

On Valentine's Day, I'd like to say. . .

To: Vinny,
Words cannot express my feelings for you. Every moment I spent with you, I wish could last forever. Through whatever life brings us, always remember. . .

Love,
Your "Buddy"

To: JoAn
I never met someone quite like you, who with a smile can turn my dark sky blue.

I don't think I can make it without you near. You are my life, my hope, and with you, I have no fear.

Love always,
Charles P.

To: Dave
Every morning I get up and thank God for you. You are more than some guy I'm seeing, you're a friend too. Thank you for wanting to be with me, and thank you for being who you are.

Love,
B.J.

To: Jason
Thank you for a wonderful year. Never forget that God loves you and I love you. Happy Valentine's Day!!

Love,
Jena

To Grrrrretchen,
You are the best thing that has ever happened to me. You are wonderful! I love you lots and lots and lots! Mucho! Mucho! Mas!

Love,
Brandon

To: Corey West,
I just wanted you to know that I love you more today than yesterday, and I'll love you more tomorrow than today.

Love,
Tracy

To: Penny,
You will never know how much you mean to us. You are a blessing from God! We love you, and Brandon too!

Love,
Second floor, Nanny

To: Julie:
You are the most perfect thing for me, I could never ask for anything more. I love you with all my heart!

Love,
Nick

To: My Nanney Ladies
Being a friend comes naturally. It is taking a moment out of your life to give of yourself by bringing comfort, encouragement, and peace.

You all do it graciously, and I thank you!!!
Happy Valentine's Day - You're the greatest!!!

Love,
Penny

****The winner of the dinner is Dave and B.J. (come by Craig 202A to receive the certificate)****

Paris, Plays, and Publicity

by Julie Gibson
staff writer

Have you ever wanted to go to Paris? Did you ever want to learn how to speak French or Spanish? If you have, you should check out the foreign language department. They have something for everyone.

Dr. Bob Morgan and Dr. Tamara Cox are leading a group of 23 people to Paris February 29 through March 8. This group consists primarily of GOAL students, but the Paris trip will be open to other students in the next year or two. Cox and Morgan are also taking a group of eleven upper-level French students to an event on February 14. The French students will go to the Dana Auditorium at Queens College to see L'Avare by the National Theater of the Performing Arts, Ltd.

Dr. Marvin Taylor will be taking a group of upper-level Spanish students to see Reynaldo Rincon and his "Cuadro Romeria Flamenca." It is known as "one of the world's most exciting Spanish dance companies." Taylor's students will go to the Dana Auditorium at Queens College on February 15.

If French is your "forte," you have endless activities from which to choose. Anyone that is interested in French can join the French Club led by Dr. Cox. The club meets at 6:30 in room 119 of the library. There will be a meeting on February 20 and then every other Tuesday. You do not have to be taking French to join the club.

Why not eat breakfast on Thursday mornings at the French table? Cox and a group of students meet at 9:15 in the cafeteria. The group will enjoy discussions in French while having a delicious breakfast.

Congratulations are in order to Dr. Cox. She is having an article published in the "Postscript". The "Postscript" is an annual publication by the Philological Association of the Carolinas. The article will be featured in March.

SEA chair resigns

(continued from page 1)

"You have one group who wants nothing to do with Christianity or Christian values --and that's fine--they don't have to. Then, you have one group who wants only Christian events. Then there's still the other group who's not satisfied with anything. . . no matter what you offer, they won't be happy, and they won't participate," said Elliott.

Elliott claimed that a number of students are uninformed on reasons for SEA program choices. He said that students complained about not having some popular "mainstream" bands come to campus. Elliott said the reason SEA has not done this is the budget.

"The Geoff Moore concert cost $5,000--that's for everything--the opening act, set-up, everything. We checked on getting Hootie and the Blowfish to come to campus. They run in the price range of $75,000 - $80,000 per concert and we don't have that much in our entire budget for a year of programming."

Elliott was SEA chair for more than a year and a half. "It was difficult to resign," he stated. "I enjoyed doing my job. Getting re-elected was great. Having students re-elect me by an overwhelming number of votes showed their confidence in me and I greatly appreciated it."

Elliott gave several other reasons for his resignation. "I was sick of being walked on. By that I mean many students thought because of who I was they could get what they wanted. A lot of Christian students assumed that because I was a Christian also that every suggestion made to me about a Christian activity would automatically be accepted. But they don't realize that the entire student body must be entertained. That's a hard job," said Elliott.

A special election will be held this semester to elect a new SEA chair. Until that time, Jennifer Kennedy is serving as acting-chair.

Upcoming fine arts events

February 15, 9:25 a.m. - Departmental recital in the Dover Chapel.

March 12, 8:00 p.m. - Junior recital of Jennifer Hess Townley in the Dover Theatre.

March 14, 8:00 p.m. - Distinguished Artist Series featuring pianist Maurice Hinson in the Dover Theatre.

March 21, 9:25 a.m. - Departmental recital in the Dover Chapel.

March 21, 8:00 p.m. - Qualifying recital of Apral Adair and elective recital of Tara Roebuck in the Dover Chapel.