Browning Interview

J.B. I go back to N.Y. for two days, then on to a concert in Detroit and then an extensive tour of the mid-west. After I complete the mid-west tour I go immediately to Europe for several concerts and then back to the U.S. to open some summer music festivals. This will last till August, when I plan to take a vacation around the Mediterranean to see the ancient ruins before they put them under water.

I plan to rest till the opening of the new Philharmonic Hall at the Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts.

Samuel Barber has composed a new concerto for the occasion which I will premiere at the opening with the Boston Symphony Orchestra.
