

Photo by Rachel Lloyd

(Left) Senior Jessica Rudisill receives a kiss from her father after being named homecoming queen on Saturday. Rudisill who is a biology major from Lincolnton was crowned during halftime of the football game. (Top Right) Waving their hands in the air which is culturally equivalent to clapping for the hearing, the Deaf Club applauds Jessica Rudisill as she is crowned Homecoming Queen. The Deaf Club came out to support Rudisill, their president in the announcing of Homecoming Queen.

Photo by Kaylin Bowers

Photo by Kaylin Bowers

(Left Center) Karissa Weir, Kelly Robinson, and Brandon Beach show the gifts for the Homecoming Queen recipient. They include a football signed by the Runnin' Bulldogs, a crown, sash and jeweled bracelet. (Bottom Left) Freshman, Nick Kristol-Harper enjoys a nice warm cup of hot cocoa at the annual Homecoming bonfire Nov 4, 2005. After the bonfire ended, students proceeded to toiletpaper campus. (Bottom Right) Fred Adkins, the Runnin' Bulldog himself, points at the crowd as he drives down Main Street during the Homecoming Parade. The parade started on Stadium Drive and at Spangler Stadium right before the Homecoming football game. (Right Center) Martin Stahlschmidt, along with three others, parachuted out of a plane onto the field at Spangler Stadium to start off the GWU Homecoming football game against Charleston Southern. ?? supported an American flag while another one of the parachuters carried a GWU flag.

Photo by Kaylin Bowers

Photo by Joseph Fluty

Photo by Emily Slaughter