Student-Athletes of the Month

This year, The Pilot is sponsoring a Student-Athlete of the Month award. This award will be given to a male and a female student-athlete who exemplifies outstanding performance both on the athletic field and in the classroom.

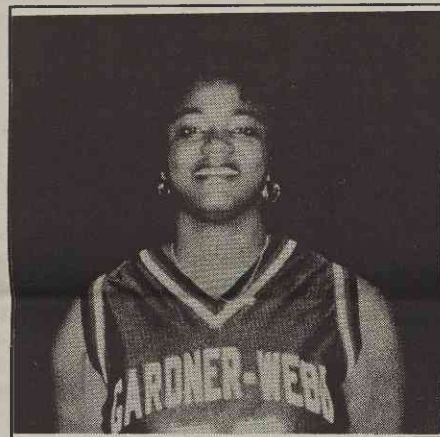

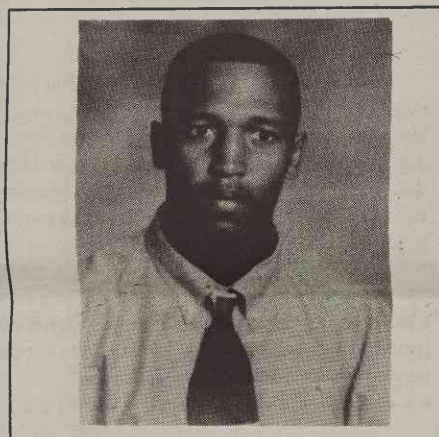

The recipients of the award will receive a certificate and recognition in The Pilot, The Official Campus Newspaper.

At the end of each season, The Pilot will award a Student-Athlete of the Year award to the male and female that have exemplified quality sportsmanship and determination on the athletic field and in the classroom.

Those recipients will receive a plaque at the awards banquet.

The Pilot would like to congratulate Speedy Mickels and Delaina Adams for being chosen as the Student-Athletes of the Month for November.

From Radio the Dog Talk with House: James

Sport's news and opinionated views...
by James R. Sexton sport's editor

James: Well it's time for the semester to end. So I guess I'll take some callers and see their comments or questions about how this semester went. Dave, from Baltimore, MD., You're on the air.

Dave: The football lost some games they should have won. The Wofford game at the beginning of the season sticks out in my mind. They also played well enough to win against University of Tennessee Chattanooga and Carson-Newman. The season, while not a disaster, was a couple of plays from being totally different. Are there gonna be any major changes for next year?

James: Well, for starters, there is gonna be a new quarterback on the team and a lot of freshmen are expected to come in and provide key roles for the team. Louis from Anchorage, Alaska, you're next.

Louis: How is the men's basketball team expected to do this year?

James: They have some great players and the juco-transfers are providing some added punches to our offense.

Jack from Greenville, SC., you're on the air.

Jack: Who are the most exciting players on the men's and women's basketball team this year?

James: Donzenna Finney has a nice game and can shoot jumpers like crazy. Lance Bain will be playing professionally this time next year. Also, for the ladies, Delaina Adams is all that and Tayuanee Dewberry is a great player as well.

Well that's all my time! Merry Christmas! See ya next month.
