Important things to remember when searching for an apartment

- * Be ready to pay a deposit up to the equivalent of one month's rent
- * Shop around for renter's insurance. Most realty companies' insurance does not cover your belongings in the event of fire, flood, etc. Renter's insurance is relatively inexpensive. It's always best to be prepared.
- * Take a tour of the area surrounding the apartment you're looking at before you commit to renting.
- * Be aware of your rights and responsibilities as a tenant.
- * A good place for detailed information on apartments, renting, renter's insurance and moving is www.rent.net
