CSF Grants Aid To 15 Students

The Christian Service Foundation of Gardner-Webb College held its quarterly meeting Tuesday night, August 27, 1974, and announced that over $4,000 in scholarships has been awarded to 15 students for the fall semester.

The foundation was organized in 1971 for the purpose of providing scholarship aid to deserving students preparing for full-time Christian vocational service. Since its inception, over $13,000 in aid has been given to Gardner-Webb students.

New officers for the coming year were announced, including two Shelby businessmen. They are: President, Rev. Richard Plyler, pastor of Patterson Grove Baptist Church, Kings Mountain; Vice-President, Bob Barnett and Harold Cauby, Shelby; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Carl Iveser, Lawndale; and Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Bonnie Price, Boiling Springs.

The featured speaker for the evening was Rev. T. Robert Mullinax, executive secretary, Council on Christian Higher Education of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention. He challenged each member of the foundation to be aware of his attitude toward money, and the dangers of letting money be the controlling factor in an individual's life.

Rev. Curtis Bundy, President of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association Pastors Conference, presented a check of over $300 to the foundation. Retiring Christian Service Foundation president, Rev. Ed Sessom accepted the check.

Those students receiving aid for the fall semester were: Toy Bolton, Kings Mountain; Sabra Clodfelter and Sue Gibbons, Asheville; Roy Cooper, Marion, S.C.; Sophia Gomes, Brazil; Dennis Hester, Kernersville; Richard Long, Roxboro; Jerry Ryals, Raleigh.

Physical Improvements Announced: Growth Planned

A massive physical improvement program and upgrading of the academic program of Gardner-Webb College costing $10,000,000 over the next six years was approved by the college's board of trustees Monday, August 26.

Dr. E. Eugene Poston, President of the college, presented what he called, "A Reach for Quality in Christian Higher Education." He listed eight topics with sub-topics in several areas including new buildings, loan programs for students, updating of academic programs; new equipment, and remodeling of present buildings.

"Gardner-Webb's greatest days are still ahead," said Dr. Poston as he spoke to a joint assembly of the trustees and the board of advisors. "We are off to our best year yet. We have a challenging academic program for the year and we are far ahead of many large universities in the fields of academics, athletics as well as cultural offerings and in those areas which we offer our students such as entertainment."

The program was highlighted by a pledge from the college's president that a master's degree program in education will be underway by 1980.

"We have the facilities and the faculty right now to do this," said Dr. Poston. "But we must get the approval of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges and other groups."

The largest amount of the money which will be raised will be used for endowment for operation of the college. This figure is $3,000,000.

Next in line is an item of $2,500,000 for a special events building which will be used for the fulfillment of academic, cultural and athletic needs.

Another former professor, William B. Stowe, has returned after completing his doctorate in English from the University of South Carolina.

Besides teaching at Gardner-Webb, Stowe has been named an assistant professor of English. He earned his bachelor of arts in English from St. Andrews College, Laurinburg, N.C. and his master of arts in English from Appalachian State University.

FOOTBALL STAFF

John Taylor, a master of arts graduate in physical education, is from Western Carolina University. He has been named assistant football coach and is an instructor in physical education.

Student aid, both in endowment and a revolving loan fund, will total $2,000,000. The college's board of advisors yesterday agreed to help raise $300,000 this coming year for the revolving loan fund. This would be raised in the immediate area of the college.

Other items include $600,000 for a school of business building which would house data processing equipment and would be connected to the present Lindsey Building.

A total of $500,000 was marked for a residence hall complex. Dr. Poston told the group that many students are housed at the present in mobile homes and he felt that these should be eliminated as soon as possible.

Equipment and upgrading of buildings including an addition to the present science building was marked for $450,000. Air-conditioning of buildings and landscaping came in for a total of $250,000, as did upgrading of the new John R. Dover, Jr. Library.

Parking facilities, paving, and tennis courts were set at another $250,000 and equipment for new buildings was set at $200,000.
