

Meet The Candidates

St. Andrews Student Government Association

President

The top office of the Student Government Association is perhaps the most responsible position on campus. The president is considered the official representative of the student body.

His main duty is the leadership of the Student Council, as he has the power of calling and presiding over all meetings. He is also to exercise this power in all meetings of the student body.

The president is charged with appointing committees and filling positions not specified in the Constitution. He does this with the consent of the Senate.

WAYNE BALLARD

Wayne, a business major from Wadesboro, N. C., spent his freshman and sophomore years at Wingate College. There he received the Improvement Cup in his sophomore year, the highest of three awards given annually at Wingate. He was also in the Drama Club.

At St. Andrews Wayne is on the senate, and was chairman of the constitution committee.

WAYNE

LARRY FOWLER

A Junior transfer from Presbyterian Junior College, Larry Fowler has been very active in student government affairs both at PJC and St. Andrews. He served as Secretary-Treasurer of the PJC Student Council and was voted one of the outstanding Sophomores there. At St. Andrews he has held the position of President of the Student Center Board, member of the Student Council, member of the Senate, member of Orange Dormitory Council and member of the Elections Committee. Larry is interested in making a career in accounting.

LARRY FOWLER

Vice-President

The vice-president of the Student Government Association acts as second in command to the president. He must assume all duties of the president in his absence for any length of time or at the president's request. If for any reason the president's office is vacated the vice-president assumes full duties of the president of the SGA.

The vice-president of the Student Government Association also acts as chairman of the Senate and calls and presides at all meetings of this body.

FAYE

FAYE HOOKS

Alice Faye Hooks, from Fayetteville, North Carolina, last year was secretary of the FMC Student Government Association and a member of the Student Council, and also president of the sophomore class. She was World University Service campus representative and a member of the Student Faculty Co-operative Committee.

This year Faye is a member of the SGA Steering Committee, secretary of the Student Council and a member of the Senate. Her major is Elementary Education.

PEGGY

PEGGY JONES

Peggy Jones, a junior from Fayetteville, North Carolina, is majoring in Social Studies. She attended FMC last year and was on the Dean's List both semesters.

Here at St. Andrews she has served on the Honor Council and the Student Center Board.

Peggy was elected to the Honor Council for one term representing the junior class.

Secretary

The secretary of the Student Government Association performs the usual duties of this office in our student government.

This responsibility of this office involves keeping the minutes of all meetings of the SGA and of the Student Council. A copy of the minutes must be posted in the student center by the secretary, and a permanent copy must be kept.

The secretary also holds the responsibility of communication between the Student Council and the dean of student's office on any decisions or recommendations.

The secretary must also handle all correspondence of the SGA.

PHYLLIS CAROL BROOKS

Carol was an honor roll student at FMC, as well as being Freshman May Court Attendant, on the Student Council, and receiving the Latin Award.

She is presently treasurer of the St. Andrews SGA, and a member of the National Education Association.

Carol's main studies are French and History. She is a resident of Charlotte, N. C.

CAROL

MARJORIE RHEM

A sophomore from Charlotte, North Carolina, Marjorie Rhem is planning to major in Mathematics. She is a transfer from FMC and served the freshman class as one of their officers. Marjorie was also listed on the Dean's List while at FMC.

This year at St. Andrews Marjorie has been a Big Sister.

MARJORIE

Treasurer

The treasurer of the SGA is to maintain a permanent record of all financial transactions of the Student Government Association. It is the duty of the treasurer to formulate a budget for the coming year. This is done in consultation with the budget committee.

The treasurer makes semi-annual budget reports to the SGA and quarterly reports to the Senate. He must consult with the Business Manager of the college relative to disbursements. He must submit the treasurer's books to the Business Office once per semester and/or at the request of the office to be audited.

The treasurer is a member of the Student Council.

TED

TED GOLDTHORPE

A junior from Charleston, West Va., Ted transferred from Hampden-Sidney College in Virginia. While at Hampden-Sidney he served on the intramural committee and on a campus social committee, as well as being sports editor of the paper there.

Ted was a day student first semester.

NORWOOD

NORWOOD MADDRY

Norwood Maddry, a sophomore from Lumberton, N. C., transferred to St. Andrews from the University of North Carolina. While at the University, he served on the Freshman Board of Directors. Interested in the Peace Corps, Norwood has already taken some preliminary tests for that group. Here at St. Andrews he has served as Sophomore Senator, a member of the Points Committee, member of the Traffic Council, and on the staff of THE LANCE. Norwood is interested in a career in law after graduation.

Student Center Board Pres.

The president of the Student Center Board is in complete charge of the work of the Student Center Board. He calls and presides over the meetings of this organization. He serves as the student host or hostess for the college.

The president is also to assist the Student Center Director in co-ordinating the Student Center calendar. It is the responsibility of the president to maintain the social standards of the Student Center as set by the Student Center Board.

In addition to these responsibilities the president of the Student Center Board represents his area of campus life on the Student Council.

NANCI CROWELL

Nanci Crowell comes to us from Colonial Heights, Virginia. She attended FMC where she was president of the Classical Club, Prayerband Leader, member of Epsilon Chi Society, Sophomore class editor for annual and was on the Dean's List with regularity. She has served as co-social director for the Officer's Club at Fort Lee, Virginia for the past three summers where she aided in co-ordinating all social activities for the officers, their wives, and the bachelor officers.

Nanci is on the staff of THE LAMP AND SHIELD and is a member of the Student Center Board.

NANCI

BONNIE L. LAYTON

Bonnie Layton, a junior from Fayetteville, North Carolina, is an Elementary Education major. Bonnie comes to us from Flora Macdonald and is at present Chairman of the Campus Coffee Committee on the Student Center Board.

BONNIE