Eastman and Jones 'Outstanding Educators'

Two Gardner-Webb professors, Dr. Anthony Eastman and Miss Doris Jones, have been chosen as Outstanding Educators of America and will be included in the organization's book for 1973-74.

Outstanding Educators of America is an annual awards program honoring distinguished men and women for their exceptional service, achievements and leadership in the field of education.

Dr. Eastman, an associate professor of history, joined the Gardner-Webb faculty in August of 1966. He served on the faculty of Trustee-McConnell College before coming to Gardner-Webb.

He earned his bachelor's degree from Union University in Jackson, Tenn., and his masters of art from Memphis State University. Dr. Eastman earned his doctor of philosophy at the University of Southern Mississippi.

He is a native of Laurel, Mississippi and is married to the former Joetta M. Zamwalt, of Poplar Bluff, Missouri.

Miss Jones is a native of Greenville, S. C. and she has been a member of the faculty since September, 1956. She came to her present position from Wingate College where she was dean of women and an instructor of Bible. She is now an associate professor of sociology at Gardner-Webb.

Miss Jones earned her bachelor's degree in sociology from Furman University and her master's degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. She has also done graduate work at Southern Baptist Seminary, the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and the University of Colorado.

The Shelby Jaycees are now accepting applications for the Miss Shelby Beauty Pageant which will be held April 20, at the City Park.

The qualifications for entry require that the contestant be a resident of Cleveland County for the past six months. This rule is waived for a contestant whose residence is out of the city or state, but who is a college or university student in the city where the pageant is held, at the time of the pageant.

All entrants must be single, and never been married, divorced, or had a marriage annulled. Age requirements also stipulate that the entrant be eighteen years of age by the fall of 1974 and not over twenty-eight.

All entrants must be of good character, possess poise, personality, intelligence, charm and beauty of face and figure.

Part of the competition will include a display in a maximum of three minutes of a talent presentation. This talent may be singing, dancing, playing a musical instrument, dramatic reading, art display, dress designing, creative poetry, writing, etc.; or she may give a talk on the career she wishes to pursue including teaching, nursing, law, medicine, business, etc. The entrant may be either amateur or professional.

Alpha Chi Induction

The Gardner-Webb chapter of Alpha Chi Omega Honor Society inducted five new members. Mary Jo Byrd, Dan Frederick Greer, Janice Delane Sals, Michael Emerson Stewart, and Linda Jackson Swain were awarded official membership at a recognition service held Tuesday, March 22 in the CID lounge.

Membership requirements stipulate that the student be a junior or senior and have a quality point ratio of at least a 2.4. It is also required that all members be approved by the faculty and administration.

At the orientation service for the new members, the officers-elect were given the oath of office. The Alpha Chi officers for 1973-74 include: President, Dean Ladford; Vice President, Kay Abarns; Secretary, Rebecca Hoyle; Treasurer, Carol Byerly; and Reporter, Joy White.

REWARD OFFERED

A poetry reading involving two Gardner-Webb English majors and two well-known North Carolina poets will be held Thursday, March 29 at 8 o'clock in the O. M. G. lounge.

Becky Sigmon and Charles Linberger will join Dr. Paul B. Newman and Miss Julie Suk in reading their original poetry.

Dr. Paul B. Newman is a professor of English at Queens College, and Miss Suk teaches at the Charlotte Nature Museum.

Miss Suk had her work published in such publications as Carolina Quarterly, Southern Poetry Review, The Miscellany, Red Clay Reader, and Poetry Ireland. She is also a participant in the Poetry in the Schools program.

Dr. Newman earned his Doctorate of Philosophy at the University of Chicago. He has had more than 150 of his poems published in such publications as Carolina Quarterly, Antioch Review, Virginia Quarterly Review, Southern Poetry Review and Minnesota Review. He has also published three books of poetry.

The poetry reading is being sponsored by the English Department and the North Carolina Arts Council.

Hopkins as Student Intern

Sam Hopkins has been selected to serve as one of six students in terms working in cooperation with the Isothermal Planning and Development Commission.

The interns will work on various projects for a period of twelve weeks. The projects are of an educational nature designed to give the students a first hand look at some of the problems of government, while injecting their ideas in to the problem solving process.

Hopkins will engage in a Economic Development Project under the supervision of Mr. Ernest Ross, Director of the Rutherford County Industrial Development Commission.

The other interns are students from Isothermal Community College, Shelby High School, Polk County High School, McDowell County High School, and East Rutherford High School.

The students were selected through an application and interviewing process. Applications were received from ten schools in the counties of Cleveland, McDowell, Polk and Rutherford.

The program will hold two seminars for the interns conducted by the North Carolina Internship Office. These will include an Action-Research Workshop and a Training-Reflection Workshop. Plans are being made to select at least one full-time intern for the summer.

Hopkins is a senior social science major from Albemarle, N. C.

Laurel and Hardy Festival:

A Laurel and Hardy Festival including "The Big Noise," "Dancing Masters," and "A Hunting We Will Go" will be shown April 3, 4, 5, respectively.

 Summer Jobs Abroad

"Thousands of paying student jobs are again available in Europe for the summer." This announcement was made by The Student Overseas Services (SOS). "Jobs for the summer are available throughout Europe in resorts, restaurants, hotels, hospitals, factories, offices, shops and on farms for those who like outdoor work."

Most of the jobs are located in Switzerland, France, Germany, and Spain, but selected positions are available in other countries. Standard wages are always paid, and free room and board are provided with most of the jobs.

"This simply means that any college student willing to work can earn a trip to Europe." A few weeks work at a paying job in Europe more than pays for the new round-trip winter youth fare to Europe and a few more weeks on the job earns more than enough money for traveling around Europe.

The Student Overseas Services, a Luxembourg student organization, will obtain a job, a work permit, visa, and any other necessary working papers required for any college student who applies early enough.

Any student may obtain application forms, job listings and descriptions, and the SOS Handbook on earning a trip to Europe by sending their name, address, educational institution, and $1.00 (for addressing, handling and postage) to Placement Office, Student Overseas Services, 22 Ave. de la Liberte, Luxembourg — Europe, or to SOS, Box 3173, Santa Barbara, California 93108. All job applications must be sent early enough to allow the SOS Placement Office ample time to process job arrangements and working papers.
