Last Blast Week, held April 21-26, celebrated the official last full week of classes. The week was organized by SEA Chair, junior David Reynolds.

"I like Last Blast Week because it gives me a break from exams to do something different," said Reynolds.

The week was full of events that SEA arranged to get students to interact with each other and temporarily forget the pressures of exams.

"I think it's nice for the school to do something for us the last week," said sophomore Heather Mitchell.

Dover Theater. Friday afternoon, because of rain, the planned "Fun on the Quad" was held in Bost Gym. It included inflatables, sumo wrestling, Velcro walls and an obstacle course. That night, SEA and RHA co-sponsored double feature movies, showing "Stealing Harvard" and "Enough" in Blanton Auditorium. The week concluded with the Spring Formal, held in the LYCC, on Saturday night.

"It was really fun," said sophomore Megan Blakley. "It gives everyone a chance to dress up and feel elegant for a night."
