

The Lance

VOL. I, No. 10

ST. ANDREWS PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, LAURINBURG, N. C.

FEBRUARY 13, 1962

Theme: 'Who Am I?'

Dr. E. H. Jones Begins Services

Dr. Edward Jones, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Norfolk, Va., will be meeting St. Andrews students and faculty members in chapel and vesper addresses and in planned and informal discussion during the three days of Services for Christian Growth, today through Thursday.

Bringing to the campus the wisdom of study and experience in many institutions, the speaker is a graduate of Los Angeles High School and Occidental College in Los Angeles, California; and of Princeton Theological Seminary in Princeton, New Jersey.

He holds a Master of Arts degree from Princeton University and a Doctor of Divinity degree from Occidental College.

In 1931 he married Dorothy Griffiths in Los Angeles. The couple now have a daughter, Mrs. George A. Wilson, a graduate of Grove City College, Penn., and a son, Robert Griffiths Jones, who graduated from Davidson in 1958 and is now working on his Ph. D. degree at Duke University.

Dr. Jones served as a chaplain in the Air Corps in World War II from 1943-45. Besides his present position, his pastorates have included the Gettysburg Presbyterian Church, Gettysburg, Penn. and State College Presbyterian Church, State College, Penn.

He was Moderator of the Synod of Pennsylvania, 1949-50, and is Moderator-in-Nomination of the Synod of Virginia.

A member of the Board of Trustees of Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va., Dr. Jones is also on the Advisory Board of the Norfolk College of William and Mary.

These three days of special services, if utilized, can become the takeoff platform for continual discussion and thought. Dr. Jones will be asked to compose a list of books and other writings that deal with both old-fashioned and modern questions.

Students of St. Andrews will either stultify, out of passivity to these currents of hearing, thinking, and saying, or they will grow, from participation.

Until the services begin, and continuing through them, Dr. Jones asks for the prayers of students and faculty, concerning his ministry and their participation.

Day Students

There will be a Day Student Association meeting Monday' Feb. 20 in room 119 of the academic building. This meeting is called by Day Student Association president Ken Kirby to discuss current business and to give the Day Students an opportunity to cast their vote in the "Best Dressed" contest.

Dr. Edward Jones, Norfolk, Va., will be on campus today through Thursday.

Recital To Be Presented By Professor J. E. Williams

John E. Williams, Associate Professor of Organ, will give his faculty recital on Feb. 18 at 5:00 p.m. in the Laurinburg Presbyterian Church. The recital is sponsored jointly by St. Andrews and the Laurinburg Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Williams received his B.M. from Oberlin Conservatory of Music and his M.M. from the University of Michigan.

Upon receiving a Fulbright scholarship in 1954-1955 Mr. Williams furthered his studies at the Royal School of Church Music in Croydon, England. He also received a Presbyterian U. S. scholarship to study with Charles Letestu in Hamburg, Germany, during the summer of 1958.

Mr. Williams has been Associate Professor of Organ since he joined the Flora Macdonald faculty in the fall of 1951.

While attending school Mr. Williams became a member of Pi Kappa Lambda and Pi Mu Alpha Sinfonia. Mr. Williams was very interested in dramatics and was received into Alpha Psi Omega, the National Honorary Dramatic Fraternity.

MR. JOHN E. WILLIAMS

In 1952 Mr. Williams was national finalist in the Young Organist Contest sponsored by the American Guild of Organists. Mr. Williams has been very active in the AGO and has been past Dean of the Fayetteville Chapter. He has also served as adjudicator in the AGO for the Young Organist Contests and Guild exams.

During the Second World War Mr. Williams served in the Intelligence Division of SHAEF, headquarters of Major General Dwight D. Eisenhower. Mr. Williams was a recipient of the Bronze Star.

Over the past several years Mr. Williams has given organ recitals in seven states and England.

Mr. Williams has chosen the following program for his recital: Trumpet Voluntary, Jeremiah Clarke

Fifers, Dandrieu
Prelude and Fugue in c minor, Bach
Sonata No. 6, Mendelssohn
Toccata from Symphony No. 5, Widor
Greensleeves, Purvis
Primitive Organ, Yon
Pastorale, Vierne
Carillon de Westminster, Vierne.

SAC Students To Keep Prayer Day

Sunday, February 18, is Universal Day of Prayer, a time when students of colleges and universities in every country join to pray: for forgiveness in thanks, in praise, in intercession.

Sponsored annually by the National Student Christian Federation, the day will this year be observed corporately at St. Andrews. Students should watch bulletin boards for further observance plans.

SAC To Have Entry In National Contest

Vote Monday Night for "Best Dressed Co-Ed"

GLAMOUR's annual contest to find the "Ten Best Dressed College Girls in America" is on again and St. Andrews has been invited by the magazine to help by selecting the "best dressed girl on campus."

The judging standards used by the magazine — and the ones St. Andrews will use to find its candidate — are good figure, beautiful posture, clean, shining, well-kept hair, good grooming — not just neat, but impeccable; a deft hand with make-up (enough to look pretty but not overdone); a clear understanding of her fashion type.

Also imagination in managing a clothes budget; a workable wardrobe plan; individuality in her use of colors, accessories; a suitable campus look (she's in line with local customs); appropriate — not rah rah — look for off campus occasions.

The young woman who best meets these qualifications will compete with best dressed winners from hundreds of colleges in the United States and Canada for top honors in the GLAMOUR contest.

A committee representing the campus met Feb. 6 to select the nominees for this contest. They considered the above criteria in arriving at the final ten who will compete. The contestants' pictures appear in this issue of The Lance.

The committee members were Elaine Ward, chairman; Magie Fishburne, senior class; Mary Frances Wheeler, junior class; Gayle Chandler, sophomore class; Barbie Irby, freshman; Dickie Knowles, Mecklenburg Dorm; Don Brown, Orange Dorm; Mrs. Helen Gustafson, and Miss Nancy Brown.

At the regular dormitory meetings Feb. 19 ballots will be distributed and a school-wide vote will be taken for the campus' best dresser. The winner will be announced in the Feb. 27 issue of the newspaper.

Photographs of the St. Andrews miss in a campus outfit, a daytime off campus outfit, and a party dress and the official entry form will be sent to GLAMOUR by March 1 for the national judging. The magazine will select a group of semi-finalists and from these the "top ten" will be chosen. The rest of the semi-finalists will be named Honorable Mention winners.

The young women who are named GLAMOUR's 1962 "Ten Best Dressed College Girls in America" will be photographed in the spring for the annual August College Issue and will be flown to New York in June via American Airlines for a two-week visit as guests of the magazine.

The glamorous visit will be highlighted by a fashion show at famed Carnegie Hall where the winners will be introduced to over 1,000 members of the fashion industry. If 1961 is anything to go by, the 1962 winners will be wined, dined, feted and gifted at a dizzy pace.

SC Fills Honor Council Vacancies

BROWNING VAUGHAN

Last week the Student Council appointed Edward Browning and Earl Vaughan to fill vacancies in the Honor Council. These students will serve until spring elections.

Earl Monroe Vaughan was chosen to fill the vacancy in the junior class Honor Council representatives. Earl is an English major and preministerial student and plans to attend Columbia Seminary after graduation from St. Andrews.

Earl's home is in Clarksburg, Missouri, and there was a span of thirteen years between his graduation from high school and his first college days which began at PJC. He worked at several retail businesses as well as serving in the U.S. Army before he decided to become a minister.

He now calls Fayetteville, N. C. home, where he lives with his wife, Peggy, and their son, Earl, Jr. Earl enjoys salt water fishing and also plays the piano.

Edward Parry Browning III, better known as "Ned," was appointed sophomore Honor Council representative. Ned is from Winchester, Va., where he attended high school and graduated in the upper ten per cent of his class. He was also judge of his high school honor council, which adds to his qualifications for his new position.

An English major, Ned plans to enter T. C. Williams Law School upon graduation from St. Andrews. For hobbies he likes to listen to classical music and play basketball.