

The faces of sports at GWU

Photo by Kaylin Bowers

(L to R) Taylor Simpson, Grace Whiteside, Ashley Jones, Lisa Fry, and Rachel Talley participate in one of their cheers in the pool. At the Northeast Conference Tournament, the Gardner-Webb swim team won their third straight championship this year. Nine of our swimmers received All Conference. These nine swimmers achieved a total of thirty-two all-conference honors. Terra Wilson and Taylor Simpson both made NCAA "B" qualifying times during the tournament.

Photos by Kaylin Bowers

(Above and Left): Bulldogs Wrestler Daniel Elliot achieved his 100th win against the Citadel. Elliot feels confident the Bulldogs will do well as they enter the NCAA East Regional Championship which is on Sat. March 4. (Top Right): Chris Gash celebrates the Bulldogs' victory over Lipscomb. The Bulldogs came from behind with a 22-point deficit to win the game. (Middle Right): Head Coach Rick Scruggs throws up his arms victoriously at the end of the game. The Runnin' Bulldogs were seeded #4 going into the A-Sun Tournament which is being held at ETSU.

Photo by Rachel Lloyd

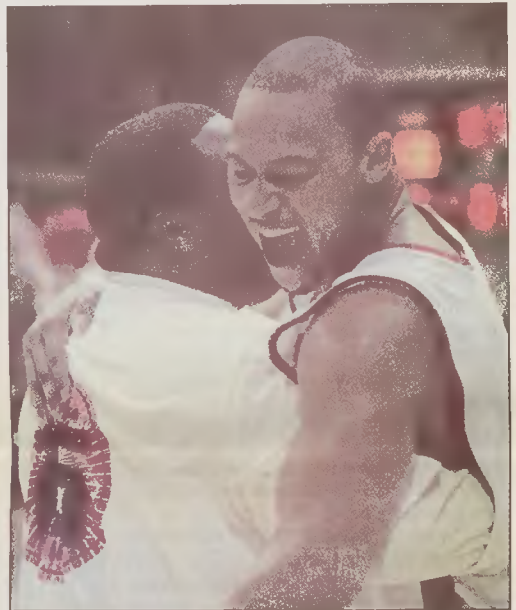

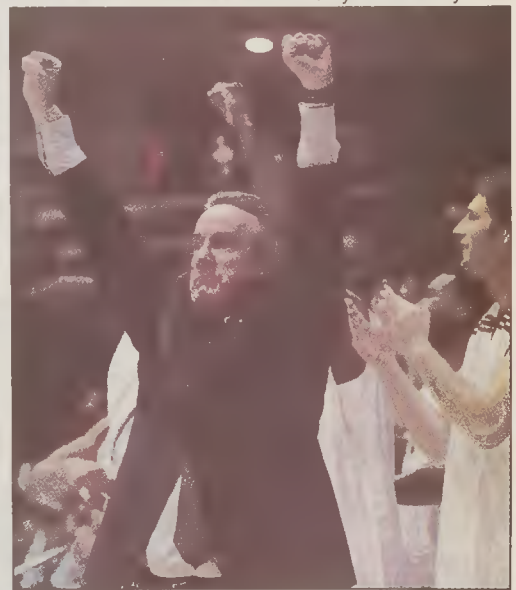

Photo by Rachel Lloyd

Photos by Kaylin Bowers

(Right): A Diamond 'Dog slides safely into third base, avoiding the tag from Appalachian's third baseman. The game against Appalachian State was halted due to darkness since the fields are not lit for evening games. The score as of now, after 12 innings is a 4-4 tie. This game will resume when the Diamond 'Dogs play at ASU later in March. The 'Dogs have a three game spread against Xavier March 3-5.

