To Pun or Not to Pun

The following list provides the GWC community with 15 of the worst puns to survive history...(WARNING: THE FOLLOWING LIST IS QUITE STUPID AND MAY BE CONSIDERED UNSUITABLE FOR SOME READERS.)

Super Bowl XXVI Party

The Residence Hall Association (RHA) and Student Entertainment Association (SEA) combined their talents and put on a Super Bowl Party on January 26. Both groups worked together in coordinating the event.

Door prizes were given to students who came closest when guessing the final score of the game.

1st Annual GWC Video Music Awards a Success!

The 1st Annual GWC Video Music Awards were presented on Tuesday, January 28. The awards were a result of a student activity, Fun Flicks, held on Jan. 13. There students were able to find their snazziest costumes, show off their awesome talent and make a music video.

The event sponsored by SEA brought out over 200 students who stopped in to watch or even to make a video. The result was 45 of the hottest music videos around.

Students were then asked to submit their videos to Audrey Sloan's office where the videos were categorized by their form and content. The videos were then brought to a selection panel who decided on the best videos.

The music awards show was held in the cafeteria and was visited by such hot acts as "Nirvana" and "Digital Underground." Presenters included Cher, Madonna, Doogie Howser, M.D., and Student Activities Director Sloan.

Winners included: Demond Wesley, Shackin' Up, Darlene Hasty, Mik Ayalia, Nirvana, Digital Underground, Hotel California, and a Video Vanguard Award was presented to Jack Thomas and Stuart Herbert for their sparking videos that were submitted. Sloan also received an award for the contributions to SEA.

The 2nd Annual GWC Video Music Awards are already in the works for the Fall of 1992.
