SAFERIDE, FROM PAGE 1

Dorre said girls or anyone who may find themselves in an uncomfortable situation would have a safe way to get home. He also said exchange students who may not have a lot of money or a car and want to attend a show at Thalian Hall would now have that opportunity. Whatever the reason may be — students now have a way to get around, Dorre said.

"There's so many different opportunities for this program to work and benefit the students; it's not just about drinking," Dorre said.

He said once the administration community sees that it isn't just about drinking they will be all the more supportive.

As for drinking and driving, Dorre said having this program in place is worth it if it keeps someone from being involved in an alcohol-related accident.

The SGA has thus far given Safe-Ride a budget of $1,000 a month for the program, but has a goal in mind for the
