

Dr. Paul Jolley says good-bye to G-W

More than what you bargained for Bookstore is not 'Let's Make a Deal'

Tuition rise minimal

Cost Comparison
	1994-95	1995-96
TUITION	$8,180	$8,590
ROOM	2,040	2,040
BOARD	2,230	2,320
TOTAL INCREASE - 4%

Maintenance needs maintenance

Without question one of the most frequent targets of criticism is maintenance of the physical plant here at Gardner-Webb. Such negative comments, although they are frequent, are not unfounded.

G-W should have recognized Martin Luther King Jr.
Many students feel two-hour service not enough

Hamrick Building to get much needed renovations

To celebrate its 50th anniversary, the Dover Foundation has donated $1 million to renovate the E.B. Hamrick Building

New Nutty Stuff

Black History Month celebrated campus-wide

Cafeteria food service sold to Daka Inc. Quality of food to improve in near future

Daka Restaurants serves 102 educational institutions and 8 corporations, including Fuddruckers, University of Florida, and the University of Massachusetts.

BOOKS CHALLENGED OR BANNED IN 1994

Reproduced with permission of the American Library Association from the Newsletter on Intellectual Freedom.

The Bible. Challenged in Alaska and Pennsylvania as "obscene and pornographic. contains language and stories that are inappropriate for children of any age, including tales of incest and murder. There are more than three hundred examples of 'obscenities' in the book." Source: Mar. 1993, p. 55; July 1993, p. 123; Jan. 1994, p. 36.

Fine Arts News

G-W Theatre performs "My Fair Lady"