

THE SPECTATOR

Gardner-Webb College

GARDNER-WEBB COLLEGE

APRIL 6, 1971

BOILING SPRINGS, N. C.

SGA Constitution Ratified 701-89

On March 25 the student body of Gardner-Webb overwhelmingly voted to approve the revised SGA Constitution. A record vote of 790 students cast ballots in the race giving a seven to one margin of support to the proposed document. Final tallies gave 701 votes for ratification and 89 against.

After a two-year history of discussion and suggestion which was culminated in the suggestions submitted by the committee of eight and approved by over 300 students the student body dramatically demonstrated its support of the framework needed for responsible student government.

Pilot Editor Open For Applications

Applications are now being accepted for the position of Editor of the 1971-72 PILOT. Those students interested in applying for the position should file with the Office of Promotion Room III, C/D. A complete biographical sheet along with an information sheet which would set forth past experience in the field of journalism.

Applicants will be given consideration by a panel which will include the present editor. It is not necessary that applicants have prior experience, but those with such experience will be given prime consideration. Deadline for submitting applications is April 20th.

Brown Announces Yearbook Finish Now At Printers

Ed Brown, Editor of the 1970-71 Anchor, announced the completion of the yearbook recently to the Pilot. Presently the publication is being printed by Keys Printing of Greenville, S.C.

According to Ed, the annual is scheduled to be shipped from Greenville on May 10. Distribution will be shortly after that. Further information will be published as it becomes available regarding picking up your copy of THE ANCHOR.

May Harton, above left, is Maid of Honor to the 1971 May Queen, Jadine Sellers, above right.

Jadine Sellers Named '71 May Queen Winner

The 1971 May Queen is Jadine Sellers. Her court includes May Barton as the Maid of Honor and eight class attendants; Gale Alexander and Brenda Whitley of the Senior Class; Myra Botts and Carolyn Vinson of the Sophomore Class; and Dixie Banzing and Sandy Payne will represent the Freshmen.

"To Fulfill the Impossible Dream" Is the theme for May Day. The script for the festivities is being written by a sophomore, Wanda Haynes, Faculty leaders have been chosen to help the dorms with preparations: Mrs. Doris Banner is the advisor for Nanny, Mrs. M. Proctor for Stroupp, Mrs. Anna Downs for Flapp, and Mrs. Ron Hooper and Mrs. Banks for the Day Students. May Day winners are given-on the privilege of selecting their own escorts from the Gardner-Webb Student body. The Student Government President will crown the Queen and Mr. and Mrs. Poston will serve as Grand Marshals.

On Saturday night, May 1, following the May Day festivities, the Young Americans will be in concert at 8 o'clock weather permitting in Spangler Stadium. The Young Americans are a group of forty high school and college students who sing both patriotic and popular music. Mary Arnold, who was on tour with Jerry Rogers and the First Edition during Homecoming, traveled some with the Young Americans. May 1 will also be Parents' Day with an Alumni Banquet as part of the "Spring Jubilee."

Summer School Set For June 7

Gardner-Webb College will have two summer school sessions with the first to begin June 7. It will continue until July 9 and the second session will begin July 12. Registration will be 9 A.M. June 7th.

Thomas J. McGraw, vice president of academic affairs, announced that almost 200 different courses will be offered during the two sessions. Classes will be held each day Monday through Friday. A student may earn as much as six semester hours credit each five week session or seven hours with special permission. Commencement exercises will be held August 14.

Courses will be offered in the following general areas of study: Business Administration; Economics; Physical Education; Religion; Spanish; Biology; Chemistry; History; Sociology; Psychology; Music; Education; Data Processing; Mathematics; Geography; Library Science; Political Science; Health; Theatre Arts; Art and Science Education.

Anchor Lead Applications Being Taken

Applications for the position of Editor of the college yearbook The Anchor, are now being accepted in the Office of Promotion, Room III, C/D.

Any student wishing to submit such an application should write a resume of past experience and outline other qualifications for the position and submit such to the Director of Promotion, Room III, C/D.

All applicants will be given careful consideration by a panel which will include the present editor. It is not necessary that applicants have prior experience on the Anchor but such applicants will be given prime consideration. Deadline for submitting applications is April 20th.

Original Works Of Shakespeare To Be Displayed

Original works of Shakespeare, on loan from The Folger Shakespeare Library, will on display in Gardner-Webb College's Charles L. Dover Library April 5 through 24. Containing items dating to 1616 the exhibit is administered by Amherst College.

Among the works on exhibit are the four Shakespeare folios dated 1623, 1632, 1664 and 1685. Two of the Bard's Quartos, A Midsummer Night's Dream (1619), and The Merry Wives of Windsor (1619), will also be in the display.

These six books are kept in a specially fitted case and are exhibited only in locked glass display cases in a fire-proof building. Each night they must be replaced in their case and shipping box and locked in a vault.

Other items on display are photography of Shakespearean subjects, portraits of Shakespeare and a leaflet about the J.C. Adams model of the Globe playhouse in the Folger's exhibition gallery.

Talent Show Winners

Above seated is Beth Martin, Talent Show winner. Behind her left to right are second place winners, Johnny Phillips, Simmie Younce, Daryl Corley, and Steve Campbell.

The Gardner-Webb Business Club held its annual talent show, March 11. There were nine entries in the event, ranging from a piano solo to the "Foggy Mountain Breakdown". The judges' decision was certainly difficult. Beth Martin was named the winner. Beth's talent was a magnificent piano solo, "Allergo Barbaro", by Bela Bartok. First place prize was $50.00.

Second place, and $25.00, went to Johnny Phillips, Simmie Younce, Daryl Corley, and Steve Campbell, who sang, "Bo-Jangles". Third place went to "Maaney Wrecking Crew" (alias Charles Wilson), whose rendition of "Run Samson, Run" won him $10.00. Cash prizes were given by Shelby Printing Co., Inc., Lee's Home and Office Supply Co., and Jack's Factory Outlet, all of Shelby.

Poets Will Read Works On April 8

Three North Carolina poets and a Gardner Webb College student will take part in a Poetry Reading sponsored by the North Carolina Arts Council and the Gardner-Webb English Department, April 8, in the O. Max Gardner Fine Arts Building at 8 o'clock.

P.B. Newman, of Queens College, Charlotte; John Foster West, Appalachian State University, Boone; and Charlene Williams, Charlotte a Meredith College and UNC-Charlotte graduate, will take part in the reading along with Carolyn Santanello, a Gardner-Webb student from Asheboro.

The college was given a $350 grant by the North Carolina Arts Council to be used in presenting the reading.

Delta Psi Omega Drama Frat Takes Six New Members

In January, the Gardner-Webb College cast of Delta Psi Omega initiated six new members. They were: Miss Suzie Comor of Shelby; Miss Clara Eggleston of Richmond, Virginia; Miss Charlene Griffin of Winston-Salem; Miss Wanda Haynes of Boiling Springs; Mr. Mike Stubbs of Shelby; and Mrs. Neal Ann Watson of Waynesville.

Membership qualifications are somewhat rigid, but membership in this honorary dramatic fraternity whose motto is fellowship and service to stimulate interest in collegiate dramatics is, indeed, an honor.

Ensemble Will Take Turn At Opera April 15

Most of you will remember last year's presentation of "Charles Brown" at the annual Ensemble. This year, April 15 to be exact, the ensemble will take a turn at opera.

TRIAL BY JURY, a short opera will be presented by the Ensemble. Except for participating in graduation exercises here in May, this will cap the season for the group. A busy season in four states and twenty-four cities has kept the group jumping since last October.

Representing the college and presenting an excellent musical program seem to come natural to this group of students who really have desire and determination in four states and twenty-four cities to develop their talents.

Dr. George Cribb, director of the group, and each member deserve our gratitude for an outstanding performance this year.

Seniors May Get Early Exams

Giving of exams to seniors with a "C" average or below has been left to the discretion of the teacher. They may leave them off or give them early. All other students must take exams according to the regular schedule.