

Miss Anneliese Schober To Present Faculty Voice Recital Feb. 9

On Friday evening, Feb. 9 at 8 p.m. Miss Anneliese Schober will give her faculty voice recital in the Liberal Arts auditorium.

Miss Schober received her musical training from Converse College in Spartanburg, S. C. where she graduated receiving both her B.M. and M.M. in performance. While attending Converse College Miss Schober was selected in 1958 to Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges.

In 1958 Miss Schober was second finalist in the National Singer of the Year for Teachers of Singing contest sponsored by the National Association of Teachers of Singing.

Miss Schober is a member of the National Association of the Teachers of Singing and Phi Kappa Lambda, the Honorary Music Fraternity.

The piano accompanist for the recital will be Mr. James Murdock from Ft. Bragg. Mr. Murdock received his B.M. and M.M. from Long Beach State College in Long Beach, California.

The opening selection for the recital is "Ich will den Herrn loben allezeit" (I will praise the Lord all my day) by Hanff. This is a cantata for voice, violin and organ. Mrs. Doris West will be violinist.

Following this selection Miss Schober will sing the "Willow Song" and "Ave Marie" from Act IV of Othello by Verdi.

Concluding the first half of the recital Miss Schober has chosen a group of three songs; "Am Strome" (By the Stream), "Schlaflied" (Cradle-song) and "Lied der Mignon" (Mignon's Song), by Schubert.

The second half of the program will include works of a more contemporary nature, such as the opening selection, "Das Marienlebe" by the contemporary German composer Hindermith (now residing in this country). Miss Schober will sing three songs from this work; I "Geburt Mariae" (Birth of Mary), III "Mariae Verkuendigung" (Visitation of the Angel) and VII "Christi Geburt" (Birth of Christ).

Miss Schober will also sing a group of songs by the contemporary French composer Poulenc. Included in the group are "C," "Chanson bretonne" and "Cimetiere."

To conclude her recital, Miss Schober has chosen a song titled "The Donkey" by Cowell and two songs by Rachmaninoff: "To The Children" and "Spring Waters."

"The Donkey" is a song about the "beast of burden" that Christ rode in His final entry into Jerusalem.

This past December Miss Schober performed in the Spartanburg Music Festival where she has on previous occasions performed in opera and oratorio.

St. Andrews Appoints Allen Student Service Coordinator

Mr. W. Lawson Allen has been appointed Director of Enterprises and coordinator of Student Services. His job is to coordinate student services and facilities on the eastern half of the campus and to act as liaison between eastern and western halves of the campus.

Mr. Allen attended University of Tennessee, graduated from Western Carolina, and has done graduate work at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Wake Forest, and Southwestern Baptist Theological seminary. His home at present is in Boiling Springs, N. C., where he lives with his wife Elizabeth, an elementary school teacher in Shelby City schools. Mr. and Mrs. Allen have two daughters, one now Mrs. James Blackwelder, and Billie, aged sixteen.

For the last eight years Mr. Allen was vice-president of Gardner-Webb college, and worked particularly in the field of development and public relations. On several occasions he served as acting president, acting registrar, and acting business manager at Gardner-Webb.

Here at St. Andrews his duties will include working with individual students and groups of students, to help them in their growth as responsible college students. In this sense he will help the SGA toward their objective of full development of the student. Also he will strive to see that those facilities which exist for students' use — snack bar, bookstore, cafeteria — meet certain minimum standards.

Requests, ideas, and complaints concerning almost every aspect of student life on the resident side of the campus will be handled by Mr. Allen.

Mr. Allen emphasizes that he will be guided by the philosophy that students can be trusted and should be allowed a chance for unlimited growth.

He came to St. Andrews because he enjoys working with young people. And from his past experience he possibly can foresee many problems and attempt to solve them before they become critical. If changes are necessary Mr. Allen will see that they are made.

Mr. Allen is presently living in Mecklenburg Dormitory. He looks upon this as an opportunity to get to know many students personally and to create an avenue of communication with both the men and women students.

W. LAWSON ALLEN

Kelly, Adams Begin Talks on Alcoholism

During February and March Dr. Norbert Kelly, associate director of the North Carolina Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program (ARP), and George H. Adams, educational director of the organization, will present a series of lectures and movies about the control and prevention of alcoholism to various chapel and class assemblies.

Beginning Feb. 5 all freshmen will assemble on six consecutive Mondays at 10 a.m. for 45-minute sessions with the speakers. Three of the upper-classmen chapel meetings in February have been denoted for the special programs.

Topics to be discussed by the state leaders are "Nature and Effects of Alcohol," "Alcohol Problems," "Why Do People Drink?" "The Illness of Alcoholism," "Resources for Combatting Alcoholism" and "Prevention of Alcoholism."

Dr. Kelly, who is particularly concerned with helping the public gain a clearer understanding of the illness and prevention of alcoholism, has been affiliated with the State ARP since its inception in 1950.

A sociologist, the associate director is in charge of the educational and community organizational activities of the ARP. He also participates in the treatment program for alcoholics at Butner.

Dr. Kelly received his B. A.

degree from the Carnegie Institute of Technology and his Master's degree and Ph. D. from the University of North Carolina.
