second cafeteria would eliminate the current problem of overcrowding.

The Women's Affairs Board is currently revising the women's section of the Student Handbook.

WAB has suggested that the privilege of wearing pantsuits to classes be extended the length of the spring semester. Action upon this suggestion is expected to be taken before Spring break.

Lithuania And Farce Are Last Bill For Opera House Theatre

A bill of two one-act plays was presented in the Opera House Theatre February 22-24. The production included Lithuania by Ruper Brooks and the French medieval farce, The Farce of the Worthy Master Pierre Patelin. Both plays were directed by Terry T. Hayes, the college's set designer and technical director. Cast in the former work, a serious drama, were Tom Lattimore of Lattimore, Alice Pike of Greensboro, Sue Anne Sandifer of Bolling Springs, Stan Napier of Albemarle, Brui Philip of Gardner City, New York, and Chip Thompson of Greenville, S. C.

In the classic farce whose author is unknown were Bill Murphy of Davidson, Linda Van Cannon of Greensboro, Rieley Bullin of Lexington, Rieley French of Burlington, Ron Zetock of Milton, S. C., and Danny Gillman of Winston-Salem. Tommy Humphries of Mayo, S. C. appeared in both plays.

Left to Right: Teresa Chandler, Beth Martin, Lawton Neely

More Recital News

Teresa Chandler, Beth Martin and Lawton Neely participated in a shout recital in the O. Max Gardner Lounge, Sunday, February 21.

Both of the ladies played the piano and Lawton sang. Teresa is from Asheville and both Beth and Lawton are from Spartanburg, S. C.

Left to Right: Susan Wilson, Carolyn Black

Black And Wilson Get Together In Recital

Mrs. Carolyn Upton Black, pianist, recently presented her senior recital in the O. Max Gardner Fine Arts Center. Compositions by Beethoven, Weber, MacLennan, and Debussy were presented by Mrs. Black who is a student of Dr. George R. Crabb. Mrs. Black, a music education major, is planning a career in teaching music and teaching public school music.

Assisting Mrs. Black in the program was Miss Susan Willson, a junior from the voice studio of Mrs. Nettie R. Gidney. Miss Willson plans to attend graduate school with a professional career in music.

Grant Creates New Contests

Seven literary contests have been made possible by a grant from the North Carolina Arts Council to Gardner-Webb College's Literary magazine.

A total of $135 will be awarded in prizes to the seven winners. Winning entries will be printed in the spring, 1971 issue of ONE LITTLE CANDLE. Categories cover poetry and fiction on any subject and in any literary form.

Rogers Joins Advisor Ranks

E. Pat Rogers of Shelby has been named to the Board of Advisors of Gardner-Webb College. Rogers is service manager at Rogers Pontiac-Cadillac, Inc. of Shelby. The newest member of the advisors went to Gordon Military College, Mars Hill, and The University of Detroit School of Theology.

Rogers is married and has his wife, the former Rita Ann White, who has one daughter, Amiee Christine.