These students include: Arme Abajian, Marcia Abernathy, Beverly Cash, Candy Cline, David Ford, Deborah Gaskill, Dianna Gilfillan, Richard Granger, Wanda Haynes, Rebecca Hensley, Gladys Jones, Leland Kerr, Thomas Lattimore Jr., Cathy Logan, James Painter, Sharon Quick, Louis Remy, Steve Riddle, Larry Rollins, Barbara Shook, Burton Skinner, Judy Stamey, Woody Wade-worth, Cathy Washburn, Jaesque Waver, and Belinda Yeargough.

This honor is conferred annually on students from approximately 1,100 colleges and universities in the United States. The directory was first published in 1934 and it now includes listings from schools in all fifty states the District of Columbia, and several foreign nations in North and South America.

The basic concept of Who's Who is to provide a democratic, national basis for recognition of outstanding campus leaders. Nominees from Gardner-Webb were selected by the teaching faculty. Mr. Melvin Lutz, Instructor in ancient languages and literature, was chairman of the faculty committee. The nominees were chosen from a computed list of all seniors with a G.P.A. of 2.5. From these eligible students the quota of nominees allowed Gardner-Webb was twenty-six. Each teaching faculty member was allowed five votes.

The nominees are to be selected on the basis of their service to the school and community, academic standing, leadership in extra-curricular activities, and future potential.

SGA News: Senate Convenes

The senate convened on November 6, with Chairman Burt Skinner presiding.

An announcement was made in reference to the SUSGEA meeting in High Point on November 10. Senators were encouraged to attend this meeting and also the State SUSGEA Conference at Catawba College in Salisbury on December 1-2.

Three legislative acts were acted upon and received the approval of the Senate. One led to the appointment of a committee to be advised by the Director of Student Activities which would seek to obtain a trophy case for the awards and prizes bestowed upon the Student Government Association and the individual classes. The 1973-74 handbook committee was designated as the committee which would judge the entries to the contest for the Handbook's cover design. Twenty-five dollars will be given to the person who creates the selected cover. A letter to the Vice-President of Academic Affairs was submitted to the senate by the chairman and it was given approval by a majority. The letter suggested that departmentalized schedules of classes be given to students as well as class time schedules during registration to alleviate confusion and to speed up the registration process.

Chairman Skinner stated that a letter would be sent to those senators who had over-cut the Senate meetings asking them to resign or impeachment proceedings would begin. Those senators include: Walter Biggs, Gerry Vallencourt, Rick Carter, Ed Cook, Nopporn Suwanik.

Bill Briggs was recognized by the Senate and he stated that there are inconsistencies between the college catalog and student documents. A motion was made to form a committee which would research documents and report their findings.

Re' Generation and Jim Croce Final Concerts For '72

The RE'GENERATION will be in concert on Tuesday, November 21. A morning appearance will be the chapel program for the week and an evening performance will be held at Boiling Springs Baptist Church at 8:00 p.m.

The musical group is comprised of ten multi-talented collegians selected from 1,000 auditions nationwide. After being recognized as outstanding musicians in high school and college, all of the RE'GENERATION spend time in personal study rehearsal and personality development in preparation for the national tour.

Along with their evening concerts the group is active in day time special presentations for high schools, colleges and service organizations. They have been featured guests performing for sessions of both the California and West Virginia State Legislatures.

The musical style is a combination and blending of solos with the eight part choral sound with a full orchestration recorded in London. They have produced three stereo albums, and will soon be releasing two more.

Future concerts for the semester include the appearance of Jim Croce on December 9 at 7:30 p.m. in Best gymnasium. There will also be an opening act accompanying Jim Croce.

This concert was scheduled as a result of the conflict of Homecoming weekend when Jim Croce could not fulfill his contract. He had been scheduled for two concerts at the same time.

This Saturday night concert will be on the last weekend before the Christmas holidays.
