Chamber Chorus Tours South

The 22-voice Gardner-Webb Chamber Chorus will begin its annual concert tour tomorrow, October 14, when it performs before the Shelby Lions Club. The chorus will make 26 appearances during the school year.

Organized in 1973, the group became known as the Chamber Chorus to distinguish it from the larger 54-member College Chorus. Both groups are conducted by Dr. Phil Perrin, professor of music.

LaCount Anderson, a junior church music major from Savannah, Ga., is the assistant conductor. Terri Saltz, a senior from Hayesville, N.C., is the accompanist. Miss Saltz is a music education major with a concentration in piano.

The 1975-76 Chamber Chorus Schedule is as follows:

Bulldog Band Aids V.P.'s Visit

On October 7, the Gardner-Webb College Bulldog Band helped welcome Vice-President Nelson Rockefeller to Kings Mountain, N.C. Rockefeller was honored guest at a celebration of the 195th anniversary of the Battle of Kings Mountain.

The Bulldog Band had the honor of being the first college or high school band to follow the dignitaries in their cars. They marched throughout Kings Mountain in the Bicentennial parade and upon arriving in front of the Vice-President in the stadium, they proceeded to play "Beginnings," a popular song by the rock group, Chicago. They continued to march around the stadium until they reached their designated seats.

The day's festivities began at 9 a.m. in Kings Mountain High School Stadium. Several local groups entertained the growing crowd while they awaited the parade and the Vice-President. These groups included The Early American Square Dancers, the Lamp-lighters, The Outcasts, The Gospel IQ's, Avery High Mountain Cloggers, and The Palmetto Statesmen. The Reverend Gary Bryant and Jonas Bridges co-emceed the program.

After the morning entertainment, Vice President Rockefeller arrived at 12:20, took his seat on the platform, and inspected the 57 unit parade as it passed before him. Then, the Kings Mountain High School Band played the national anthem followed by an invocation by Dr. James R. Scales, president of Wake Forest University.
