Kickers and Noise of Belk shoot it out

Hanover gym saw plenty of soccer action Tuesday night when the Kickers and Noise of Belk went to a three-minute sudden death overtime, followed by a shootout to determine the winner.

The game started off with a bang: the Kickers scored the first goal of the night with Charles Brooks making the score. The Kickers stayed strong with a score of 5-2 at half-time.

Noise made a lot of noise in the second half as they tied the score at 5-5. Each team then scored another goal, concluding the regular game 6-6.

Three-minute sudden death overtime began: neither team scored during overtime, and a shootout was then used to determine the winner. The Kickers had three shootout goals by Brian Habeeb, George Pittman, and Phillip Summers. The final score was 9-6, and the Kickers remain undefeated with only one game left before the postseason tournament begins.

"It was a lot of fun to come out and play hard," commented Phillip Summers of the Kickers.

Buggers win Sunday night volleyball tourney

The Buggers faced off against the Sets in the first round of the postseason volleyball tournament. The Buggers won the first game 15-5.

After that, the Sets came back to win a close one, 15-13. In the final game, the win for the match was captured by the Buggers, 15-7. In the championship game the Buggers played Special Brew. The Buggers won both games, 15-11 and 15-6.

"I felt we did really well in the tournament and only having three players to work with," Chris Crumbley, Buggers team captain.

Women's soccer faces Canadiens

The women's soccer team went 1-1-1 at a tournament in Clemson this weekend, beating Davidson and tying with Virginia. They now face a Canadian team and UNC before wrapping up their season.

Another player went down with an injury at Clemson, leaving the team with only 11 players.

"A lot of teams cancelled on us this spring," said captain Meg Holland. "But we've had fun, and we don't feel like it's our fault."

Crew team takes Clemson regatta

Both the men's and women's crew teams were successful at a recent regatta in Clemson. The Novice Men's Four placed second in their heat and third in the finals, and the Novice Women's Eight placed fourth in their heat. On April 15, the team will travel to Oak Ridge, Tennessee, for the biggest regatta of the year. For more information, contact Julie Sullivan at 794-4487.

Baseball club at 14-4

The baseball club team now owns a 14-4 record after coming in third in a tournament at Chapel Hill. They will play four games this weekend, then two more before exams to finish their season.

The team has grown to 25 members in only its second full season, which pleases captain Seth Baxter.

"The whole team has been real competitive this year. Each member has been productive," he said. Baxter cites victories over NC State and Wake Forest as key games this year.
