

The Lance

VOL. I, No. 13

ST. ANDREWS PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, LAURINBURG, N. C.

APRIL 3, 1962

Dr. Ansley C. Moore To Be Inaugurated President Dr. G. C. White To Deliver Principle Address Thursday

Dr. Goodrich Cook White, Chancellor of Emory University, will be the principle speaker Thursday, April 12, for the Inauguration of Ansley Moore, who will be installed as the first President of St. Andrews Presbyterian College.

Dr. White will keynote the series of events leading to the installment of Dr. Moore. The events will include luncheons; a Symposium: Christianity, Culture, and the Twenty-First Century; as well as the inauguration.

Dr. White was born Nov. 13, 1889 in the small town of Griffin, Georgia. He completed his undergraduate program at Emory University located in Oxford, Georgia. After receiving his M.A. degree from Columbia University and his Ph.D. from the University of Chicago, Dr. White went on to obtain an LL.D., Litt.D. H.D. and an L.H.D.

Dr. White began his educational career as a Professor of English at Kentucky Wesleyan College. Continuing his studies he became Professor of Psychology and Education at Wesleyan College in Macon; Professor of Mental and Moral Science, Emory University; associate professor of Psychology, professor of psychology and Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Emory. Later he became Dean of the Graduate School; Vice President; President and since 1957 has served as Chancellor of Emory University.

Dr. White's list of academic accomplishments are carried over into the field of organizational achievements. Dr. White has served as: President, United Chapters Phi Beta Kappa; President, Assc. Georgia Colleges; President, Conference Academic Deans of Southern States; Director Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co., and numerous others.

Inaugural Schedule

Mar. 26-Apr. 18 Art Exhibit — Paintings of the Southland, Student Center

Tues., Apr. 3 Air Force Recruiting Group, Student Center

Departmental Clubs.

Wed., Apr. 4 Spring Recess begins after 12:00 noon

Tues., Apr. 10 St. Andrews vs. Pembroke, Baseball, 3:00, Legion Field, Laurinburg

Wed., Apr. 11 Classes resume

Inaugural Program

Thurs., Apr. 12 Mid-Semester grades due

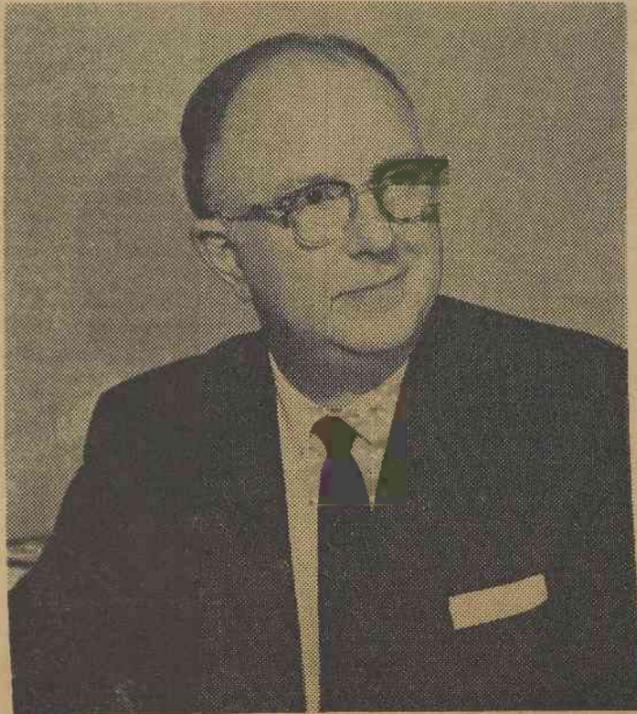

Inaugural Program

Fri., Apr. 13 Duplicate Bridge Club, 7:30-10:30, Faculty Dining Room

Sat., Apr. 14 Founders Day St. Andrews vs. Carolina Wesleyan, Baseball, 3:00, there

Departmental Clubs

Films on art 6:30-7:30 p. m., 8:00-9:00, LA Aud.

DR. ANSLEY CUNNINGHAM MOORE

First SAC President Is A Native Of Atlanta, Georgia

Dr. Ansley C. Moore was born in Atlanta, Georgia in 1903. In 1929 he married Margaret Haynie; they have two children, Margaret Ansley and Sally, who are both married.

Dr. Moore received his Bachelor of Philosophy Degree from Emory University and his Bachelor of Divinity Degree from Columbia Theological Seminary. He did graduate work at the University of Chicago Divinity School, Union Theological Seminary of Richmond, Virginia, and Union Theological Seminary of New York. He received the Doctor of Divinity honorary degree from Southwestern-at-Memphis in 1944.

He has held pastorates in Georgia, Florida, Alabama, and in the Sixth United Presbyterian Church of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He has served in the the following church positions: the midnight minister of a Pittsburgh radio station; a columnist for the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph; a former member of the Board of Trustees of Agnes Scott College, Huskingum College, and Columbia Theological Seminary; associate editor for Presbyterian Outlook; an ex-

(Continued on Page 5)

Varied Inaugural Events Planned

Dr. Ansley Cunningham Moore will be inaugurated as President of St. Andrews Presbyterian College in special ceremonies here April 11 and 12.

The inauguration ceremonies, which will climax our first year of operation, will begin on April 11 at 10:00 a.m. with an alumni meeting in the music conservatory, followed by a noon alumni luncheon and registration. The high spot of the day will be a symposium on "Christianity, Culture and the 21st Century" in the C & C auditorium at 2 p.m., led by Dr. Waldo Beach of Duke University, Dr. Ruth Eckert of the University of Minnesota, Dr. Lindsey Hobbs of St. Andrews, and Dr. Frontis Johnston of Davidson. To close the day's activities, there will be a concert by the choral groups of the college at the National Guard Armory that evening.

The inauguration of President Moore will take place at 10:00 p.m. on April 12, in front of the Student Center. The inauguration speaker will be Chancellor Goodrich C. White of Emory University at Atlanta. Processional music for the occasion will be an original number composed by Dr. Charles Vardell, Jr. of St. Andrews faculty.

Dr. Moore comes to St. Andrews from Pittsburgh, Penna. where he served with distinction as pastor of the Sixth United Presbyterian Church.

4 College Professors To Be Featured In Symposium

"Christianity, Culture and the Twenty-First Century" is the theme of the Symposium to be presented during the first day of inaugural activities, April 11, from 2-4 p.m. in the Liberal Arts Auditorium.

Dr. David B. Hawk, professor of sociology at St. Andrews, will introduce the program participants. An introductory statement will also be offered by Dr. Frontis W. Johnston, symposium moderator and dean of the faculty at Davidson College.

Panelists for the event include Dr. Lindsey N. Hobbs, head of the natural science department at St. Andrews, who will speak on "The Liberal Arts College and the Problem of Planning for the Future;" Dr. Ruth E. Eckert, professor of higher education at the University of Minnesota, "Short — and Long — Range Goals for the Christian College;" and Dr. Waldo Beach, professor Christian Ethics at Duke, "Integrated Studies — A Valid Concept for Today?"

Students are invited to attend this inauguration event. Loud speakers will be set up to accommodate the expected overflow of people who will have to listen to the program from outside the auditorium.

DR. GOODRICH C. WHITE

DR. WALDO BEACH

DR. FRONTIS JOHNSTON