

Family Weekend

photo by: Ashley Carter

Left: Students and families come together on the quad to enjoy some barbecue for the Family Picnic. Some prospective students also attended the event. At the end of the meal, many of the families made their way over to cheer on the Bulldogs at the football game.

Right: Dr. Bonner and his wife, Flossie, find they are "meant to be" on stage as a part of the Faculty Variety Show in Dover Theater. The variety show provided entertainment for both students and their families as a kick-off for Family Weekend.

photo by: Kate Gazeway

photo by: Haley Black

Above: Lea-Bentley Reed and Kimberly Ward pose with Mack the Bulldog during the Family Picnic on the quad. Families were able to enjoy a warm afternoon and some delicious barbecue before the football game against Austin Peay.

Right: Kelly Learned, one of the members of the Gardner-Webb swim team, receives her ring for her part in winning the NEC Championship last year. The rings were given out by Dr. Bonner and Chuck Burch.

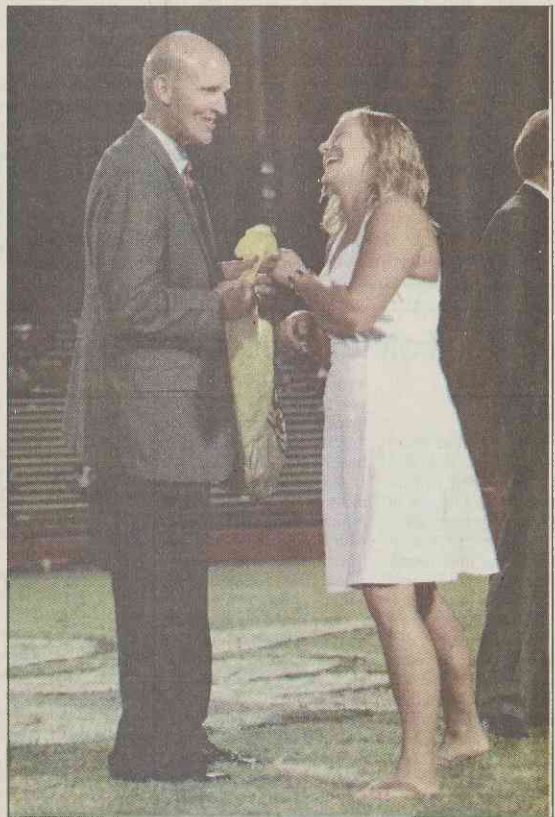

photo by: Jessica Jones

photo by: Ashley Carter

photo by: Tyler Kucifer

Above: "The Dog Pound" watches the Gardner-Webb football game against Austin Peay in great anticipation because of the intense second half. Many students and families attended the game to cheer on the Bulldogs in their 20-13 victory.

Left: A.J. Quinn receives his pin as a part of the Senior Pinning banquet.