SGA News

The Student Senate convened on Tuesday, April 11 with a record number of students in attendance.

After the invocation by the Senate Chaplain Dr. Thomas Ballard and the approval of the minutes and roll call by Secretary Shirley Young, the order of business included reports from officers and standing committees. Senator John Chandler reported from the Recreational Facilities Committee concerning their income for the month of March. The revenue for the month included $690.30 from flipper machines, $74.40 from foosball machines, $39.50 from the juke-box, $331.70 from pool, and $2.20 from the vending machines which totals $1158.10 revenue. The expenses included $578.50 which gives a total profit for the month equal to $579.60. This income statement in relation to the balance gives a total asset of $4585.63.

President Jeff Cranford reported that the Student Emergency Loan Fund had granted eleven loans which totaled $426.00 owed. There is $5,000 in the Emergency Loan Fund.

The Student Handbook Committee reported that the handbook was in the hands of Mr. Tom Poston and ready for the printer. The report from the Senate Chapel Committee consisted of the tabulated report of the questionnaire survey sheet completed by about 700 dorm students concerning chapel. The results of this survey were taken to the faculty chapel committee.

Unfinished business consisted of the appropriation of $200 from the Recreational Facilities Committee funds to cover the expenses of the president and vice-president elect of the SGA and next year's PILOT officer at attending the annual SUSGA Conference. The Conference was held in Miami on April 19-21. Attending from Gardner-Webb were Jeff Cranford, Karen Hardin, Steve Riddle, Burt Skinner, Carolyn Santanella, Steve Wilson, Sam A. A. High, Gay Greene, and Donna Ellington. Also Mr. Bill Briggs and his wife and Mr. Tom Poston accompanied the students.

The Senate passed a motion approving the following persons as Judicial Body appointees: Defense Council—Bill Buchanan and Mike Bumgardner, Trial Council—Sam Hopkins, Charles Wilson, and Tom Parker.

A call senate meeting was held on April 17, 1972. A motion was passed that section 7 of the campus code be revised to read as follows: Students dress informally for all campus and classroom activities. The informal dress should be clean, neat and in good taste, reflecting the best standards in our social structure, as judged in accordance with the constitution and by-laws.

Men: Appropriately dressed at all times with hair neat, clean and well styled.

Women: Appropriately dressed at all times, with hair neat, clean and well styled.

Spring Jubilee Celebration This Weekend On Campus

Miss Barbara Wallwork of Charlotte, N. C. has been elected to reign over the Spring Jubilee activities April 28-30.

Members of her court will be Ella Harrison of Greenville, S. C., as the senior class attendant; Stephanie Angelo of Greenville as the junior attendant; Julia Walker of Greenville as sophomore attendant; and the freshman attendant is Shelby Wolfe of Charlotte, N. C.

The weekend activities will begin with a field day on Friday afternoon sponsored by the Physical Education Majors Club. The field day will include a tug of war, grassed pole climb, and other contests, with prizes to be offered. Barbara and her court will be formally presented at the Spring Jubilee Ball at 8:00 on Friday evening. The ball theme is "Spring Celebration" and will feature the music of Bill Deal and the Rhondels (see picture on page 6).

As the activities continue on Saturday there will be brunch and cartoons at 10:00 and a Talent Showcases featuring G-W talent at 12:30 on the porch of the O.M.G. The President's reception will be held at 5:00 in the CID. "Climax" will present a concert at 8:00 Saturday night in Bost Gymnasium.

Parent's Day on Sunday will close the week-end activities with the academic departments open to parents, a concert of music by the College Choir Ensemble and recitals by Miss Beth Martin and Miss Diane Brittan. The Art Department will have an exhibit in the O.M.G. and the Theatre Arts Department will give two one act plays there also. Open house is planned for all dorms during the afternoon.
